Recommendations—The following recommendations were presented and passed.

1. Conference Parsonage—During the Conference session of 1945, the Conference Board of Trustees was instructed to purchase a Conference Parsonage, centrally located, the same was to be paid for through the Sunday School.

This matter has been carefully considered by the Board and a number of available properties in Marion have been investigated. Only a very few properties have been found that could be adapted to this need; some of them needed repair and the others were listed so high in price that the Board felt that the purchase was unwise.

At no time has there been a sufficient amount of money in this fund to justify the purchase of a suitable property. The Board purchased a lot at the corner of Carey and 38th St. in Marion.

I recommend that this matter of the Conference Parsonage be referred to the Committee on Finance and Appropriation for further study and recommendation to this body.

2. Annuity Contracts—I recommend that this Conference authorize the Conference Board of Trustees to prepare and set up an Annuity Contract Plan.

This Annuity Plan is to be used especially in helping to promote the interests of Conference Missions.

Amos M. Jackson.

Benediction—Rev. Kenneth Dunn.

A waiving of the above by a contract or lease of building must be obtained through the Board of Trustees of the Indiana Conference.

II. Pastoral Duties.

When the Conference demands the services of any one, that it shall bear the moving expenses, if any expense shall thus be incurred.

3. No charge shall call any one as pastor, or to supply the work by ministers coming from other denominations as long as there are ministers in our Conference qualified and available to take work. The President after he has exercised his prerogative in the reception of ministers coming from other denominations, is to immediately refer them to the Committee on Itineracy and Elder's Orders, who shall make a thorough investigation as to the ministry and life of such applicants, who shall report their findings to the President, after which, appointments may be made.

4. Each charge should grant their pastor each year two weeks vacation with pay.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Report No. 1

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the members and friends of the Indiana Conference now in session for its one hundredth annual gathering, greeting!

We are thankful to Almighty God for his providential care and guidance through another year; for the many and varied victories that have been won; and for the progress that has been made in different phases of the work.

God has been good to manifest his presence among us in our different churches over the Conference. He has blessed in the regular services and in special gatherings. Many of our people have been lifted time and again through the year by the Lord's special touch and heavenly quickening. An increase of 108 members has been made during the year. The largest increase for sixteen years.

We are grateful to our Heavenly Father, also, for the splendid material gains which have been observed in the different sections of the Conference. New churches have been completed, parsonages have been bought and debts liquidated. This is very encouraging.

The work of the Woman's Missionary Society, the Young Missionary Workers' Band, the Young People's Society, and the Sunday School Department is going forward in a very encouraging manner. The Conference President is appreciative of the fact that these departments are co-operating whole-heartedly in the full program of the church.

The Conference is loyal to the General Interests of the Church. The churches of our Conference have given $21973.79 to Foreign Missions. An average of over five dollars per member. An increase over last year of $3445.16. $13452.01 to Home Missions—gain of $3631.02—an average of over three dollars per member. $8452.17 to Education—a gain of $1539.57—an average of almost two dollars per member. Total for Benevolences raised this year was $115938.44—an average of almost $27.00 per member.

Our churches are loyal to the Conference assignments. Conference budgets were well cared for. Conference Extension money to the amount of $11747.69 was raised—$661.84 above last year. A large number of the churches of the Conference raised their budgets in full. An average of $132.00 per member for all purpose. Value of churches and parsonages increased over last year $221100.00. Indebtedness on churches and parsonages increased $15,874.00. Total valuation of churches and parsonages is $1114700.00. Indebtedness $39742.00 or three per cent. Total for pastors this year was $209529.00, an increase of $21955.00 over last year.

Our great need is a spiritual awakening of a holy enthusiasm which grips our hearts and lives concerning the unsaved in our Sunday-schools and those in the immediate community where our churches operate.

It seems that the need of the hour is personal evangelism—a passion to possess us relative to the spiritual needs of those with whom we live; those with whom we work; and those outside of Christ, who are all about us.

Jesus gave us great examples of personal evangelism, time and again in his ministry:—when he talked to the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well; when he advised with Nicodemus; when he counselled with the Rich Young Ruler; when he spoke words of salvation to Zacchaeus, dining with him in his home;—and many other instances could be mentioned.

Jesus set the example. Many Christians have found personal evangelism of inestimable value. We hope that the Camp Meeting, which is to follow this session of Conference, will be a great revival force which will send us back to our respective places to push the battle with new emphasis, new zeal, and new fire; and that the revival fires of personal evangelism will permeate every church of our beloved Zion.

A PARAPHRASE OF THE 13th CHAPTER OF FIRST CORINTHIANS

The Greatest of these is Evangelism

Though I speak with the tongues of scholarship, and though I use approved methods of education, and fail to win people to Christ, or to build them up in Christian character, I am become as the moan of the wind in a Syrian desert.

And though I have the best of teaching skill and knowledge, and understand all the mysteries of religion, and lose not myself in the task of winning others to Christ, I am become as a cloud of mist in an open sea.

And though I read good Christian literature and attend spiritual conventions and institutes and summer schools, and yet am satisfied with less than winning people to Christ, and establishing my friends in Christian character and service, it profiteth me nothing.

The soul winning Christian, the character building Christian, suffereth long and is kind; he envieth not others who take no interest in the task; he vaunteth not himself, is not puffed up with intellectual pride.

Such a Christian does not behave himself unseemly between Sundays, seeketh not his own comfort, is not easily provoked.

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things.

THE INDIANA CONFERENCE

And now abideth knowledge, methods, evangelism, these three; but the greatest of these is evangelism.

(Preacher's Magazine page 50—July and Aug., 1948).

Amos M. Jackson.

THE INDIANA CONFERENCE

Report No. 9

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The committee on resolutions submits the following report:

First: We thank our heavenly Father for His kind providence over us, for the progress which has been made during the past year, and for the challenge of the opportunities before us.

Second: We re-affirm the historic position of the church on matters of Christian doctrine and practice.

Third: In keeping with the theme suggested by the president of the conference, be it resolved that much stress on personal evangelism be made this year by each church.

Fourth: For the successful prosecution of the above resolution, we urge united prayer for fresh anointings of the Spirit for a vigorous and venturesome faith.

Fifth: Whereas the Sunday School affords the church one of the most fruitful fields of labor, be it resolved that we strive to improve the quality of our schools for more effective evangelism and for the building of Christian character.

Sixth: Since there seems to be a lack of reverence in our houses of worship, on occasion, both by adults and by children, be it resolved that there be training in reverence and worship.

Seventh: Be it resolved that every member of the church be faithful in the performance of civic duties (such as voting), and in the conflict against liquor, crime, immorality and communism.

Respectfully submitted,

EUNICE IRVINE, Chairman
LIL BURN COSTELLO
GLEN APPLEMAN
HELEN HACKER
JOHN J. MAIN, Secretary.

Report No. 13

We, your Conference Sunday School Board submit the following report—

Under the blessings of God the Sunday School Department has enjoyed a very successful year. In most phases of the school we have registered gains. The two major budget items, namely Home Missions and Conference Missions, we show a gain of over $1500.00. The D. V. B. S. enrollment has been over 500 more than last year and more churches have reported schools. However the average attendance in Sunday School is one phase about which we should be concerned. Statistics show a loss of 317.

1. We recommend that each pastor and school plan and work now for a great RALLY DAY on Sept. 29 and labor diligently to preserve the gains.

2. We recommend that greater emphasis be placed on teacher training and that each school have a class on Sunday morning or a special time selected for training.

THE INDIANA CONFERENCE

3. We recommend that the districts remain as last year and that the Superintendents be as follows, and that conventions be held at the places and dates indicated.

District	Superintendent	Time and Place
1.	Lloyd Linder	October 20, LaOtto
2.	Kenneth Dunn	October 21, Plymouth
3.	Milo Bowsman	October 19, Bryant
4.	Virgil Vardaman	October 22, Amboy
5.	Layland Smith	October 26, Lafayette
6.	George Davis	October 27, Fairmount
7.	Vestal Van Matre	October 28, Anderson (Arrow Ave.)
8.	Garl Shaw	October 29, Carmel

We wish to express our appreciation for the fine spirit of co-operation manifested at the rallies last fall and for all who have helped to make the gains possible.

We recommend that the Rally Day offering be paid on Conference President's Parsonage and that the Thanksgiving offering be paid on the Superannuated Pension Plan as authorized by the last General Conference.

This offering does not count on the budget.

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. MILLS, S. S. Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, your Committees on Resolutions, submit the following recommendations:

- I. Be it resolved that we give thanks:
 - A. Unto God for His manifold blessings.
 - B. To the Conference and Camp Meeting Association for the privilege of conducting the 1948 Youth Camp.
- II. Be it resolved:
 - A. We reaffirm our faith in the inspired Word of God and the doctrine of our Church. We urge our local societies to have at least one public service in which is conducted a study of the booklet entitled Wesleyan Standards.
 - B. That we as youth do more to evangelize the World, by our prayer, finance, attendance of the house of worship, and our backing the project of pioneer evangelism. We exhort our Christian youth to "earnestly contend for the faith;" and to "stand ye in the way, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way and walk therein," as the tendency of the world is to tear down the landmarks and standard of our church. May we as youth, hold the line, contend for a Spirit filled and Spirit led life among our youth, that others might see and know the joys of Christian living.
 - C. That our W. Y. P. S. promote the interest of said society by the means of circulating our Wesleyan Youth in homes of unsaved young people.
- III. Be it resolved, that we support Marion College with our prayers and finances; that we urge our young people to become better acquainted with the College, taking advantage of the opportunity afforded.
- IV. Be it resolved, that we take a positive stand against:
 - A. The liquor traffic, tobacco and other narcotics, and all forms of gambling.
 - B. The present divorce problem and all immoralities, particularly the prevalent loose social relationships which lead to broken lives and homes.
 - C. The theater, the dance, and Sabbath desecration.
- V. Be it resolved that each local society observe and study the constitutional laws of said society noting especially, that it provides for one missionary service each month.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Sisters of the Indiana Women's Missionary Society:

We have passed another milestone in our heavenward journey and are met in our 59th session. While the way has not always been smooth, yet it has been pleasant and blessed with many joyous experiences and enriched by many conflicts.

We pause to thank and praise our Heavenly Father for His abundant mercies and loving kindness, and feel highly honored to be counted worthy to be workers together with Him. We may be in the eleventh hour of this dispensation, still the great commission, "Go Ye," is sounding out to the lovers of the cause of Christ. So much the more ought we to labor in the great Harvest Field as we see the end of Our Day approaching. We are happy to have 4 new societies to add to our roll this year and covet for them great usefulness in missionary service. District rallies, convention services, and special meetings were held throughout the year. The Argoes were such spiritual and congenial workers we would liked to have had them tabernacled among us. They are welcome to return any time.

We are anticipating a feast of good things from the Newcombs from the Indian Reservation, Brother and Sister Lowell Ross from the Ozark Mountains, and other missionaries who may meet with us, during this Conference session.

Our medical student, Brother Lowell Jennings, a son of missionary parents, has another full year of study. We recommend that he be given financial aid from the medical fund towards equipping him for missionary service on the mission field.

We further recommend that Miss Reba Hooker who spent five years doing Home Missionary work at Zions Hill without a salary be given her tuition at Marion College from the Undivided fund.

As we enter the labors of another year, may it be with increased confidence in God and faith in each other. Let us continue to give Christ to the world.

Give Christ to the World

Proclam salvation full and free; Give Christ to the world,
He died for us on Calvary's tree; Give Christ to the world.

Chorus

Give Christ to the world, Give Christ to the world,
Tell all the world that Jesus died, Give Christ to the world.

He rose triumphant o'er the tomb; Give Christ to the world,
His power will drive away sin's gloom; Give Christ to the world.

Chorus

Give Christ to the world, Give Christ to the world,
Tell all the world that Jesus lives, Give Christ to the world.

The millions die in sin's dark night; Give Christ to the world,
Go take to them the Gospel Light; Give Christ to the world.

Chorus

Give Christ to the world, Give Christ to the world,
Tell all the world that Jesus saves, Give Christ to the world.

Yours in His Service,

MRS. AMOS JACKSON.
