REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Report No. 1

THE REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Yesterday we were gathered here to plan the work of the year that faced us. Today we are assembled again to review the results of that year's efforts, and to plan for tomorrow. Surely "The King's business demands haste," or, at least, we must exercise much diligence in being about our Father's business. We render humble gratitude to Him who has so graciously favored us during the days of the Conference year just closing.

It is with gratitude and some degree of satisfaction that we note within our midst a continued and growing spirit of aggression, a desire to occupy more thoroughly the territory in which we reside, a determination to meet the challenge of the cities that have grown up within the bounds of the Conference. We have entered one more of these cities during the past year. This spirit, these efforts, have brought us face to face with a new and vexing set of problems, so perplexing indeed at times that they become painful. Doubtless there are those who interpret these as our death struggles. May we not rather look upon them as "growing pains."

Following is a brief record of my efforts to carry out your desires, and to render some bit of helpful service to the work of the Conference:

1. I have issued the licenses provided for by the last Conference.
2. Under date of December 13, I received the transfer of Leon M. Briggs from the Oregon Conference to the Rochester Conference.
3. On January 26, on recommendation of the Westfield church, I received Harold Douglass to study preparatory to travel. On May 29 I issued him an authorization to administer the sacraments until June 24.
4. On February 23, with the advice and consent of my Advisory Board, I organized the First Wesleyan Methodist church of Corning, N. Y., with an initial membership of eight.
5. Bath Charge was left in care of the President. In August Brother Huntsman began supplying this work and has continued through the year.
6. Boylston was left in care of the President. Brother Lawrence has given them pastoral care during the year, but they have had no regular services.

THE ROCHESTER CONFERENCE

7. Fyler was left to be supplied through the President. Brother E. D. Carpenter was secured to supply that work immediately after Conference.

8. Groton was left in care of the President. It has not been supplied during the year.

9. Hornby was supplied by Brother B. E. Rudd, conditionally. The condition was met and he has continued on the work.

10. Odessa was to be supplied by Sumner Brainard, conditionally. The condition was not met, and Brother Leonard Hayes of the Champlain Conference was secured for that work.

11. Orwell was left in care of the President. It has not been supplied.

12. Seneca Falls was to be supplied by Brother Leon M. Briggs, conditionally. The condition was not met, and the work has not been supplied.

13. Westfield was to be supplied by Brother Harold Douglass, conditionally. The condition was met and he has continued on the work.

14. On January 5, Rev. E. H. and Zelia Johnson resigned as the pastors of the Jasper Charge because of the illness of the latter. Since then I have endeavored to supply that work myself.

I think I appreciate as fully as any one the rather unsatisfactory relationship that has existed in the administrative work of the Conference during the past year. I think I can appreciate, therefore, very fully the kindly consideration that has been given the President during that time. I have not failed to note and to appreciate the hearty coöperation and the noble efforts of the Advisory Board, every Pastor in the Conference, and the considerable number of laymen with whom my work has brought me in contact.

STANLEY W. WRIGHT, President.

BIBLE INSTITUTE

To the Members of the Rochester Annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church) of America:

Brethren: Greeting in the name of the Holy Spirit, who inspired Paul to write to Timothy, "Study to show thyself approved of God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." I believe this message comes down to us today as ministers of the Gospel of Jesus.

Our Institute, by invitation, was held with our new church in the city of Elmira, N. Y. I am sure that each one who attended this Institute was well pleased with the program, and there were some special features. The people of Elmira were so well pleased that they invited us back again next year, if we decide to go. It seemed, to me and others that the Sunday School Convention following the Institute was of great spiritual help. Our Conference Sunday School Secretary gave us a very inspiring and spiritual address. We plan to make these annual gatherings a real blessing to each one who attends and also to the church which entertains us. We would do well to apply the words of Jesus, "Come and see," to our decision when we think of the Institute.

Yours and His,

H. S. HILL, Chairman.

Report No. 4

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY

To the Members of the Rochester Annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church) of America:

I present the following report:

Conventions have been held at Elmira, Odessa, Buena Vista, Has-kinville and Corning. These Conventions were times of real help and inspiration. For the report of the Sunday School membership we refer you to the totals of Item IV in the Statistical report.

I submit the following standard for the Silver Cup contest for the Conference year 1930-1931:

No school can compete without a gain in enrollment. Each Sunday School enrollment is to be revised at the end of each quarter.

1. The Sunday School having the highest average attendance of its enrollment, based on the end of its previous quarter, will receive 35 per cent.

2. The Sunday School having the highest percentage gain in enrollment, based on the end of the previous quarter, will receive 25 per cent.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS REPORT

With gratitude toward God for His preserving care and guiding hand, we have come to the close of another year. The Church of God in all ages has been called upon to champion the cause of her Founder and should take the forefront of the battle against all that is opposed to God and the welfare of His creatures.

We would briefly reaffirm our position as a Church unequivocally opposed to the great evils that are so common today.

Bacchus, at whose altars so many have worshiped, the debaucher of man, the child of Hell, has slain his tens of millions, he has a large and popular following and has been acclaimed by untold multitudes down through the centuries; he has seemed at times so firmly entrenched in the affairs of men and lovers of filthy lucre that to dethrone him would be impossible. But we are thankful that through the organized and persevering efforts of the lovers of sobriety this demon of lust has been routed, and we believe the time is not far distant when he shall be driven from our fair land, and in the place of reeking altars shall be seen the march of industry and peace. At the present time the situation in regard to prohibition is extremely perilous. All former attacks on the Eighteenth Amendment are dwarfed by the present onslaughts. We do not look with favor on the Literary Digest Poll because of its apparent inaccuracy, which may add to the sources of wet propaganda. However the Church will see in every difficult and threatening issue an enemy to be attacked and vanquished.

We still are opposed to insidious Rome. Free institutions are imperilled by Political Rome. Catholicism leaves no opportunity unoccupied for extending her interests and influences.

American liberty requires for its preservation the intelligent and continuous loyalty of her patriots. In order to effectively aid their great work we should keep ourselves well informed in regard to the Catholic political machine and use our influence and vote to make them null.

This is the golden age of secretism. In some churches lodge affiliations count more than brains or grace in securing good appointments. We stand opposed to this growing kingdom of evil.

The Scriptures teach that men are sinners and must repent. We are not in sympathy with the modern way of Godless choirs, unchristian workers shaking the hand of the praise-loving leaders; and we believe deceitfully handling the word of truth. This Conference has had some most gracious revivals during the past year.

For a number of years there has been a fast developing laxness in the marriage relation until in some circles marriage is no more sacred than dealing in some commercial commodity. Men and women alike bargain and dispose of their companions much the same as a business man would his chattel. Let us seek out the worm beneath the bark of our home and civic life and destroy it.

God has never relinquished His claim to one day in seven as sacred time. But this claim is quite generally ignored, and the day designed for soul culture and worship of God is used by many for business and pleasure. We have reasons to expect God's judgments upon this nation for the widespread desecration of His day. We cannot meet the obligations of others and may fail to persuade them to meet their own, but we can comply with the requirements of God and live with a conscience void of offense. With Scriptural practice and earnest plea let us place the full weight of our influence on God's side.

There are certain principles which are fundamental to organized society and without a proper recognition of those principles society would be thrown into confusion and anarchy. The first of these principles is the right of ownership. This principle is not only fundamental to and recognized by society, but is one of the fundamental principles of common law.

The second principle is the right of remuneration. Every individual has a right to a proper and equitable remuneration from others for the use of his property.

The third principle is the right of the owner to fix the amount of remuneration he shall receive for the use of his property.

Every member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church is under moral obligation to recognize these principles when he deals with his fellow-man, and if he fails to recognize them the law of the land will compel him. Now these principles lay at the foundation of tithing and we believe are morally binding on the conscience of every Wesleyan.

This system would tend to equalize the burden of supporting the Gospel. If every one would give one-tenth no one would be overburdened.

THE ROCHESTER CONFERENCE

The cigarette and tobacco habit is condemned by both the Bible and science as injurious to man. It is unclean beyond description and befogs the brain and befouls the body and deserves nothing but condemnation from righteous men.

To publish is to make known and it is necessary we do this with good literature when the enemies of the Cross are so busy spreading the injurious everywhere. The course of many a life has been changed by reading some good book or tract, while many lives have been blasted for time and eternity by pernicious publications. Many thinking men have said that the press is doing more to mould the character of individual men and national life than any other force operating in the world today. The Church is blessed with competent and worthy authors and has a literature peculiar to its own. Our own Church paper, the Wesleyan Methodist, cannot be surpassed and should be in the home of every Wesleyan. The books we issue are always helpful and interesting. The place to purchase is at our own Publishing House because of the excellence of the product handled.

Dr. John McClintock, first President of Drew Theological Seminary, said of Methodism, "As to its theology, it takes the old theology of the Christian Church, but it takes one element which no other Christian Church has dared to put forward as a prominent feature in theology." In the Wesleyan Methodist Church this is the point from which we view all theology. All other issues grow out of this one. Our work is the work of making men holy. Our preaching, our churches, our agencies, our colleges are for this purpose. Here is our mission, here is our power, here is our glory, here is the ground of our triumph. Our worst need casts us entirely outside our own resources. The preaching of holiness will meet the needs. Brethren, our creed is not founded on the welfare of man, but the glory of God, and that is holiness. Shall we not feed the people if we expect them to feed us? Professor Forsyth said, "With its preaching Christianity stands or falls. Immerse your subject in the spirit of prayer. Aspire to the highest and our service will be efficient."

Whereas, Our rural charges are, many of them, in a life-and-death struggle on account of a changing population and a depleted membership as a result of an unjust burden of taxes which our Government has laid upon the country people; and,

Whereas, Our rural charges constitute the major portion of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church) and our country communities are in grave danger of becoming pagan because of indifference to religion; and,

Whereas, The country church is considered of so much importance to public affairs that it was given a place in a Round Table Talk on Public Affairs last August in the University of Virginia; therefore be it Resolved, by the members of the Rochester Conference, That we petition our General Conference, which meets at Houghton, N. Y., next year, asking them to appoint a committee of competent persons who shall make an exhaustive study of conditions on our rural charges with the purpose of bringing relief to the rural charges, and also that this subject might properly be brought to the attention of our denominational leaders.

Inasmuch as the program of Jesus included three things—teaching, preaching and healing, and inasmuch as in our program as a church we have greatly neglected to minister to the sick in the way of providing doctors and nurses for our rural districts, therefore be it

Resolved, That we shall keep in touch with young medical students and graduate nurses with a view to encouraging them to volunteer work in the rural districts.
