REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Members of the Champlain Conference, greetings in the name of the Lord. Another Conference year has become history. We pause to thank God for His presence and leadership during another year.

It has been a privilege to labor in His kingdom, in many respects the past year has been a gracious one, much of God's blessing has been evident.

Several good revivals have been held in the bounds of the Conference, a good tent meeting was conducted at Ticonderoga, resulting in added interest, so that a regular prayer meeting has been maintained since under the direction of the Hague pastor. Another meeting is planned there in the near future. We trust this will result in an organization.

Under the labors of Rev. F. H. Johnson a chapel has been built at Carlisle, N. Y. Even though this is a small organization the prospect is good for the extension of the work.

The work on the church building at Schenectady has progressed, and when completed will be numbered among our best church buildings in the Conference.

We have visited practically every charge and some of them several times, have gone wherever we considered it necessary to the best interests of the Conference.

We have visited two communities where church organization has been considered. We trust these visits have not been in vain.

I am convinced that we have the very gospel that is so greatly needed and that while modernism is not meeting the need of individuals, we should do our utmost to extend our borders as a Church.

It will be necessary where ever possible for pastors to reach out into new territory. Of course this will mean added labor and responsibility but the cause is worthy of our best, the Savior gave His best for us.

Let us adopt this as our slogan, "At Least One New Wesleyan Methodist Church in Our Conference Each Year."

In view of the fact that some of our old rural churches are becoming weaker year after year due to the shifting of population we believe it has become necessary for us to enter into centers of population. The problems are great but it is well for us to remember that "Faith in God" is the solution to every problem.

As we face a new Conference year I pray that we will enter into it with renewed strength and courage relying upon the Holy Spirit for guidance and that we shall lift high the banner of holiness.

May God forever bless the Champlain Conference.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Church of Christ is God's citadel against sin, and only through its agencies of truth can wrong be defeated. Because of this position it is not to be otherwise expected than that the forces of sin will mass its powerful attack against its opponent. Through the ages the purity of the race and the moral strength of society has been preserved. We, as a part of that mighty force of truth, should pause and take inventory of our stock in trade. The heart-warming reports from the recent General Conference encourages us to greater efforts. The steady forward march of lawlessness, disobedience and indifference should not be taken in less than a serious mind. To catalogue all forms of vice would be a task demanding both time and space. Only one aim should guide us in our efforts—to please God and defend His principles. To set up a standard outside of God's Word would be the height of folly. This practice has been used too liberally in the past. We should declare for peace of mankind in and among nations, but be always mindful of the dangers of invasion and oppression of weaker brothers. The divorce is a monstrous evil eating the vitals of our domestic institution slowly but surely away. Sabbath desecration, widespread programs, of gambling, licentious dances, immoral public exhibitions, dishonesty in and out of church, vicious attacks upon our sacred institutions should not be allowed to go unchallenged.

On the other hand we should remember that a successful program must be a constructive program. We have no right to condemn what we cannot substitute with right. We as ministers of the gospel of truth should bend our efforts as Jesus did to rebuke wrong in all its phases and also erect righteous pillars to support those things which lift mankind.

ARTHUR OLIVER NORTHROP.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Wednesday Morning

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection or Church of America met for its thirty-fourth annual session on the Campground at West Chazy, N. Y., July 12, 1939. Meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Eva Allen, and opened by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name."

Message given by the President:

"In the divine providence of our God we are permitted to meet in another session of the Annual Conference. Midst the conflicts and testings through the year, our God has not failed us once, but has been close by our side in guidance, comfort, and blessings many and varied, for which we do praise Him to whom all praise and adoration is due.

I feel that in answer to our united prayers and faith through the year

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

God has given us a greater vision of the need and of our individual responsibility than ever before.

I feel that we shall buckle on the armour a little tighter this year and go forward as workers together with Him. That we may see His glory in the salvation of many souls.

The General Conference was a great blessing and inspiration to those of us who were privileged to attend; we wished many times that we might share the good things with you all. However, we shall do our best to give you some echoes from the meeting through the report of the Delegate, Sister Dayton.

We have tried by the help of the Lord to do the little things that have fallen to our lot through the year faithfully.

Have organized one society in the absence of the organizer.

Have written each local President twice during the year, and I am sure that every one has exercised much patience with us and has done her best to coöperate in every way. For which we thank God, and pray His continued blessing for the year ahead, should He tarry."—Mrs. Eva Allen, President.

Voted that the Chair appoint the committees, which were as follows:

Courtesies—Mrs. Rosaland Finch.

Credentials—Mrs. Blanche Russell.

Plan of Work—Mrs. Mildred Fero and Mrs. Gladys Dayton.

Friday Evening, Public Meeting

Public meeting in charge of the President, Mrs. Eva Allen.

The meeting opened by singing, "Amazing Grace" and "Throw Out the Life Line," led by Professor Smith.

Devotions were in charge of Sister Van Wormer, Scripture readings: Psalm 2: 2, Psalm 68: 31, Psalm 96: 3, Isaiah 2: 2 and 1st Samuel 12: 23.

Duet, "Nothing But Leaves," by Rev. C. R. Stopp and Professor Smith.

Solo, "The Souls Burden Bearer," by Dr. Hollis Stevenson.

Dr. F. R. Eddy our Connectional Agent delivered the message of the evening. He brought out the fact that we owe much to the natives of Africa, because the Wesleyan Methodist Church came into existence by freeing the black man. He made several contrasts of the conditions existing now and 50 years ago. While much progress in every way has been made in these years, there is much yet to be done.

Brother Eddy urged us to have real Spirit-filled lives and not to be so interested in what will become of the Heathen, but concerned about our own souls if we fail to carry the gospel to them, and to keep our hearts warm with prayer.

The greatest opportunity in history is at present.

Brother Eddy made the appeal for funds which resulted in pledges amounting to $400.00.

Dismissed by Brother Eddy.

REPORTS

Report No. 1

PLAN OF WORK

The Committee Recommends:

1. That each local society shall have some Missionary Study or Program at each meeting to broaden our vision and inspire us to pray definitely for our work and workers. Aids to this are the Missionary Magazine, a Study book, and planned monthly correspondence with our missionaries.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

2. That each society shall have at least one public, well advertised meeting, in which missionary needs shall be emphasized. Try to attract people to the meeting who do not ordinarily come.

3. That we observe special days such as Harvest Day, "Wesleyan Missionary Day" and World Day of Prayer.

4. That each society elect a solicitor for the Wesleyan Missionary to keep the Magazine in circulation.

5. That the President, the Secretary and the Treasurer be subscribers to the Wesleyan Missionary and the Wesleyan Methodist, and that fifty per cent of the membership be subscribers to the Wesleyan Missionary.

6. That each local society continue sending $6.00 to Southern Mountain Work, and $5.00 for Hepzibah Orphanage. This should be sent through the Conference Treasurer, and applies on Budget.

7. That each society send $.50 per member dues to the Conference Treasurer, one-half of which is to be retained in the Conference for expenses and the other to be forwarded to the General Treasurer.

8. That we continue sending supplies to the various mission fields as requested by the workers in charge.

9. That instead of buying clothing for children at Hepzibah as in the past, we send an additional cash offering which may be used as most needed on arrival. Our societies may do much to see that the church raises its entire budget for Hepzibah.

10. That we make special effort to can things for the Camp Meeting dining hall, and to make and send pillows and quilts for the dormitories.

11. That the societies have one District Missionary Service each year, the Chairman of each District to be appointed by the Conference Missionary President. It is recommended that the services of a returned missionary be secured by the Conference Missionary President for each of these district meetings; and that she notify each Chairman early in the Conference year when to arrange for the service. That a general Missionary offering be taken of which the cash shall be given to the missionary, and all pledges shall be accredited to the charge from which they came.*

12. That each delegate report to her society at the first meeting after Conference the proceedings of the Conference Society and spread the information gained concerning the work.

13. That the Plan of Work be read aloud at the first meeting after Conference and again at least two times during the year. That the Standing Rules be read aloud at one of the last meetings of the year before Conference.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

14. That each society be responsible for making and sending one Missionary Poster (preferably about 3'x3½') to the Young People's Convention in the fall.

Signed: MRS. MILDRED FERO,
MRS. GLADYS DAYTON.

RESOLUTIONS

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised. Psalm 113:3.

Since God in His great and wonderful mercy has blessed us and helped us the past year, let us praise Him.

Be it Resolved, That we all press forward with greater zeal and energy than ever before in the spreading of the true gospel that saves to the uttermost, and,

Be it Resolved, That we each remember the command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." Let us give largely of our time, means and prayers that the gospel may be spread throughout the world, and,

Be it Resolved, That we will each of us endeavor to make the coming year the best we have ever lived, that we shall by the grace of God be living the holy Christian life, and be giving of our best to God's cause.
