Thursday, August 22, 8:30 A. M.

Conference opened by Rev. J. R. Miller.

Roll Call. Journal approved.

Rev. E. R. Dodd of the Central N. Y. and Pennsylvania Conference was introduced to conference.

The special committee to whom was referred the following bill of charges against Rev. H. R. Smith reported as follows:

Rev. H. R. Smith, Leonardsburg, Ohio.

You are hereby notified that at the next session of the Ohio Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Convention (or church) of America the following charge and specifications are to be preferred against you. Charge: Unchristian conduct. Specification 1. False representation in relation to the Marion Mission, concerning its admission to Conference as a charge and in issuing credentials to delegates elected by the aforesaid Marion Mission, to the annual conference. Said credentials representing the delegates to have been properly elected and qualified to act as delegates to the annual conference. Also in reading such portions of the deed of the Wesleyan Methodist Church property at Marion, Ohio, as made it seem contrary to said deed and its provision to organize the Mission into a church.

Specification 2. The writing of harsh and unchristian letters to and about members of the Ohio Conference.

Specification 3. Meddling with other men's matters and being a busy-body. Especially in striving to break up the newly organized Wesleyan Methodist Church at Marion, Ohio, by intimidating its members and representing that great cost and legal difficulties would fall on those who remained in the newly organized church.

We, your committee, to which was referred the matter of charge against Rev. H. R. Smith, beg leave to submit the following report: The charge has, in the mind of the committee, been fully sustained in all of its specifications and the accused found guilty of unchristian conduct as charged. We therefore recommend that the accused be given the alternative of a satisfactory public confession of fault and a promise that from this time on, the abusive letter writing and unchristian conduct toward members of this conference be forever stopped,

10 MINUTES OF THE OHIO CONFERENCE

and promise to live in peace and harmony with the conference and its members, or expulsion.

Rev. A. D. Osborn,
Rev. J. W. Williams,
Rev. H. W. Thompson,
Rev. J. R. Miller,
L. H. McMillan,
Leslie Aller,
L. H. Conklin,

Committee.

Report Adopted.

Ordered that the chairman of the special committee on investigation notify the brother immediately of the above action of this body and ask him either to appear before the body and state his choice of the conditions named by the committee or set a time when he desires to do so.

Brother Smith immediately appeared and made confession of fault and promise of future compliance with the provisions of the committee.

Ordered that the Conference accept the apology and promise of the brother in this matter.

Ordered that disposition of the Bellefontaine church property be left with the Conference trustees.

Revs. Folger and Osborn spoke of the value of the coming Ministerial Association and urged a full attendance on this important gathering.

The time and place of next conference was fixed. Time according to schedule. Place with Conference Officers.

C. Friedly reported that the Board of Trustees had sold the Sarahville church, but as yet no money had been received. L. H. McMillan and H. R. Smith explained that the deed was in the possession of L. M. Smith of Sarahsville, O., who had been instructed to hold the same until the price was paid. Report adopted.

Presley Wingo proposed that the Conference receive $349.99 they had placed in the Marion Church building and deed the same to whomsoever was legally qualified to receive the same, expenses of transfer to be met by the purchaser. A general discussion of the matter followed, after which an order prevailed.

Adjourned by vote.

Rev. A. D. Osborn, President.
Rev. Arthur W. Smith, Secretary.

Thursday, August 22, 1912, 1:30 P. M.

Conference opened by the president.

Roll Call. Journal approved.

Rev. Geo. H. Clarke made an inspiring farewell address to members of the conference, he, with others, being soon to sail for the African Mission field.

Ordered that the minutes be so amended as that the report of the special committee to whom was referred the charge against Rev. H. R. Smith show the charge as well as the finding of the committee in relation to the same.

The Committee on Itinerancy and Orders reported as follows:

Your Committee on Itinerancy and Orders beg leave to submit the following report.

We recommend that Sister Lulu Breyman be continued in the first year of the course of study, and that she be required to complete at least two branches of the first year of the course.

That Bro. W. L. Shafer be referred back to his Quarterly Conference for farther preparation in his preliminary examination.

That Rev. Frederick Seaborn be continued in the third year course of study, he being prevented from attendance of Conference by sickness.

That Brother C. C. Mayle, having been duly recommended, and having passed a satisfactory examination on the Discipline and Binney's Compend, be received to travel under the direction of the Conference. And, that we accept his teacher's certificate in lieu of the preliminary examination.
