A MESSAGE BY SISTER ALLEN

Dear Brethren of the Champlain Conference now in session:

Rev. A. J. Allen

Greetings in the blessed name of our Lord whom we love and serve, and whose grace we have found all-sufficient during these months of sorrow and loneliness in the home going of our loved one. God has wonderfully sustained and supplied our every need. I am trying to so lose myself in His will that I can say with all my soul, "Lead on Thou Christ. I'll gladly follow in the path Thou dost mark out."

It seems to me quite fitting that some report of the work of the former President be given, and I knew him so well and understood something of the burden of his heart, I would like to be permitted to say a few words.

Though only three short months of the Conference year had gone when God called him to his reward, they were busy months. He gave such faithful service to the Conference and the work of the Lord, which he loved better than life itself,—never thinking of or sparing himself in any way. Even with his declining strength it seems that he worked harder and with greater zeal and earnestness than ever to do what he could to build up God's cause, realizing, I believe, that his time was short. When advised many times to take it easier and rest, he would say, "I haven't time. I will rest when I am through." During the time after Conference he visited eight or nine charges, making three trips, I think, to Stony Creek to see about things there, and held two weeks meetings at Willow in September, preaching every night and three times on Sunday for three Sundays with greater tenderness, unction and God-given power than ever before in his life.

He lived a true soldier of Jesus, and went home from the line of battle, as was his desire—never stepping aside nor swerving from the right as he saw it. He has gone on—and we are left to carry on and finish the work God has given us to do.

—May God's gracious presence be in the midst and His blessing be on every deliberation of the Conference session, and upon the work of each pastor as he begins the new year, is our humble prayer.

Yours in Jesus,

Mrs. A. J. Allen.

REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT TO CONFERENCE

To the Members of the Champlain Conference: Greetings in the name of our Savior. We are all aware of the great loss sustained in the Conference in the homegoing of our worthy and beloved President, Rev. A. J. Allen. In hearing of the sudden homegoing of Brother Allen I realized that a great responsibility had been thrust upon me. The words of St. Paul, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me" were of great help to me.

Soon after the great responsibility was thrust upon me I conferred with the President's Advisory Board, and also with some of the pastors as to the best course for me to pursue. Finally I was led to continue the pastorate of the West Plattsburg charge. Later I attended the Ministerial Institute, and brought the matter to the attention of the pastors present. It was suggested that I make at least one tour of the Conference during the Conference year. I began my Conference visitation the 27th day of April. Since then I have visited nearly every charge in the Conference. We sincerely believe that the blessing of the Lord was upon this plan and that the Lord helped us to help and encourage the pastors and churches in the work of the Lord. It also gave us opportunity to better understand the problems of the pastors throughout the Conference. We believe that the pastors of the Champlain Conference are self-sacrificing in their efforts to build up the kingdom of God. While many of our churches present problems, yet we have great faith in the solution of these problems when we consider the greatness of the God we serve, and know that He can take the weak things and confound the mighty. I urge that as we enter the conflict anew with another Conference year ahead of us, that we have great faith in God, and be fully submissive to His will. I trust that the one whom the Conference may decide to honor with the responsibility of the Presidency may be assured of God's blessing and the fullest coöperation of the entire Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the ninety-sixth annual meeting of the Champlain Conference, assembled at West Chazy, N. Y., reaffirm our unshaken faith in the Bible and the Wesleyan Methodist Church through the various agencies of our Church.

Realizing that principalities and powers are arrayed against us we also realize that a Triumphant God is with us and we are determined to "stand fast in the faith as once delivered to the saints," and because we do understand this:

Be it Resolved, That we are: "Not slothful in business, but fervent in spirit, serving the Lord."

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Be it also Resolved, That we believe if we are to grow in numbers, in strength, and in influence we must be aggressive so we will go forth this coming year praying and working for a revival on every charge, and add members unto the Church such as shall be saved, having as our aim that every charge shall have an increase in membership during the year.

Because the Champlain Conference has many incidents and evidences of spiritual awakening, and because all are encouraged by the good works of another charge in the Conference, be it Resolved, That we send at least two reports to the Wesleyan during the year.

WALTER F. LEWIS, Committee.

He stressed the need of we as Christians witnessing and praying for the lost as never before. He spoke of the rich heritage we have because of the lives and prayers of God's saints that have gone on before. He spoke of the advancement in the foreign fields in the last thirty years, which has enabled our missionaries to do better work by improving conditions which lessened the danger to their lives. We will not be asked how much but what did we do. Let us be faithful.

Report No. 1

PLAN OF WORK

To the President and Members of the Conference and local W. H. & F. M. Society, greetings:

After prayer and thoughtful consideration, your committee recommends that the plan of work outlined and adopted by the Conference Society for last year, be the plan of work for the coming year, adding one point to the previous 16 as before adopted.

1. This is God's work a task of infinite duration and priceless values, therefore, let us make it our supreme ambition aided by the Holy Ghost, to always solicit the earnest coöperation, persistent faith and loyal devotion of our women in this great cause and to this end.

2. That each local society shall have some Missionary Study or Program at each meeting, to enlighten our minds, broaden our vision and inspire our hearts to pray definitely for our work and workers on each of our mission fields. Aids to this are study book, Missionary Magazine, or correspondence with our missionaries.

3. That each local society shall have at least one public meeting during the year in which missionary needs shall be emphasized.

4. The observance of special days such as Harvest Day for Educational Work; Easter Program for Home Missions; Wesleyan Missionary Day with program to secure Missionary Magazine subscriptions; and coöperate in observing the World Day of Prayer for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon us all and a connection-wide revival.

5. That each local society elect a Solicitor for the Wesleyan Missionary to keep account of needed renewals and gain as many new subscribers as possible.

6. That the President be a subscriber to the Wesleyan Methodist and Wesleyan Missionary, also the Secretary and Treasurer and 50% of the membership subscribers to the Wesleyan Missionary.

7. That all use Thank Offering Boxes in the local societies.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

8. That each local society continue the sending of $6.00 for Southern Mountain work, also $5.00 for Hephzibah Orphanage, annually to the Conference Treasurer to be forwarded to the General Treasurer. This all applies on Budget.

9. That each local society sending money for any branch of the work see that the pastor receives a duplicate receipt so that proper credit may be given on the Budget.

10. That $.25 per member dues be sent to the Conference Treasurer, half of which is to be retained in the conference for expense and the other to be forwarded to the General Treasurer.

11. That we continue the sending of supplies to the Foreign Missionary fields, such as bandages, religious pictures, calendars or Sunday School cards. Also the sending of clothing, comforts and gifts to our Home Missionary fields.

12. That all goods sent to our Mission fields be sent to those in charge of said work. That proper credit be given for such goods in our annual report to Conference, but not in the column with cash receipts and disbursements.

13. That we continue to send clothing or cash as directed by our Orphanage Committee, Mrs. Rose Miller, for the care of the boys and girls at our Orphanage at Macon, Georgia, direct to Brother Jones, and not to Sister Miller. However, be sure to send her a statement of what is sent.

14. That we make a special effort this year to send blankets, comforts, sheets, pillow cases, and pillows for the Camp Ground, also fruit and vegetables to help in entertainment at the Dining Hall. Tithing our canning will help in this.

15. That if possible we shall have at least one Missionary Convention during the year in the different districts, or, if possible, the Conference as a whole, with a Missionary as speaker.

16. That each Delegate report to the local society at the first meeting after Conference the proceedings at the Conference and read her report, and give any needed information concerning the work.
