REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Members and Friends of the Forty-Ninth Annual Session of the Oklahoma Conference, Greetings:

Inasmuch as we have been recipients of the manifold grace of our God during this past Conference Year, let us sing together with the Psalmist this Song of Victory, "Praise ye the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation. The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein." It is indeed a delight to have a small part in the carrying on of the work of the Master.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the ministerial brethren and laity for their splendid co-operation during the past twelve months. We have also appreciated the sweet spirit of the various Boards and committees and the support rendered in the interest of the cause of Christ, and the extension of that cause within the bounds of the Oklahoma Conference.

We are happy to report the erection of a new church building at Blackwell. Surely the Lord is richly rewarding the faith of these sacrificial people. The Springdale church building has been wrecked, and the lumber has been moved to the Etna field where a new parsonage will be built. A survey has been made in the San Antonio, Texas area, and we are in the process of entering that field. We are hoping that we will have a new church to report there very soon. Doors are opening to us, and we shall enter those doors as the Lord provides the necessary finance. We invite you to join with us in prayer that all needs will be met.

EDUCATIONAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

Your Educational Secretary wishes to submit the following report:

I, your Educational Secretary, did not visit any churches in the interest of education but we did send letters to all pastors, urging that special consideration be given to this important arm of the work. We set a date urging each pastor to co-operate in a united drive through the conference in raising all of the Educational Budget or as much as possible at that time.

There is no financial report to make, and I trust that our financial reports will show the budget paid in full for the conference, and that special interest is being given to students for our school.

RESOLUTIONS REPORT

We, the committee on resolutions, submit the following:

1. Be it resolved, that inasmuch as we see the indications of the soon-coming of the Lord we heed His warning, "Be ye ready", and momentarily live in harmony with Him.

2. Be it resolved, that we earnestly seek for a deeper compassionate love for souls and that we unite our prayers for a Holy Ghost revival throughout our nation.

3. Inasmuch as God in His mercy has been pleased to visit some of our schools with a gracious spirit of revival we humbly give Him praise, and resolve to support our schools by our prayers and urge our young people to attend them.

4. Because of the encroachment of present day evils into the sacred precincts of the home, we resolve to urge our people to keep the fire ablaze upon the family altars, to teach the members of the home to discriminate between the evil and good in reading material, radio and television programs, and to give a prominent place to the reading of the Word and our church periodicals.

5. Be it further resolved, that our earnest prayers follow our boys in training camps and on the battlefields, and that we enlist in the fight against communism by being good soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THANKS

We humbly bow our hearts to our God who has again permitted us to sit together in heavenly places with Christ Jesus in this Annual Conference.

We have a deep appreciation for work of our Brother Rees, in presiding over the Conference, and the deeply spiritual and inspiring messages.

Our hearts will never be the same for having the fellowship and sermons of Bro. and Sis. Wager and Bob.

To the big heart of Bro. Lee we say a big thank you, for the beef which was given to the dining room, through the Wesleyan Chapel W. M. S. Through this we could have meals fit for a king's table.

To the other W.M.S. we say thank you for the gracious supplies.

To all who have helped to make our Conference a success and to Lillian Hovey, to our waitresses and dishwashers, we express our thanks for considerate service.

We express our appreciation to the Schuler Fruit Co., for the gifts to the dining hall.

REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Women of the Oklahoma Conference:

We find it a joy to greet you at this another conference session in the name of our all-conquering Christ, "Who giveth us richly all things to enjoy." We thank Him for the riches the world knows nothing of. We have learned on this pioneer field to draw many times on these riches.

We praise the Lord for our faithful and loyal women who have so nobly carried on through the year. It is you who have done the work so well with God's help and made it possible for us to meet once more to form plans for the coming Conference year.

The doors on the Foreign Mission Fields are closing one by one. Our time is short! How much faster the gospel could be carried both on our Home and Foreign Fields if we had the finances and more were holding the ropes in prayer. Truly the "fields are white unto harvest but the laborers are few."

I have been asking my heavenly Father to give each of us a new vision of the fields, and with Isaiah make us to cry, "Here am I send me."

What an utterly helpless feeling I have had during the past year to do anything for our society. I was unable even to attend the Spiritual Life Convention at Tulsa or the District Missionary Convention in Miltonvale.

My duties for the society have been few. Letters from Sisters Reisdorph, Leyh and Gleason have been typed and mailed to the various societies. I found the response to the "World Tour" of the Reisdorph's was hearty and we were able as a conference society to more than meet our quota.

I'm thankful that you responded to the renewals of the Missionary Magazine.

We were happy that Miss Eva Gilger could meet with the various districts in Conventions.

We have secured some splendid missionary literature for our society from Miss Alice Boyd and we trust that each society president will avail herself of an ample supply to take home with her.

We were unable to secure the Wolf's as was requested but have secured Bro. and Sis. William Wager, Missionaries to China and Japan, as our public missionary speakers.

My few tasks performed have been done prayerfully and cheerfully.

Respectfully Submitted
Achsa Eling
