No. 4 Pastor's Moving Expenses: The church calling a pastor to serve them shall pay his moving expenses to the charge, the same not to apply on his salary.

That we hereby affirm our belief and conviction that the Christian Sabbath was appointed as a day of rest and worship and should be so observed with resolute consistency. 3. That we believe that the highest and noblest conception of public morals is to be achieved through the regeneration of individuals rather than through the collective reformation of society. 4. That for the successful maintenance of the positions above indicated we are fully committed to the support of every valid effort for the preservation of our denominational rights of free speech, a free press, and free religion against all encroachments of dictatorial regimentation of thought and action whether in State or Church.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

Greetings to the Lockport Annual Conference meeting in its one hundred and first year of service this seventh day of August, 1962, at Houghton, New York.

During this Conference year we have begun our second century of service as an independent conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in western New York and north central Pennsylvania. Indeed God has been our helper and we praise Him for His many blessings.

We have endeavored to fulfill our responsibility to the Conference by the help of the Lord. We have visited each church at least once and others on numerous occasions as necessity warranted. We are convinced that in attending the Sunday services we see the potential of the local church and by conducting the quarterly business meeting we become acquainted with the faithful members who sense the responsibility for the local church. In addition to the work within the Conference we have represented the Conference on the Houghton College Local Board of Trustees, as a director for the Houghton Academy, in council with the Conference Presidents and General Superintendents, in attendance at the National Holiness Association Convention, and in attendance at the Annual Ministerial at Asbury Theological Seminary; also, in numerous contacts in relation to the Conference work in general.

The potential of our Conference is challenging. In general our pastors sense this opportunity and are endeavoring to meet it. Our Sunday School enrollment is over three times as great as that of our full membership. There is some danger of being satisfied with a strong Sunday school alone. Someone remarked after studying our statistics, "You are a Sunday school church." We must teach the Word, press for decisions, and recruit converts into the church. Let us never rationalize, confusing smallness for purity, or compromise for the sake of popularity. The book of Acts presents a pattern for today.

The call of the work of the Lord is not restricted to the bounds of our Conference, but we miss those who leave us to serve in other areas. This year the following ministers have accepted calls as listed: Roy Gibbs — Illinois Conference; Richard Kaylor — Iowa Conference; David Buck — student, Asbury Seminary; Hudson Hess — missionary to Haiti; and Paul West — an independent church in the Philadelphia area. We will miss the fellowship of these men.

A review of the statistics reveals the following facts: present full membership — 1241, a gain of only 4; total present membership — 1730, a gain of 13; Sunday School enrollment — 4158, a gain of 114; average attendance for Sunday School — 2636, a gain of 37; total pastors receipts were increased by $8,890 over last year. All but 2 churches reported that the General and Conference Budgets assigned were paid in full.

The centennial book, "Our Heritage," has been well received. We have about 250 copies on hand and an indebtedness of about $400.

Much time has been extended in behalf of our Conference Pioneer work. We have appreciated the leadership of our Extension Secretary. We hope to present a new challenge in the Buffalo area in the near future. On two occasions we thought we had concrete proposals to present to this session of Conference, but after much effort, these did not materialize. The present Pioneer projects are very encouraging and prove the wisdom of such ventures.

We plan to present a plan to strengthen the Conference financially and to enable us to launch out into more pioneer projects. The Church Builders Foundation, a Conference project similar to our Wesleyan Investment Foundation of the Denomination, will be presented in detail at a later time. This has involved hours of study, labor and council. We trust it will prove a blessing to the Conference and Denomination.

The challenge of the potential for growth within our Conference is staggering. The realization of it requires prayer, faith and hard work. However, even if the material goals could be reached, we would fail unless we produced spiritual members whose primary purpose was to live for God. As pastors, we are under-shepherds of the Great Shepherd. As laymen, we are co-laborers together with the Lord. As we seek His guidance, faithfully serving Him, we can be confident of His blessing and help.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed: Daniel A. Heinz

Report No. 14REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY

Reports of the local schools reveal a total average attendance of 2,363 in the 32 local schools of the Conference. Fourteen schools showed gains in average attendance; sixteen showed losses and one maintained its status quo. Rich Valley was revived with a report of 18.

Of the twenty-two reports received from the local schools 16 reported their scores made on the basis of the Standard of Achievement for Wesleyan Sunday Schools. There were four Leadership Schools: Bradford, Fillmore, Lockport and Silver Creek; six Productive Schools: Cattaraugus, East Leon, Forestville, Hess Road, Houghton and Wellsville; five Marginal Schools: Ashwood, Cuba, Higgins, Levant, McRae Brook, and one Sub-marginal School: Oakland.

Thirteen schools reported holding Teacher Training Classes and fifteen, Vacation Bible Schools.

During this year the Board classified the schools into five different groups as follows:

- Group A with average attendance of 100 up
- Group B with average attendance of 76-99
- Group C with average attendance of 60-75
- Group D with average attendance of 41-59
- Group E with average attendance of 40 down

The Board also voted to award a white ribbon to the schools in each classification making a 10% increase in average attendance, a red ribbon to the one making the highest percentage increase in average attendance and blue ribbon to the school with the largest numerical gain. In Group A Silver Creek received the red, Bradford the blue and Levant the white. In Group B East Leon was awarded the red. In Group D, Wellsville received the red; Ashwood, the blue and Oakland, the white. In Group E, Medix Run received the red, and Rich Valley, the blue. East Leon carried off the annual award of the plaque for the second successive year. The awards were given before an audience of 763 at the annual Sunday school rally held on Conference Sunday School Night.

The annual Sunday School Convention held in the Olean Wesleyan Methodist Church April 14 proved to be the finest yet presented to the Conference. Again attendance topped 200 with the host church serving luncheon to the group. God wonderfully blessed and the church is to be commended for the fine hospitality and cooperation.

Two Christian Youth Crusader Camps were held on the Houghton Campground with the Rev. Michael Schell, Director of CYC in charge. The Rev. Milton Putnam held a third Boy's camp at Canadea, N. Y.

Appreciation is extended to the members of the Sunday School Board for their faithful cooperation and to the pastors and Sunday School superintendents for their faithful work at the local level.

Under the direction of the Holy Spirit we look forward to increased blessing in the Sunday School field in this next year.

Report No. 15

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

We, your committee on Evangelism, regret that we have not been able to make a greater contribution to evangelism in our conference. We understand that in some other conferences the committee on Evangelism helps promote definite projects, but we were not sure just what our conference expected of us. We, therefore, are bringing to you a few statements of our convictions relative to evangelism.

There are two branches of evangelism, personal and mass evangelism. Neither can be the substitute for the other. One cannot be wholly separated from the other. With the present apathy of the general public to mass evangelism, pastors and Christian workers find it necessary to apply a personal approach to the sinner. However, much of so-called personal evangelism of our day sinks to the level of leading the sinner to a nominal assent to Christianity without heart-rending soul cleansing repentance that leads to genuine saving faith, and too often these promotional programs are substituted for Bible ordained mass evangelism.

Being well aware of the prevailing hindrances to protracted Evangelistic campaigns such as, superfluous extra-curricular school activities resulting in unreasonable home study assignments, strenuous work schedules, and the constant impact of entertainment through radio, television and sports, we urge our people to resist these godless trends of our time and promote frequent revival campaigns under the leadership of God-called, God-anointed and well experienced general evangelists. We further urge our people to prepare well for these campaigns through fasting and prayer and judicious and thorough advertising, and seek to make these revival campaigns the great events in our church life.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary Society presents the following report to the Lockport Annual Conference of 1962:

In conjunction with the quadrennial slogan of "Work His Works" the annual theme has been "While It Is Day." Although the night comes, this is still time for sowing, reaping and harvest, so we would present the "Open Bible to the Whole World." This is our duty and challenge.

The Lockport Conference W.M.S. has raised the field support for Mrs. Ella Woolsey, our missionary in Sierra Leone.

Miss Orie Spaulding, missionary nurse in Africa, traveled the conference in October, 1961.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Ortlip represented missions in Haiti as they visited each church in April and May this past spring. Their offering project within the conference was for radio communication equipment for missionary use in Haiti — a greatly needed item.

The Self-Denial offerings taken in the local societies and churches during the Lenten season went for a new church in Kingston, Ontario.

There was a good response from all locals for Wesleyan World Literature which was the White Gift Christmas project.

We were privileged to have Sister Ella Bradley, Eastern Area W. M. S. Chairman, attend our first day annual sessions and bring us helpful advice, information and inspiration.

W. M. S. statistical report shows the following totals for the past year:

Active Members	612
Honorary Members	102
Magazine Subscriptions	521
Total Disbursements	$19,238.15
New Balance on Hand	332.25
GRAND TOTAL	$19,570.40

Over the quadrennium our report show a gain in finances of over $7,000, but a small loss in membership.

We, the Lockport W. M. S., wishes to recognize and rejoice in this Centennial Year celebration of the organization of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Our sincere thanks to each pastor and every church for good co-operation in the missionary activities of the past year. May God be praised.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. June Wolfe, President

Report No. 19

CAMP MEETING REPORT

It is with thanksgiving to God, the ever faithful, that a report is made to this conference of the Houghton Camp Meeting. Remembering past blessings, we look forward to the 1962 season with anticipation under the ministries of the Rev. V. A. Mitchell, Secretary of Church Extension and Evangelism, and the Rev. Burl O. Crowe, pastor and evangelist of LaFayette, Indiana. The faithful work of the camp board members, able labors of pastors at the camp work days, the cooperation of residents of village and members of college faculty and staff at Houghton, the able management of Rev. David Shannon, vice president and superintendent of rooms, James Hurd and Paul Gilmore, head ushers, Rev. Maurice Gibbs, superintendent of grounds, the Rev. Richard Kaylor, director of Youth Camp, and the Rev. Michael Schell, director of Junior Youth Camp — all these, plus the hosts of faithful ones who pray, attend and give — these make Houghton Camp what it is today. Our special gratitude we express to the management of Houghton College for the ample and comfortable dormitory facilities placed at the disposal of the camp again this year in Shenawana and Gaoyadeo.

We are cramped for ground space, and attention is being given to joint planning on the problem with the college. If the camp can keep pace with the increased national interest in recreation and camping, the love of our people for trailer and cottage space in the great out of doors, this Bible Holiness center should enjoy its greatest opportunities for growth in the days to come. Our fathers have left us a rich heritage in the full gospel Bible faith of "holiness unto the Lord." God grant us wisdom to pass it on to those who follow without diminishing of its content, purity or power.

Signed: Alton J. Shea

Report No. 20

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Someone has said that the key to successful Christian service is to find out what God wants us to do and do it, in other words to gear into God's program. We have all discovered that God's program is much greater than ours could possibly be and requires supernatural power for its execution. Thank God this power is available to us when we trust Him.

At the meeting of the Conference Board of Church Extension held on June 11, 1962 there came to us an unusual witness that we had discovered God's will for the Church Extension program of our Conference and that we were about to gear in to something great. We became aware, however, that only God's blessing and power could make the execution of this program possible. We feel that the response to our program as it was outlined on Church Extension Night on Wednesday August 8, 1962 gave confirming witness to the fact that this is God's program and not ours. I believe that we have every right to expect that God will work miracles for us as we attempt to raise necessary funds and establish new Churches in the future.

The Conference Board of Church Extension supported financially the following Churches this past year: Hamburg, Little Valley and North Pembroke. We salute the pastors of these Churches, Rev. Roy Gibbs, Rev. Joyce Smith and Rev. Charles Wheeler. We are grateful for their sacrificial labours through another year.

The Conference Board of Church Extension recommends that the members of the Lockport Conference adopt the following budget for the year 1962-63.

Little Valley — $1800	(monthly for current expenses)	$ 25.00
	(monthly for payment of notes)	25.00
	(monthly for payment of mortgage)	100.00
Hamburg — $1260	(monthly on mortgage)	$ 80.00
the maximum amount that the Conference will give if the local Church will initiate a building Fund. We will pay $1.00 for every $4.00 raised by the local Church up to $25 monthly
Pioneer Missionary		$ 2080
Salary Fund		5200
Working Fund		600
Property Fund		1060
Total Proposed Budget		$12,000

I feel that we can be justly proud of the interest in Church Extension which exists in our Conference and yet with only 34 Churches in an area of nearly two million people there "remaineth much land yet to be possessed."

Respectfully submitted,
Paul F. Markell

The Lockport Annual Conference senses from recently reported actions of her sister body the Allegheny Annual Conference a degree of restlessness and tension in its attitudes toward and relationship with our general body, the Wesleyan Methodist Church of America. This Conference takes the present occasion to declare its affection for the brethren of the Allegheny Conference. We express to the brethren our appreciation for their spiritual and tangible contributions to the cause of Christ and to our church. We ask our brethren to join us in the conviction that in the light of Romans 14, Acts 15, and other scriptures it appears not to be God's will that differences of attitude on prudentials of Christian life, sincerely held and respected, should involve the breaking of Christian fellowship. We bespeak from our brethren an answering Christian esteem with a mutual trust that in our ongoing association God will continue to teach us how to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Greetings to the members of the 69th session of Lockport Conference Woman's Missionary Society. Again we, the local presidents, delegates, officers and mission-minded women are gathered on this hill top at Houghton, New York, August 8, 1962.

The plans, prayer and programing of another year are behind us. As we sit together in this annual session may we each be aware that we are co-laborers with the great "I AM", the Holy One, and His Son Jesus Christ who is "the same yesterday, today and forever."

A verse greatly impressed upon my mind and heart this year is found in the prophecy of Isaiah, chapter 32 and verse 17: "And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever." May this peace of righteousness be a reality in our hearts throughout this annual session and through the coming months as we give love service to the Source of peace.

Two of our mission fields were well represented by missionaries traveling in the conference this past year. Miss Orie Spaulding, missionary nurse to Sierra Leone, came to our churches last October. Rev. and Mrs. Henry Ortlip presented the many phases of missionary activity in Haiti as they toured the conference in April and May. Each church and W. M. S. group is deepened in missionary interest and giving as we meet and hear from our active missionaries. We are grateful to the Lord for them.

The local W. M. S. societies have co-operated in the denomination wide special White Gift Christmas offering for Wesleyan World Literature and the Lenten season Self-Denial offering for a new church in Kingston, Ontario. Our prayers are sent with these offerings.

In answer to an appeal from Puerto Rico, some of the local societies in the conference have collected and sent books to add to the Academy library there. I trust was a blessing to all. We welcome this new missionary group. Wesleyan church. This was planned to be an instructional and inspirational service which trust was a blessing to all. We welcome this new missionary group.

In May, it was my happy opportunity to visit Headquarters in Marion, Indiana and have a visit with our former W. M. S. president and now General President, Sister Helen Stark. This was a time of real delight as well as great benefit to me as I sought instruction and ideas on various matters of mission interest.

The Conference W. M. S. Executive Committee met on the afternoon of July 25th at the Batavia parsonage. Executive business was transacted and the committees on Temporary Organization were appointed. May I express deep thanks to these busy women who many, many times thro the year have put aside home and personal responsibilities to perform important tasks in the interest of missions in the conference because of devotion to the Lord and His cause.

It is our delight to welcome Sister Ella Bradley, Eastern Area Chairman, to our annual W. M. S. sessions. She will be bringing some of our devotionals, also present the President's Workshop and share with us many things from her years as a general officer of the Woman's Missionary Society.

During the past year we have shared in the spiritual advances made in Sierra Leone, through the obligation we carry of field support for Mrs. Ella Woolsey. Our prayers, letters, interest as well as money has gone from each local society to West Africa in behalf of Sister Woolsey, soon to be home on furlough.

Gladly we announce that Dr. Marilyn Birch, currently and for some years past, our missionary doctor in Sierra Leone, will be the speaker for the public service on Friday evening.

"Prayer is not easy work, but it is the most profitable of all work." So reads an item on the prayer page in the "Missionary Magazine." Perhaps the most difficult part of missions, but missions is useless without it — this is prayer. May it be a greater part of our mission program in each local society this coming year.

Respectfully submitted, June G. Wolfe, W. M. S. President

3. Resolved: That we recognize the need of Christian training for the young, and to this end will encourage them in reading of the Bible and of literature helpful to good morals. We will encourage them in attendance at Sunday School and church. We urge parents to supervise the children's selection of T. V. and radio programs and the literature they read.

4. Resolved: That we encourage the women of our society to learn better the individual needs of our missionaries, that they may pray more intelligently and more effectively for them. We urge prayer for the leaders of our nation and for the evangelization of the World.

5. Resolved: That we take an active part in opposing Communism and in training our young people to be on guard against its teachings, also to appreciate more the freedom we have in this country.

6. Resolved: That we express our appreciation for the good meals and entertainment during Conference and to the College for the use of Shenawana, the new dorm.

Respectfully submitted,

PLAN OF WORK

The Committee on the Plan of Work submit the following recommendations:

1. That a Women's World Fellowship Secretary be appointed by the local Executive Board, who shall promote the program of the Women's World Fellowship and the Prayer Partner Plan of praying for and writing to our missionaries and native workers on the field, using the monthly prayer requests in the Wesleyan Missionary and other requests.

2. That each society use the Guide and follow the reading course as outlined by the Mission Study Secretary, making sure that a complete individual record be kept.

3. That each society send funds for the Penny-a-meal Plan, to be credited to General World Missions and funds from the Foot of Dime Strips, to provide funds for Mission Field Equipment to the Conference Treasurer.

4. That we assume the field support of Ella Woolsey, now serving in Sierra Leone.

5. That one meeting be given especially to the study and prayer for the needs of the Jews.

6. That each society contribute annually a minimum of $3.00 to Medical Missions, $10.00 for General Church Extension and Evangelism, $8.00 for Hephzibah Children's Home, $5.00 to Australia and $5.00 to Brainerd Indian School.

7. That each society elect a Card Call Secretary to promote the plan and collect the stubs to be sent to the Conference Treasurer for Benevolent credit.

8. That each society promote the Honorary Enrollment Plan of Houghton College, sending pledge cards to the College and monies to the Conference Treasurer.

9. That we observe World Day of Prayer in February; Self-Denial during Lent; Education Day in October; and White Gift Christmas in December.

10. That the Efficiency Standard be read in the society the first meeting of the new fiscal year of Conference; that arrangements be made with the pastor for one missionary prayer meeting each month; and that the Standing Rule and the Plan of Work be read at least once a year.

11. That we secure every woman in the church a member of the society or achieve a ten per cent gain in membership.

12. That each society appoint a Temperance Secretary to bring in Temperance information and prayer items.

13. That each society, in case of the death of a member or other person in the community, encourage setting aside or collecting money for some missionary project, rather than buying flowers, and that a memorial card be sent to the family.

14. That each society purchase cases of fruit or vegetables for Camp meeting, the same to be brought to Conference with delegate. If society prefers it, cash may be sent to Conference W. M. S. Treasurer. (Benevolent receipt will be issued — 25 cents per quart canned vegetables and 35 cents per quart of fruit.)

15. That each society promote a Community Missions Program.

16. That an offering for the American Bible Society be taken during the Universal Bible Reading Period, and channel it through the Conference Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
Marion McKinley
June A. Hendy
Mabel B. Mosher

Report No. 1REPORT OF THE WESLEYAN YOUTH PRESIDENT

Greetings to the 30th session of the Lockport Conference Wesleyan Youth met here in Houghton, N. Y. this 16th day of August, 1962.

Personally we want to praise God for present victory, full and complete. We marvel at His faithfulness and patience in our behalf. Unworthy though we be, yet He continues mercifully to provide for every area of life's needs . . . marvelous grace of our loving Lord.

It was the privilege of the youth president to represent Wesleyan Youth at all the meetings of the Camp Meeting Board, the Conference Board of Church Extension, and the Executive Youth Council during the past year. We were also responsible for mailing seven letters to pastors and local workers. Particularly were we blessed in being the conference representative at the first international youth convention at Louisville, Ky. A booth was prepared and attended during the entire session. Some 29 of our Lockport youth attended that convention. The Bradford quiz team represented us in the national play-offs.

Last fall we conducted for the first time a "Fall Round-Up" for Wesleyan Youth. It was held in Silver Creek. The success of this venture has not yet been determined.

For want of an invitation the Spring Youth Convention was held at Silver Creek too. Workers for the program included Rev. Richard Kaylor and Rev. Henry Ortlip. A talent contest was also included. Attendance was somewhat below our better years.

Several other features for this year have had to be dropped, because of changing personnel at headquarters.

We are proud to present a new addition to the camp and conference grounds this year in the form of a Snack Bar. This was paid for from funds received a few years ago for this purpose. We are grateful for the fine job the Wolfe family is doing in running the shop this year.

Again we wish to express our appreciation to Rev. Richard Kaylor for the very efficient way that he has planned and conducted the youth camp. This is an encouraging feature of our total program.

This past year has been a good year for Wesleyan Youth, but in no way does it approach the potential that we have as a conference. There are many churches which report no Wesleyan Youth group. Others are far below the possibilities they might attain. There is need of vision, effort, and cooperation that we might realize new goals.

Respectfully submitted
Oliver J. Dongell

Report No. 2

REPORT OF WESLEYAN YOUTH VICE PRESIDENT

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I count it a rich privilege to be able to work with the youth of the Lockport Conference.

Most of my time, effort and prayers have been directed toward the Youth Camp again this year. I feel that our Youth Camp has been one of our better camps. We have a total enrollment of 102. Many of them have made decisions which have brought them into a deeper relationship with our Lord.

We thank God and you of the Wesleyan Youth for another opportunity of working with you, and for Him, in the Youth Department this coming year.

Respectfully submitted
Richard G. Kaylor
