Work of Conference President

1. We recommend that the President travel the Conference, with duties as follows:

2. To hold one quarterly meeting on each charge during the year, unless the work on some of the weaker fields or new fields should so fully take his time and attention that this could not well be done. In such case the holding of such meeting on the strongest fields may be omitted, but this would not release any charge from paying their proportion of the Conference Budget.

3. To spend the time of our annual Camp Meeting at the Meeting, and if necessary in order to perfect arrangements for the Camp Meeting more time is needful to be given to that work, it shall be so devoted.

4. To open in some place or places new work, if possible and feasible.

5. To spend as much time as he may find available in helping to build up the work on some of our weaker fields, such as Stony Creek, Acorn Hill and Burke.

6. The amount of salary to be twenty-three dollars ($23) per week, and traveling expenses for the year, and have three weeks' vacation.

We, as a Conference, will pray that the gracious blessing of the Lord may rest on our President, giving him health, strength and wisdom, and we will coöperate with him in a united effort to make 1930-1931 the best year in upbuilding results in our history, and to God we will give the glory.

REPORTS

Report No. 1

PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

To the Champlain Annual Conference, assembled at West Chazy, N. Y., July 1st to 6th, 1930.

In traveling the field as directed by the Conference, I have held several revival campaigns. Each charge has been visited at least once. Special meetings, quarterly services, prayer meetings and all religious services held total more than two hundred. In addition, a Ministerial Institute was planned and held at Mooers, N. Y. From Medford, Mass., a new organization, to Lisbon, N. Y., in the north end of the field, I have attempted to keep an oversight of the field, both by correspondence and personal visitation. No phenomenal success has been realized; but some souls have responded to the preaching and the Spirit's call. May the Divine blessing be upon each Church and Pastor, and the interests of the Conference.

Report No. 7

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Committee on Resolutions herewith submit the following report:

1. We, the members of the Champlain Annual Conference, assembled in its eighty-ninth session, affirm our belief that the Wesleyan Methodist Church is a vine of God's own planting. We pledge our loyalty to its varied interests and to its Disciplinary requirements as the proper interpretation of the Scriptures and rule of conduct for professing Christians.

2. We maintain our historic position in regard to the use of intoxicating liquors and no compromise with this gigantic evil.

3. We view with alarm the increasing use of the cigaret, especially among young women, and raise our protest against it; also against the immodest styles of dress so prevalent today, immoral in tendency and results.

4. We note the rising tide of apostasy, exemplified by so called modernism and militant atheism, and recognize the best method of resistance to these evils is not mere argument or debate, but a faithful use of the ministry of prayer, with a loyal testimony that will precipitate revivals of religion, and so destroy the contentions of the destroyers.

5. With humble gratitude for past blessings, and hope for the future, we will continue to walk in the old paths.

Respectfully submitted,

O. M. FINCH, Committee.

RESOLUTIONS

We, as a Committee, submit the following report:

We thank our God for His many blessings the past year. Our lives have been spared and we have been prospered in the work He has given us to do. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we give Him praise and live such consecrated holy lives that should He call any of us before another annual meeting, He could say to us, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Further Resolved, That as we believe in the efficacy of prayer, we will earnestly pray that the blessing of the Lord may continue to rest upon us, individually and collectively, and that strength and wisdom may be given us that we may make this the best year in our history as a Society.

Signed,

MRS. EVA ALLEN.

PLAN OF WORK FOR LOCAL SOCIETIES

Receipts and disbursements must be made to balance before being placed in the hands of the Statistical Committee.

5. That all Missionary Boxes are to be given proper credit, but not in the column with cash receipts and disbursements.

6. That we continue our efforts to help in the maintenance of the Hephzibah Orphanage.
