REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

We, your Conference Sunday School Board respectfully submit the following report.

We are happy to report that the statistics reveal a healthy increase in the various departments of the Sunday School.

Thirty schools conducted D. V. B. S., the total enrollment of which was 1369 with an average attendance of 1072. This is a gain of 30%.

Ninety-two schools were reported last year in the statistical report, but we received 102 reports for Rally Day with a total attendance of 7899 or an average of 77 per school. One hundred schools reported on the Thanksgiving Day Offering. We certainly appreciate the co-operation of the pastors and workers who helped to make possible this splendid showing.

Recommendations:

1. We recommend that the Sunday School apportionment be 10 cents per member enrollment in the main school.
2. We recommend the Tuesday night of Conference be designated as Sunday School night.
3. We recommend that Sunday, Sept. 30th be Sunday School Rally Day and that the pastors make a special effort for a record attendance. Also that announcement be made of a Special Offering on Rally Day to apply on the purchase of a house for the Conference President. A report of the Rally Day attendance and offering be sent at once to the Conference Sunday School Secretary and the offering be forwarded to the Conference Treasurer.
4. We recommend that conventions be held in each of the Districts during the week of October 16th to 26th. These dates and places are arranged.

Report No. 9

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Your committee on resolutions submits the following report:

First: We as a conference re-assert the historic position of our church regarding her Christian doctrines and reform principles.

Second: In view of the announcement of V-J Day, we gratefully acknowledge our thanksgiving to Almighty God for national Victory. Realizing our constant dependence upon God we solicit the continued prayers of our people for the completion of the peace and the establishment of good-will toward all men. To our three chaplains and our service men and women we extend our deep appreciation for their devoted service, and welcome them back to our churches.

Third: We re-affirm our protest against Communism with its attendant evils, against the liquor and cigarette traffic as an increasing menace, and against all false doctrines as Russellism, Christian Science, Seventh Day Adventism, the Tongues movement, and the teaching of eternal security. We admonish our people to refrain from supporting them, reading their literature, or listening to their broadcasts.

Fourth: We deplore the encroaching tide of worldliness upon the church and emphasize the upholding of our standards in Sabbath-observance, parental authority, modesty of apparel, and reverence for the ministry and holy things, that we as a church may ever be an example of Bible holiness in Christian living.

Report No. 2

To the youth of the Indiana Conference:

We call upon you to join with us today in gratitude and praise to God for the blessings which have come to us since we last met.

As we review the past year, we are reminded that it was not without its problems, but God has been good to us and given victory.

Of course there is a sense of sadness when we think of our youth who have fallen on the fields of battle and of the many who have and will in the future return with physical handicaps; yet, we praise God that victory has finally come and soon many more of our youth will return to take their places in the church. I feel that we as a youth organization must accept a large share of the responsibility in helping them to adjust themselves to civilian life. We must not fail in our duty to those who have sacrificed so much for us.

We are happy to report that during the past year definite advancement has been made. There have been some new societies organized, a very good financial gain—especially for pioneer evangelism, and a good increase in subscriptions to the Wesleyan Youth. We are glad to report that practically every church with an organized society has paid the connectional dues.

Our pioneer project at Monticello has been organized into a Wesleyan Methodist Church, which at the present has thirteen full and seventeen associate members. The local congregation is at the present assuming the greater part of the pastor's support and we feel confident that soon the work will be self-supporting. I feel that God is blessing the program of pioneer evangelism and urge that we continue to launch out into new fields. These gains have been made possible only through the blessings of God and your cooperation. For this, we wish to thank you.

The connectional executive committee, at its last meeting, adopted a plan of work for the coming year. We have set as our goal for the denomination: 1000 new subscriptions to the Wesleyan Youth, the recruiting of 100 young people not already pledged to full time Christian service, 100 new local societies; looking forward to a local society in every church and a local youth rally conducted in every church during the year. As a conference, we must not fail in doing our part to reach these goals.

Realizing the need for more trained leaders among our youth, and the danger of losing them from the church, I hope it will be possible in the coming year to sponsor a Youth Training Week to be held on the camp ground. Shall we pray and work toward this end.

We feel that the future prospects for our youth organization are bright. We must maintain an attitude of utter dependence upon God and look to Him for whatever increase may come our way. If we keep the emphasis of Wesleyanism and maintain our margins of safety from all that would undermine spiritual life; if we keep our hearts hot with the love of God and filled with compassion for lost men, the future will bring rich blessings.

May I say that I have appreciated the honor and privilege of serving for the past five years as president of the W. Y. P. S. Conference. The cooperation of all the pastors and youth leaders of the conference has been commendable and as president of the Marion College Area, I trust that I will have your continued cooperation. May I close with the admonition of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians: "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

Signed:

H. J. Logsdon.

4. We resolve to pledge ourselves to be more Christ-like in that we will not clothe ourselves in a nude or semi-nude state; we will at all times protest the use of cigarettes and intoxicating liquors. We shall endeavor to educate our young people until they are awakened to the great danger of these poisons.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

5. Let us this year attempt to do more to evangelize the world by our prayers, finance, attendance, and by backing our special project of pioneer evangelism with all our hearts and strength as God gives us strength.

6. Whenever entertainment and recreation are needed between services at W. Y. P. S. rallies we resolve to encourage only the forms of recreation which are unquestionably those which conform with keeping the Sabbath day holy.

7. We resolve that all W. Y. P. S. rallies be held for the definite purpose of evangelizing, increasing interest in the W. Y. P. S., and encouraging a higher standard of Christian living among our youth.

8. We urge that each returning service man or woman be welcomed to our services and invited to take part whenever possible. Until our youth do all come home again let those societies which have been sending literature continue to do this good work.

9. We recommend that all reports in the W. Y. P. S. minutes be read at public services and attention directed to the meaning of these reports by the W. Y. P. S. delegate when the new minutes come out.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Report No. 1

Greetings in the Name of Him who loved us and redeemed us by His own precious Blood. Fifty-six years ago a little group of women became interested in spreading the Gospel by becoming interested in the education of two men whom God had called to preach His word: Rev. T. P. Baker and Rev. W. L. Thompson. This little group met out on the lawn and God met with them and a Missionary Society was born. It was born to live and to grow, not without opposition from the enemy but with prayer, faith and perseverance of the saints.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

The Indiana Conference has been represented on each mission field. New workers are being sent out; Miss Erma Steinacker to South America, Miss Peggy Rickey, R.N., elected to go to South America. As our responsibilities increase our prayers, faith and loyal support should increase.

Missionary Conventions were held with Miss Hazel Jones from India, and Rev. and Mrs. Alton Shea of Houghton, N. Y., as workers. Generous offerings were received. We believe local societies were helped by these visitations.

For the furtherance of the work of missions I recommend the Conference be divided into districts according to the conference districts. That a chairman be elected by each district to work with the presidents of said district and also the Conference president for missionary conventions.

We thank you for your patience with us, the splendid spirit of cooperation throughout the year, your prayers and faithfulness to the work. May the Lord warm our hearts as we meet together in the daily sessions.

PLAN OF WORK COMMITTEE

Whereas, our motto for the quadrennium is "Forward on our knees", and in this way be able to reach our arms around the world: We, your Committee on "Plan of Work", wish to submit the following recommendations:

1—The first service of the year be one of consecration, or re-dedication, and the Plan of Work be read along with the report of the delegate.

2—Each missionary service be marked with deep spirituality and untiring zeal.

3—A member should be appointed each month to bring the prayer requests given in the Wesleyan Missionary, and special prayer be offered.

4—Each Society do their best to reach the efficiency standard.

5—Harvest Day and all other red letter days be observed.

6—That a review of the book "Hudson Taylor's Spiritual Secret" be given.

7—That a special effort be made to secure more members, both active and honorary, and to increase our Magazine subscriptions.

8—That the Conference Secretary be instructed to mail to each society a copy of the "Efficiency Standard."

9—Have a day known as guest day, when your society entertains a neighboring society. This helps us to become better acquainted and to enjoy Christian fellowship.

RESOLUTIONS

We your committee on Resolutions, do submit the following report:

1. Resolved, That we do offer heartfelt thanks to God for outstanding gains—spiritual, numerical and financial; for our much-loved and Spirit-filled conference leaders; and for answered prayer and journeying mercies for our missionaries to and from their stations.

2. That we give grateful praise to our Heavenly Father for world peace, and for the endeavors of the United Nations to maintain it. And that we, as missionary women, recognize our obligation to all our young people, in uniform and out, and pledge ourselves to earnestly pray for their salvation and rehabilitation.

3. Whereas, Marion College has proven her spiritual as well as educational value to the youth of the church, and, whereas, there is a grave necessity for the new building, therefore, we heartily endorse the proposed plans, and promise not only to pray, but to work, for their success.

4. Realizing that God's greatest Commission to the church (Matt. 28:19) is as yet largely unfulfilled, let us earnestly dedicate ourselves to this great task of evangelism with renewed strength and determination to press on "Till earth's remotest nation has heard Messiah's claim."

5. Believing that modesty is a priceless quality of Christian virtue, and in view of the fearful tendency toward laxness in holding to Bible standards, let us resolve that we shall at all times dress as becometh holiness, and in all our relationships uphold the standards of God and the church.

6. Be it Resolved, that we unsparingly condemn the liquor traffic with its increasing ruthlessness: We urge our people to refuse to patronize any store or restaurant selling liquor, and that we urge an intensive program of temperance education be promoted among our people.

Respectfully submitted,
