REPORTS

REPORT NO. 1

THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENT

Dear Brethren of the Champlain Conference:

It is a high and holy privilege to be placed in a position of such responsibility as the presidency of the Champlain Conference. The days and years in the position have fled swiftly by, though they have been most eventful in nearly all phases of our lives.

This past year has been a very busy one for all our people. There have been many reports coming in concerning those who have found God during the year. The churches have been strengthened by special evangelistic efforts and by the faithful pastoral work of those appointed to their respective charges by the conference in 1950.

There have been some very worthy projects undertaken by several churches. Among these is the Lisbon Church which has made a very excellent and sizeable addition to their church. Heuvelton has nobly attempted to purchase a fine parsonage as well as to redecorate the interior of their church. Colton has redecorated their church. Springfield's building project has moved up by completing several items about the property. Schenectady church has enjoyed a decided forward movement. Cobleskill has taken her place among those who will be self-supporting. Ticonderoga has made a valiant record in making their payments and interest this year.

As to distinct pioneer work this year the Church Extension Committee has been very active and extremely cooperative.

Several places have been under the observation of the committee who were working with the local pastors in their endeavors to reach needy fields within their area. These points have been encouraging but have not appeared ready for Conference action. It has been the aim of your committee to leave no stone unturned to go forward in spreading the word of life. However each and every project has been carefully considered and wherever there were indications that it was God's will positive steps were immediately taken. At East Pitcairn, N. Y., a church building was secured and the title procured. A building lot in a very good location has been secured in Wynanskill, N. Y. For three years the Conference has made repeated efforts to get access to an unused church in this growing village on the outskirts of the city of Troy. Although this field seemed ready to cultivate the possibility of reopening this church became dimmer as the days passed by. Accordingly, when an opportunity afforded itself we deposited $500.00 which is payment in full for a well-located lot sufficient in size to accommodate a sizeable church.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

There have been, and are, other places which have been brought to the attention of the committee, but after careful investigation and consideration all those concerned felt that the opportune time to buy or build had not yet arrived. Frankly, your Church Extension Committee is aggressive, but also is cautious lest the force of your strength as a conference be diverted into channels which are not and will not be for the best good of all and for the glory of God. We have appreciated very much the labor and sacrifice of these men who have given freely and joyfully the labor of love which has amounted to considerable effort this year.

The Sunday School work under the leadership of Rev. Aldis Lamos has made healthy gains and a gratifying expansion along many lines.

The Woman's Missionary Society with Mrs. Marjorie Stevenson as president, has made a splendid record. The contribution which this organization makes to the Conference is of immeasurable value. In fact they are to the Conference what the local societies are to the program of the church. Without their faithful, devoted, loyal service the work would suffer an extreme lack along lines that are the most vital to the life of our beloved church.

The Conference Young People's Society has undoubtedly set new records this year under the noble leadership of Rev. Elton Seaman. We are very pleased to have had the privilege of providing one of the Gospel Crusade teams to Haiti in the person of Rev. Edwin Seaman, who, we are informed did a very excellent job in representing us in that fertile missionary field.

Brethren, we are in position at the convening of this Conference that is breathtaking in its challenge. We cannot, and are not, expected to do as much as conferences four times our size; but with every church, pastor, leader and layman in his or her place, God can and will use us in a measure never before witnessed. By stationing our president over the period of the last two years, and the hearty cooperation in our pioneer offerings we have reduced our indebtedness and have some funds to utilize as we plunge into the conflict before us. Our prayer is that we may diligently seek God's whole will in the program which will be set in motion at this session of the Conference.

Respectfully Submitted,
Charles A. Dayton

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We thank God that in his wise providence he has permitted us to assemble again in an annual session.

Whereas in these dark days for the world it is vital that we strive for a deepened experience in our Lord, personally, as churches, and conference.

Be it therefore resolved that we as members of the Champlain Conference be courageous in our holding aloft the Blood-Stained Banner of Jesus Christ as the only solution for the perils of our day.

Be it further resolved that we at all times take our stand against intemperance, the use of narcotics, appeasement and the other kindred evils of our day by speaking, writing and voting through these and all other avenues of influence.

We believe that following this line of action through increased consecration, prayer, and right living we can best fulfill the scope of these resolutions.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter F. Lewis
Harvy C. Johnson

RESOLUTIONS

Report No. 4

Whereas, the coming of Christ is so near and we must soon give an account to our Maker; and

Whereas, the responsibility of a lost world rests upon our shoulders

Let it therefore, be resolved: —That we broaden our vision in an attempt to fulfill the great Commission.

1. That we of the Champlain Women's home and foreign missionary society pray anew for the power to accomplish the task that lies before us.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

2. To redirect our aim in every realm of our society until our main objective is salvation of souls in our own communities and the untouched world around us.

3. And may our prayer for the year be, "Lord, make me an open channel fit for the Master's use."

Respectfully submitted,

Roberta McCallum
