WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

The Rev. E. D. Carpenter was appointed to preach the opening sermon, the Rev. C. A. Heath, alternate.

Brother Carpenter and Brother Allen spoke of the pleasant association they had had in the many years they had labored together. At the close of the talks, the Rev. C. E. Hill offered a fervent prayer that the blessing of God should rest and remain upon the Champlain Conference.

The congregation stood and sung, Blest be the Tie that Binds. Binds.

By virtue of the fact that A. J. Allen was elected President, E. D. Carpenter was kept on the Committee on Pastoral Relations.

Moved and supported that the matter of uniting the Wesleyan Conferences of New York State should be considered, and a joint committee was appointed as follows: Chairman, E. D. Carpenter, A. J. Allen and E. L. Elliott.

Moved and supported that the Champlain Conference accept the action of the Forward Movement to the best of its ability.

Song, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name, was sung.

Adjourned by limitation. Benediction by C. A. Heath.

Friday Afternoon Meeting.

The devotional service was led by H. S. Hill. Prayer was offered by C. A. Heath. A number of testimonies were given. This was a precious service. The dews of heaven fell upon our souls.

The Rev. E. D. Carpenter offered a prayer of thanks to God in the way He had raised up our Connectional Agent, the Rev. J. S. Willett, and that he might be spared for many years.

At the calling of the Roll 15 elders, 1 licentiate and 17 delegates answered to the call of their names.

Minutes of the morning session were read and approved after slight correction.

Moved that our President, Brother A. J. Allen, write a letter in behalf of the Conference greeting Brother Willett.

The Conference elected E. L. Elliott a Committee of Resolutions in the absence of F. H. Wright.

The Rev. A. J. Allen was elected Chairman of the Camp-Meeting Committee, to fill the vacancy of E. D. Carpenter.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Moved and carried that the President should nominate the Advisory Board, which he did as follows: H. S. Hill and S. H. Miller.

The order of the day having arrived, Marching to Zion was sung. C. E. Hill offered prayer. C. L. Hill and Florence Baxter sang a duet.

The Rev. T. P. Baker was the preacher. The text was the 8th, 9th and 10th verses of the 15th chapter of St. Luke. Subject, The Lost Coin. Many searching truths were brought before us. If we are to derive from the Scriptures what the Lord expects, we must get beneath the surface of ourselves. God is the King of his kingdom. He is the supreme ruler, and we cannot be excused of what the King demands of us, for He will deal with us at His coming. God knows our ability and will not require the impossible. He is not only our leader, He is our protector.

Motion to adjourn. Benediction by D. W. Summers.

Friday Evening Service.

This meeting was in charge of the W. H. & F. M. Society. See the Secretary's and Treasurer's Report. (Report No. 6, following Woman's Minutes, on page 40.)

Saturday Night Meeting.

President A. J. Allen was in charge of the song service. A number of songs were sung. Prayers by A. J. Allen and C. L. Hill. Solo, In My Father's Keeping. The Rev. E. L. Elliott was the preacher of the evening. Text, Rev. 5:12. Jesus tents with his people, he works with them. He warns his servants of the dangers around them, and there is still danger to-day. At the close the saints gathered around the altar. Souls were refreshed. Benediction by A. J. Allen.

Sunday Morning Meeting.

This was a love feast, with the Rev. C. E. Hill in charge. Song, Pass me not, O gentle Saviour. The Rev. T. P. Baker offered prayer. Song, My Hope is Built on Nothing Less. Scripture lesson read from I. John 3. Special singing by Mrs. Vera Lewis and Glendora Allen.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

The Rev. I. F. McLeister was the preacher. His text was II. Peter 3. Subject, Second Coming of Christ. Every promise has, and will be fulfilled regarding His coming, and we are warned to be ready, we are to labor diligently, for there is a storm coming on the world and to-morrow may be too late. Let us redeem the time that He may be found of us in peace.

Ordination service. Song, Blest Be the Tie that Binds. Benediction by the Rev. C. E. Hill.

Sunday Evening Meeting.

Singing, I Love Jesus. A. J. Allen was in charge. This was a communion service. The Rev. T. P. Baker was the preacher. Song, If Your Heart Keeps Right. Prayer was offered by C. E. Hill and O. G. Wyman. Text, Isa. 57:15. Eternity, the heavenly associations are eternal. The saints rest. Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. There were six at the altar. Benediction by A. J. Allen.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ITINERANCY AND ORDERS.

Your Committee on Itinerancy and Orders reports as follows:

1. Richard Palmer and C. L. Hill have not passed a subject this year owing to a number of circumstances. We recommend that they be continued in the course and urged to a speedy completion of the same.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

2. W. H. LaMoy, having completed the Course of Study and having met the other requirements for ordination, and having requested this conference to ordain him, we therefore refer his case to this conference for action.

E. D. Carpenter,
O. J. Wyman,
A. J. Allen, Committee.

Report No. 4.

CAMP-MEETING REPORT.

Again it is my privilege to report a splendid camp-meeting at West Chazy. In quality, the personnel of the camp was gratifying, but in the quantity there is room for improvement. We are thoroughly impressed with the importance of a good attendance from every charge in the conference. The camp needs the inspiration of numbers and the numbers need the blessings of the camp. Our borders are enlarging. Our influence is reaching out to other people than our own. Not having attained to that numerical success which tends to unholy popularity and never having made our camp a savings bank, we are drawing friends to our standard, the standard of spirituality.

Brother J. J. Coleman was inspired by the Holy Ghost in the presentation of Bible truth. His message reached the hearts of his hearers. He spread a table for the saints, loaded with the good things of the kingdom. Brother Mow was at his best. His good feelings, his intense earnestness, his soul-piercing statements and his untiring labor made his ministry to our camp a great blessing. God bless these brethren and their work.

Brother Fred DeWeerd is to be our evangelist this year. He comes highly recommended as a strong man in God's work. He needs our co-operation both in prayer and personal presence. But one evangelist is engaged. We are calling every pastor, singer and layman to the responsibility of individual contribution of their best to the success of the coming meeting. We want every man to be in his place round about the camp. Sister Florence Baxter, who rendered such acceptable service last year, will be our leader in song this year.

Financially the last meeting was well cared for. Our expenses were met and a surplus of $400 given us. We appreciate this and hereby express our appreciation. We shall pay one-half the board and carfare of all of our pastors who attend the camp-meeting this year.

Pray, push and boost for the West Chazy camp-meeting June 24 to July 4, 1920.

F. H. Wright, Secretary Camp-meeting Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 1.

Resolved, that we, the members of the Champlain Conference now assembled at Horicon, N. Y., April 20, 1920, do pledge ourselves to diligence in molding public opinion in favor of the strict enforcement of nation-wide prohibition. We condemn without stint any effort on the part of our legislators to annul or weaken the full effect of the eighteenth amendment to the national constitution. We will support only such representatives and public officers as can be trusted to carry out the will of the nation expressed in such amendment.

E. L. Elliott, Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 2.

Resolved, that we, the members of the Champlain Conference, now assembled at Horicon, N. Y., do highly appreciate the long and faithful service of our retiring Conference President, the Rev. E. D. Carpenter. We recognize his superior ability as a presiding officer and the marked fairness of all his decisions and his safe counsel as a leader. May the extraordinary blessing of God rest upon him in his new field of labor.

E. L. Elliott, Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 3.

Resolved, that we, the members of the Champlain Conference, convened at Horicon, N. Y., April 20, 1920, do hereby express our appreciation to the Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis, and to members and friends of the Wesleyan Methodist church of this community, for their kind hospitality, during this conference session.

Also, we highly appreciate the helpful inspiration and instruction brought by all our visiting Connectional officers.

Edward L. Elliott, Committee.

RESOLUTION NO. 4.

The Champlain Conference assembled at Horicon, N. Y., April 24, 1920, hereby extend to the Wesleyan Methodist churches affiliated with our work in Canada and known as the Canada conference, a cordial invitation to become a part of the Champlain Annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church) of America, provided it be found that no legal barriers exists to hinder such a step being taken.

The above was unanimously adopted.

A. J. Allen, President,
O. G. Wyman, Secretary.

Journal of Daily Proceedings.

Wednesday, April 21.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Champlain Conference met for its fifteenth annual meeting at Horicon, N. Y., Wednesday afternoon, April 21, 1920, at 4 o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by the President and opened with singing "A Charge to Keep." Scripture reading, I. Cor. 13, by Mrs. Carpenter. Prayer by Mrs. Lee.

The minutes of the last Conference meetings were read and adopted.

Motion was made and carried that the Order of the Day for Thursday be the election of officers.

Mrs. Edith Lee, Organizer of the Eastern District, was introduced. Mrs. Lee made suggestive remarks concerning Home Mission Day, a Conference Directory, and the use of programs.

Reports were read from the following societies: Horicon, West Plattsburg, Forestdale, Hague, Glens Falls, Brookdale, Cooks Corners, Lisbon, Lisbon Chapel and Hadley.

Motion made and carried to adjourn.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

Thursday, April 22.

The President called the meeting to order and after singing "Blessed Assurance," Mrs. Elliott conducted the devotional service. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

At this time the election of officers for the ensuing year took place.

Reports were read from Mooers, Burke, Long Lake, Chittenden, Bakers Mills, Mill Creek and Sodom.

A letter from Mrs. W. L. Northam was read and Mrs. Mabel Hayes was appointed as a committee to solicit for the articles asked for.

A letter was read from Miss Alice Hampe.

Motion to adjourn was carried.

Friday, April 23.

The meeting opened with singing "Anywhere with Jesus." The sixth chapter of Galatians was read and prayer offered by Miss Florence Baxter.

A report from the West Chazy Society was read.

Motion made and carried that the society pay to the Conference Treasurer for Education, $35; for Home Missions, $20; and for General Fund, $25.

Motion made and carried that the Standard of Efficiency and the Plan of Work as recommended by the General Conference Society be adopted, and that 300 copies of this plan be printed to be distributed to the local societies.

Motion made and carried to adjourn to meet at the call of the chair.

Public Meeting.

The Friday evening meeting was in charge of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society with the President, Mrs. Flora Carpenter, presiding.

Singing, "The Victory May Depend on You."

Scripture reading, I. Cor. 3, Mrs. Mabel Hill.

Prayer, Rev. H. S. Hill.

Mrs. Edith Lee, Organizer of the Eastern District, in an address brought out the idea of co-operation. The work and need of medical missionaries was mentioned; also the work of the home missionaries.

Special song by Miss Florence Baxter.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

The next speaker was the Rev. George Clarke who spoke of the awful conditions in heathen lands. Mr. Clarke spoke of the growth of the Y. M. W. B. In seventeen years the Y. M. W. B. has increased the amount raised for mission work from $600.00 to $38,000.

Singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

The Rev. James Elliott spoke of the proposed work in South America, and told something of the conditions in that country.

The Rev. T. P. Baker, our Missionary Secretary, made a stirring appeal for funds to carry on the work, and pledges and offerings to the amount of $555 was raised.

Benediction by the Rev. T. P. Baker.

Respectfully submitted,

Mabel A. Hill, Secretary.

SUGGESTIONS FOR LOCAL WORK.

All cash contributions and receipts for Home and Foreign work should be sent to Mrs. A. J. Allen, Hague, N. Y., Treasurer of the Society.

1. Plan the year's work at the beginning of the year.
2. Do not neglect missionary study, use suggested programs in the Wesleyan Missionary.
3. Give Home Missionary Program on day designated. Offering for Home Missions. Secure new members at this meeting.
4. Make supplies for Home and Foreign work.
5. Give time and special prayer for the field and workers. Correspondence with missionaries on the field.
6. Raise money other than dues by the making of articles for sale, such as aprons, bedding, etc.
7. Five-minute talks once a month given to the Sunday-school in connection with the monthly Missionary offering.
8. Send at least six dollars as an annual offering to the General Conference Treasurer through the Annual Conference Treasurer, to be applied on Home Missionary work as follows:
 - a. $600 for salary of Blue Ridge Mountain Missionary.
 - b. $200 for salary of Blue Ridge Mountain Teacher.
 - c. $250 for salary of F. M. Roberts at the Alabama Mission.
 - d. $150 toward Industrial Work in Alabama School.
9. Plan to attend Missionary Institute at Camp-meeting.
