Saturday p. m.

Devotions: Leader, Rev. Leon Barse. The congregation was blessed in the singing of "His Cross is Not Greater Than His Grace." Several victorious testimonies were given evidencing that the Christian way is glorious, and the source of real joy and peace.

Business: Roll call. Minutes read and accepted as corrected.

Committee on Pastoral Relations gave a partial report.

Committee on Itineracy and Orders gave report, and report was accepted. See Report No. 5.

Report of Sunday-school Secretary was read and approved. See Report No. 6.

Camp Meeting Committee gave report. Report was adopted. See Report No. 7.

Carrying out a motion voted in a previous session, the Conference elected an Auditing Committee whose duties will consist of the work of auditing the books. Committee elected: Clarence Murray, Chairman; Kenneth Smith.

Characters passed: J. J. Davison, C. R. Stopp, W. F. Lewis.

Voted to instruct the Secretary to write a letter of appreciation to Brother Walter Lewis.

Business gave way to Order of the Day—Preaching service.

This began with a song service led by C. R. Stopp. Singing "Throw Out the Life Line." Prayer by Sumner Brainard. Special song, "I Gave My Heart to Jesus; How About You?" by Brother DeWeerd.

Sermon by Brother Crowe, using 1 Samuel 4:21, 22. Brother Crowe effectively and kindly pointed out some of the evidences of departure of glory from the Christian life. 1. Loss of love; 2. Loss of spiritual discernment (failure to see difference between right and wrong); 3. Love for worldly amusements; 4. Loss of spiritual appetite; 5. Loss of love for the House of God, and 6. Lack of soul burden.

This splendid message was followed by an altar service. Benediction.

Saturday Evening Service

Song service, led by Brother Crowe. The platform was filled with the largest group of young people we have ever seen in evening service. Duet by Dr. H. Stevenson and James DeWeerd. Then followed a very impressive patriotic service, led by Brother DeWeerd. Singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," by congregation. There followed the pledge of allegiance to the Flag, and a minute of silent prayer, ending with prayer by Brother Eddy. This service was a timely reminder of our allegiance to Almighty God and to our Country which we love. Brother Crowe then led the Chorus "Every Day With Jesus is Sweeter Than the Day Before."

Brother DeWeerd took his text from John's Gospel. He spoke in his characteristic manner on "Freedom." This message was very practical and helpful. God's blessing was felt, and a fruitful altar service followed. Benediction.

Sunday Morning Service

Love Feast: Leader, Brother A. O. Northrup. The Holy Spirit was present, and it was a glorious feasting time together. It was well attended and well enjoyed.

Song service led by Brother Crowe—a great blessing in song.

Pledges taken for Camp Meeting. A splendid response by liberal and consecrated giving.

Sermon: James DeWeerd. Scripture, 1 Corinthians 13th chapter. Text, 1 Corinthians 12: 31. "But covet earnestly the best gifts; and yet show I unto you a more excellent way." (a) Perfect in His word; (b) Perfect love in His work; (c) The more excellent way of life. A good message on this subject, using eight positives in opposition to negatives.

Sunday Afternoon Service

Ring meeting: The ring meeting was led by H. H. Chapman who lent much to the service by his characteristic fervor for God and His work. Trumpet solos were given by Mrs. Fletcher Spaulding, and special numbers sung by Pauline Chapman and Ed. Seaman. A large number attended this service, and the joys of salvation were shared together. God was present with the blessing of the Holy Spirit on all who would be minded to mind God.

Preaching Service, 2: 30 p. m.: Song service led by Brother Crowe. Taking of pledges continued at this time. There was good response. Special song by Crowe, DeWeerd, and Dr. Stevenson, "He Tenderly Looked at Me."

Sermon by Dr. F. R. Eddy. Brother Eddy lifted to a point of advantage, from the Holy Word, that portion found in 2 Timothy 2: 15. With special emphasis on "The Word of Truth" he called our attention to the mechanics of life, stating that God wants us to live by things eternal. We are living in a realm of change—materials and mechanics always changing. He urged a consecration of self to God. "Life is not a salvage to be saved out of the world, but a life to be lived in the world. Our guide—the Bible, for it is a catalogue of truth which never fails."

Sunday Evening Service

Song service: Leader, Fletcher Spaulding. Congregation and choir sang with spirit. Platform filled with enthusiastic young people. Special song by Brother Ed. Seaman.

Sermon by Brother Crowe, using Hebrews 2: 3. Subject, "So Great Salvation." Brother Crowe's message of the evening was very helpful. He pictured for us some of the great things of this world of material nature, and drew a comparison with the Great Salvation. The Holy Spirit

Report No. 2

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO CONFERENCE: 1941-1942

To the members of the Champlain Conference, and to all others here assembled for the 100th Annual Session: Greeting, in the Name of the world's Redeemer! One more year has rolled into eternity, and with the passing of time has carried many with it. But we are spared to enjoy the blessing of this present occasion—the one hundredth year of material and spiritual building within the bounds of the Champlain Conference. In our reflections we often think of the very many staunch leaders and contenders for the faith of our Church who have in the past been connected with the Champlain Conference. Many of them we personally knew. We think of J. N. Wardner, N. E. Jenkins, U. D. Lathrop, S. A. Warner, R. Delarm, E. E. Curtis, William Rist, E. D. Carpenter, E. Matthews, C. E. Hill, C. C. Hill, J. F. Wright, F. L. Wright, A. J. Allen and many more that we might name, had we the time. These men wrought in the heat of the day, and by their labors handed to us of today a wonderful heritage and a mighty responsibility. I often ask myself, "How am I meeting my part of this responsibility, and how am I helping to carry my end of the load?" I am led to wonder, too, what the next hundred years will bring to us as a Church, if Jesus shall tarry. But our task is a present task, not so much a backward look. Nor is it so much mingled forebodings as to the future. We have a work to do NOW. "How are we doing that work" is my great concern. We, as Wesleyans, are still committed to the great task of "Spreading Scriptural Holiness through these lands"; to reach everyone that it is reasonably possible to reach with the message of FULL salvation. I believe that almost to a man, we, as Ministerial members of the Champlain Conference, accept this challenge; and I believe that we recognize this to be our task. This year has been somewhat difficult in some ways. But in spite of the hindrances, God has helped us as a people to press against the odds, and gain at least some ground. We have much reason to thank God for His kind Providence over us as a people. We still have the privilege of Free assemblage and free speech—freedom to worship God when and as we wish.

These are days of testings. Men are afraid for the things that are coming upon the earth. But with perfect confidence in the God who has never lost a battle, we will dare to trust Him, and go forth in His Name, and dare to let Him lead. God still has a work for us as Wesleyan Methodists to do. So may we never lose the vision, and by His grace and in His strength let us launch out into the future in perfect confidence in Him, and in unity of spirit and effort, and really expect to do great things for Him.

TITHING SECRETARY

We recognize God's claim of supreme ownership. "The cattle on a thousand hills are Mine, saith the Lord." "Blessed be the Lord who daily loadeth us with benefits." St. Paul calls to our attention the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." We need to cultivate the grace of giving, for it is so spoken of in the Word of God. In so doing, we are cultivating other graces as well, and storing treasure in the eternal realm.

First: from the personal standpoint—our faith is given expression, even though it be the widow's mite. James said, "Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works."

Second: the Need—I believe it to be providential that we have organized religious activities: Home and Foreign Missions, housing and leading the fatherless and afflicted, at His command. We realize full well their worth as an agency for extending the borders of Christ's kingdom.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

However, with organized effort it is necessary to have an organized financial plan to carry on these progressive activities.

The solution of this problem is tithing, or Christian stewardship. Let us lay by in store as God has prospered us. "For he that soweth sparingly shall also reap sparingly."

We observe a substantial gain in the department this year—41.

Respectfully submitted,
DENNIS OSGOOD, Tithing Secretary.

Report No. 6

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY 1942

To the Champlain Conference:

This year has been a difficult year for most of our Sunday schools.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

From the smaller schools have gone men, both young and older for war work, in factories or our armed forces. In order not to show a loss, there has had to be a very definite gain, to "hold our own." I presume this same difficulty has also served to keep the larger schools, just everlastingly at it, to keep abreast of their present records. To all who have made an honest to goodness effort to "be at your best for the Master" I say "God bless you," and NOW, dig in for the greatest piece of constructive work you have ever done for Christ and the Church. For there is no denying that the devil is certainly getting in his best licks to down the Christians, and their labors everywhere. However, we know that our God is still on the throne, and HE WILL BE VINDICATED!

The great needs of the Sunday schools in the Champlain Conference are these: 1. Plans. Sure, I mean programs, and goals, BUT, in and through all these I DO mean, REALLY TRY to "win the pupils of your schools and classes to Christ." To do this you need to have attendance, regular and interested. Workers meetings, with plenty of prayer and study, regularly—usually monthly, will greatly assist. 2. Training. Training classes are the best means, but if no one can or will spend time to have a class, ONE can go places by oneself. There are many books and helps, also prayer and meditation, mixed properly, will go a long ways toward our being "approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed." 3. Organization. A well organized Sunday school with officers who are Christians, and awake to their work, organized classes with officers and planned events always with some prayer and Christian contacts, plenty of periodicals, folks regular in attendance, on time, and reverent will do wonders for any Sunday school.

It has been my responsibility for nearly half of the thirty years I have been a member of this Conference to be Sunday-school Secretary. I have enjoyed the work, though I do believe there should be a change in this office this year, and each three or four years thereafter.

Though I cannot at this time tell exactly, I believe we have reached a new high, in that we average over 1,000 in Sunday schools of the Conference, each Sunday. We should strive to increase 10% in enrollment and average attendance for the coming year. That would be some more than 100. We can do it by the help of our God, IF we work as well as pray!

Every Sunday school paid their budget again this year, and two Sunday schools without a budget made a contribution to the Sunday school work. There are now 28 Sunday schools in the Conference, with two branch schools, one at Pierpont (Morley) one at Goshen (Forest Dale) and perhaps others. We have 100% reporting for the first three quarters, save one report in the third quarter. And more than half of the reports are received for the fourth quarter. All are expected. That is coöperation. Thanks everyone!

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

Remember about 85% of your church members come from the Sunday school, and only about one-half of all the people of the United States are connected with any church in any way, doesn't that convince you that this Sunday school job is a worthy one, and should demand our best?

Report No. 9

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

This century mark finds us as a nation in a mighty conflict, the world instead of a divided nation. The liberties of the Democratic nations are at stake instead of a race. Our Church likewise is facing deadly foes that would rob her of her liberties.

Be it therefore Resolved, That we shall take our stand and have eternal vigilance against worldliness, Sabbath desecration, the liquor traffic, and all other evils that endanger our spiritual freedom.

Be it further Resolved, That we, as a Church, will build our first line of defense on the authority of the gospel of Jesus Christ which is able to liberate souls from the guilt, the power, nature and the consequence of sin.

Some trust in bombs, aircraft, submarines, machine guns, mass forces, war strategy, but "we will trust in the name of the Lord."

SPENCER MOON, Committee.

The first meeting consisted of devotional singing and prayer, followed later by the regular business meeting.

The meeting was opened by singing several choruses. Mrs. Elsie Taylor led the devotions, reading from the seventeenth chapter of John which was followed by prayer. Sister Allen greeted the delegates with words of encouragement and testimony.

It was voted that the Chair appoint the committees which were as follows:

This prayer forum consisted of presenting the different home and foreign fields and prayer being offered in behalf of the particular field presented. Mrs. Stark is in charge of the prayer forum.

The meeting for the election of officers was voted for the Friday evening meeting.

It was voted that Mrs. Josephine Hewitt take care of the camp meeting needs and that the money be turned over to the regular Treasurer.

Mrs. Paine reported on the cleaning of the camp.

It was voted to adjourn.

Wednesday Afternoon

The meeting was opened by the singing of a chorus followed by scripture and prayer.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Dr. McMillen was introduced to the group. He told us he was impressed how God wanted to work but needed instruments. His testimony was that he was willing to be used of God.

Mrs. McMillen was asked the question "What can we do for Africa just now?" Her answer was a quotation. "The key to the missionary problem is the deepening of the spiritual life of the Church." The means to secure this "deepening" is to wait upon the Lord in prayer, she said. Should a chart of our prayer life be exposed before Conference, we would be ashamed. What will it be when we stand before God? She told us how she personally let the Lord search her. The scriptural command is "Anoint your eyes with eye salve" but we must rub on the eye salve. The missionary's prayer in Africa was, "Lord, come over any road You want to come" and as the Lord answered that prayer there was confession among missionaries and between the missionary and the native. She implored us to get on our knees and bear this work on our hearts; to get a vision and zeal that we haven't had before and to spend more time in prayer. We should have new victories every few days and go in for all God has for us.

The meeting was adjourned.

Wednesday Evening

The meeting was opened by prayer by Mrs. Hill. The minutes of the former meetings were read and approved.

The meeting was turned over to Dr. McMillen who took as his subject "The Unusual." These are some of the thoughts he presented. God doesn't have any use for a person as long as he remains ordinary. God takes an ordinary person and begins to press, push and hollow him out in order to make a vessel, puts him in the oven and thereby makes an unusual person. The reason why the unusual doesn't happen to some people is because they're not prepared for it. The unusual comes by doing ordinary things in an unusual way. Take for example Paul who prayed and sang praises to God in prison at midnight and the unusual happened. The unusual will cause sorrow, perplexity. Preconceived ideas hinder the unusual.

God uses ordinary people who are pliable in His hands, i. e., Jeremiah, Peter, the centurion. Do what God is telling you and it will make sense.

The unusual occurs along the path of obedience, in divine will, when walking by faith, in our ordinary environment, when walking with God day by day.

What is this unusualness? It is not being unusual in education, in talking, in prominence, in dress, in preaching. It is being unusual in prayer, humility, faith, service, dying, cheerfulness and giving.

If you have a bank account of faith and obedience, then your credit will be good and God will hear and answer your prayer.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

The lives of some unusual men of Africa were presented.
Prayer meeting was announced for eight o'clock Thursday morning.
We were dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Wyman.

Thursday Morning

A special prayer meeting was called for eight o'clock under the leadership of Mrs. Stark. The Lord was present to bless and help and answer prayer.

Thursday Afternoon

The meeting was called to order by the President by repeating the first Psalm. Prayer was offered by Sister McMillen.

It was voted that Mrs. Gladys Payne from the West Chazy Society be first member of a committee to look after the cleaning of the cottages; Miss Edythe Johnson from the Mooers Society be the second member, Mrs. Beryl Colton from West Plattsburg Society be the third member and Mrs. Emma Scribner from Cadyville Society be the fourth member.

The Committee on "Plan of Work" reported. It was voted to accept the report.

Meeting was adjourned by limitation of time. (Mrs. Josephine Hewitt, Acting Secretary.)

Thursday Evening

This meeting was the public meeting held in the main tabernacle. The meeting was opened by singing followed by prayer by Sister McMillen. There were two special musical numbers, one by Mrs. Spaulding and the other by Dr. Stevenson. The main address was given by Dr. McMillen. Dr. McMillen centered his remarks around Christ's question to Peter, "Lovest thou Me more than these?" By concrete examples he told of those who had put Christ first above all else in their lives. His exhortations to a deeper devotion to our Savior were timely and challenging. Those who are honest and hungry for all God has for them recognized the fact that there is yet much "more land ahead to be possessed." His address inspired and used of God should cause us to purpose to obey God wherever He calls and whatever He may require of us.

Friday Afternoon

The meeting was opened by singing several choruses after which we were led in prayer by Sister Hill.

The minutes of the Thursday afternoon meeting were read and approved.

Statistical reports from the following places were read: Watervliet, West Chazy, Willow, Schenectady.

Friday Evening

The meeting was opened by singing, "We Have an Anchor." Mrs.

REPORTS

Report No. 1

PLAN OF WORK

The Committee Recommends:

1. That each local society shall have some Missionary Study or Program at each meeting to broaden our vision and inspire us to pray definitely for our work and workers. Aids to this are the Missionary Magazine, a Study book, and planned monthly correspondence with our missionaries.

2. That each local society adopt, "The Prayer Forum" to keep us informed in regard to the different subjects of prayer on each field.

3. That each society shall have at least one public, well advertised meeting, in which missionary needs shall be emphasized.

4. That we observe special days such as Harvest Day, "Wesleyan Missionary" Day and World Day of Prayer.

5. That each society elect a solicitor for the "Wesleyan Missionary" to keep the Magazine in circulation.

6. That the President, the Secretary and the Treasurer be subscribers to the "Wesleyan Missionary" and the "Wesleyan Methodist," and that fifty per cent of the membership be subscribers to the "Wesleyan Missionary."

7. That each local society continue sending $6.00 to Southern Mountain Work, and $5.00 to Hephzibah Orphanage. This should be sent through the Conference Treasurer, and applied on Budget.

8. That each society send $1.00 per member to the Conference Treasurer, twenty-five cents of each dollar to be forwarded to the General Conference Treasurer for the General Fund. Also that twenty-five cents be retained in the Conference treasury and the remaining fifty cents be used directly for missionary work and be applied on local church budget.

9. That we continue sending supplies to the various mission fields as requested by the workers in charge.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

10. That instead of buying clothing for the children at Hephzibah as in the past, we send an additional cash offering which may be used as most needed on arrival.

11. That we make special effort to can things for the Camp Meeting dining hall, and to make and send as many as possible of the following: pillows and quilts for the dormitories, sheets for cots, spreads for workers' beds, mirrors for rooms, furnishings for workers' rooms and mattresses for cots, large vegetable dishes and milk pitchers, etc. for the dining room, beds and linoleum for the dormitories.

12. That each local society send an offering of 10 cents per member for the cleaning of the camps.

13. That we have a missionary travel the Conference, visiting each charge, and that we procure the services of this missionary as early in the Conference year as possible.

14. That each delegate report to her society at the first meeting after Conference the proceedings of the Conference Society and spread the information gained.

15. That each local secretary report annually on their statistical blanks to the Conference Society as to their rating according to the efficiency standard.

16. That the Plan of Work be read quarterly to our local societies in order to keep us enthused in our work.

Signed: ADDIE SMITH,
GLADYS DAYTON.

Report No. 2

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas we are living in days of much light and privilege; times of unusual opportunity for usefulness and service; and

Whereas this also is an hour of great peril morally and spiritually both nationally and in all of the world.

And since the Church is the gracious agent and dispenser of those forces that bring hope and salvation to the race; therefore be it

Resolved, That we as a Missionary Society, an arm of the Church called of God for such an hour as this, double our diligence to catch and hold the vision necessary to that end.

Be it further Resolved, That we allow no opportunity to be lost because we are weak or insufficient, through lack of consecration and prayer, but that we love, pray and give of time and strength and earthly store, beyond all of our past history, as God may give us grace to meet such a crisis as the human race and the Church have never known.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSIE B. TAYLOR, Committee.
