REPORT NO. 3

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY

During the past year your Sunday School secretary mailed out approximately 300 cards and letters, spoke at two Sunday School worker's banquets, kept accurate records and reported all Sunday School figures, represented you at all conference related committee meetings and attended the Philadelphia Area Sunday School convention with the Cup-winning delegates.

I was thrilled and surprised by the frequent use of the film-strip library by the Sunday schools. These filmstrips have been a very active part of our department's work this year.

Eighteen schools made gains of 1% or more this year. Camden, though not having had a complete year to base reports on, has had a very good growth and has added to the total picture of gain.

10% Ribbons of merit are awarded to the following schools; Haskinsville 11%, Grace Lee (Chambers) 17%, Waterloo 12%; Millview almost made it with 9% gain.

The conference trophies are awarded as follows; Larger schools Spencerport with 12% gain, 59-99 class - Riverside with 24%, and in the smaller schools, Penfield with a whopping 58% gain.

It is a real thrill to see Chambers with a 17% growth and Waterloo with 12% and to realize that Canandaigua has had a good solid growth for the second year in a row. If I were a prophet, I would prophesy that Sandy Creek will be coming on strong this next year.

Total gain for the conference is 11, but this is in spite of a loss of 77 during the bad third-quarter winter.

THE AWARD STANDARD

The Sunday School Board recommends the following awards and standard for the coming year:

1. Each school in the conference achieving a 10% gain in average attendance for the year will receive a Ribbon Of Merit.

2. Schools competing for the trophies shall be divided into three groups: up through 59, 60 through 99, 100 and up. The grouping of schools will be established according to the average attendance for the last conference year. A trophy will be awarded to the one in each group achieving the greatest percentage gain.

3. The pastor, or key layman, of each trophy-winning school may travel without charge in one car at the expense of the conference Sunday School fund to the National Sunday School convention or a comparable one selected by the Sunday School Board. In addition, each winner who takes advantage of this will be given $10.00 from the same fund for other convention expenses.

4. The average attendance shall be an average of total Sunday School attendance divided by the number of actual sessions held. To be counted present, scholars must be in attendance at least half of the Sunday School session. Persons known to be in attendance at any Sunday service of any conference connected services such as Chambers camp, youth retreat, or Houghton Youth rally, may be considered present at their local Sunday School for that Sunday or Sundays.

5. *Extension Sunday School defined:
"That the average attendance reported for Silver Cup Standard include only the regular Sunday School sessions."

* An Extension Sunday School should be a school which is set up for regular weekly classes for all ages and open to the public.

The staff should be elected by the church and the curriculum used should be that which is taught in the main school.

Teaching done to specialized groups such as: nursing homes, prisons, and all people under confinement, should be considered as a department (logically, the Home Department) not as a school.

In order to avoid confusion and repeated waste of conference time, we recommend that attendance figures of extension schools be reported separately, and that the extension school be considered a school in its own right and able to compete in its own category after its first full year.

REPORT NO. 7

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENT

To the members of the Rochester Conference assembled on Chambers Campground for its one hundred and twenty-second Annual Session:

Cordial Christian greetings. Again, in the providence of God, we are permitted to meet for this Annual Session of the Rochester Conference. In the midst of a world torn by strife, frustration, wickedness, and uncertainty, how wonderful to know the peace of God and how great to be associated with His cause and program of promoting the Gospel of peace.

The thirty-second General Conference, which was a specially called session, (at close of three years instead of four) is now history, and in reality, this General Conference made history especially in the unanimous vote favoring merger with the Alliance Reformed Baptist Church and an excellent vote - almost 80% - favoring merger with the Pilgrim Holiness Church. We will be voting during this conference session on merger with the Pilgrim Holiness Church following which the matter will be handed to the local churches for their consideration. Also, this General Conference approved an all-inclusive Pension Plan associated with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. In addition, several important changes were made in the Discipline which will strengthen our government structure and make for greater progress in the Lord's work. We were impressed with the consciousness of the presence of the Lord throughout and believe that real strides forward were made.

We believe this has been a good year of progress in all phases of the work in the Conference. The fine progress being made in our new churches is indeed encouraging. Plans have been approved for the superstructure of the church at Kirkville and for the first educational unit at Penfield; these plans evidence real growth and progress in both places. Pulaski has completed their fine new parsonage, and much progress has been made at our newest work, Camden, by way of plant improvement, numerical, financial and spiritual growth. The new parsonage at Haskinsville has been completed; Avon, having sold their old property on 70 West Main Street, is in the process of purchasing a new parsonage; the Corning church remodelled their auditorium including a new ceiling and now have a beautiful sanctuary. Several other churches in the Conference have made noticable stride forward with much accomplished.

Following the rise of Conference last year, we worked with both the Avon and Buena Vista churches in an effort to secure a pastor. Finally, in early fall, Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Shephard from the Reformed Baptist were secured for the Buena Vista church; and Rev. and Mrs. Roy R. Straub were secured for the Avon church. However, Brother Shephard is leaving the pastorate at Buena Vista after only one year or even less because of the illness of Mrs. Shephard. Brother and Sister Ronald Madden, also from the Reformed Baptist, accepted the pastorate at Endicott, as reported last year, and are leaving after serving only one year. Brother Madden feels keenly the call to the Mission field and will be leaving soon for Africa with his family.

We have been very gratified with the fine response of three churches in the repayment of loans to the Conference: Baldwinsville, (with the much larger amount) which paid more than half and the remainder will be amortized over the next two years; Waterloo, and Horseheads. These churches and their pastors are to be commended, and this brings some real financial relief to the Conference. This will be reflected in the report of the Conference Treasurer, Mrs. Charlotte Lamos.

It has been a pleasure to participate in anniversary services, dedication and memorial services as well as some long week-end services. We have visited every church, with one exception and this due to unavoidable circumstances, and some more than once in the interest of promoting the work of both on a Conference and local level. Have spoken over sixty times, attended and participated in nearly twenty business meetings, met several times with the Conference Board of Trustees, the Book Shop Committee, Conference Advisory Board and other committees in the interest of the Conference work. We have mailed out several circular letters in addition to our regular correspondence; had more than thirty personal and business conferences; and have worked closely with Pulpit Supply Committees where changes were anticipated.

Throughout the year we have endeavored to keep in close touch with the pastors and churches through personal contacts and correspondence.

Once again we would like to express our thanks and appreciation to our Vice-President, Rev. James E. Bence, and to the Advisory Board for their cooperation and counsel - especially to Brother Bence who has aided in several business meetings and Committee work where there were conflicts or other unavoidable circumstances; to our Conference Treasurer, Mrs. Charlotte Lamos, for her very untiring and efficient work; to our Conference Board of Trustees, Conference Policy Committee and all Conference committees for their help and fine cooperation in planning and implementing these plans in the interest of the Conference work. We are again so grateful for the fine spirit of teamwork in our midst and it is this working together of committee, pastors, and laymen that makes real progress possible. Again we express thanks to our neighbors, the Larsons, for their cooperation in taking telephone calls and getting our mail while we were out of the city. To Mrs. Rees we are indebted for her help in the office in sharing responsibilities by way of work and through understanding and prayer. Above all, we are deeply thankful to God for His help - especially in recent days - and for His guidance and blessings throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

David A. Rees

REPORT NO. 13

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY

Pursuant to the action of the Annual Conference last year, the Conference Promotional Secretary's work is primarily with the matter of pledges. We now have 55 active pledgees who are paying monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually.

We are sending reminders and receiving payments according to the pledgees' indicated desires. We also are sending reminders to the Sunday School Superintendents quarterly concerning the Sunday School offering for Conference Missions. At the turn of the year, we sent receipts to all who have paid by pledge to the Conference Mission Fund.

While the pledge card system has not been a large source of income for Conference Missions, it has been the means of an additional $840.00 for this year over and above the operating expenses.

REPORT NO. 19

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Brethren, which of us is not altogether excited about the many and varying facets of labor in our living God's vineyard? The work of this chaplaincy continues to be a responsibility worthy of any effort expended and time given.

Acceptance and rapport with the administration is most gratifying. We are still looked upon as a part time situation (which of course we are) but it is significant to note that precedent has been broken for us in some areas to make possible participation that would otherwise be impossible due to our part time status.

We have had office hours through this year on Mondays and Wednesdays with the strong sense that this is inadequate time to give yet knowing we are accomplishing to some degree a necessary work.

Activities for the past year include regular attendance at Chaplain's Council, participation in U.R.C. (student religious council), attendance at Chaplain's retreat, International Student Weekend at Houghton College, Counseling, prayer meetings in our office, sharing in luncheon discussions, coordinating picnics and home engagements for international students.

We continue with a growing sense of need for more and more of God's Wisdom and direction. Pray with us for an even more effective witness on a campus of 14,000 people.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Boghosian (signed)

REPORT OF CONFERENCE WMS PRESIDENT

To the members of the Rochester WMS gathered for their 61st annual session, greetings!

Today we lift our hearts to God in praise and adoration for His matchless love and mercy, which He so bountifully bestows on all who will permit Him to. I personally feel that He has been so patient and kind to me. I have so miserably failed at times, and, in my own strength, would be nothing but a continual failure. I am glad to report that this year has been one of great spiritual growth in my own life. I have found that He has given strength and guidance day by day. To Him I owe my life.....my all.

The Conference year began with the fall Area Convention. Although it was rainy and cold, the attendance was very good. The pastors and ladies of our various churches showed a wonderful spirit of cooperation in working together in the entertaining of what seemed to be, "a too big of a task". I'm sure everyone received rich blessings if they were in attendance at this convention.

Rev. Joe Neyman, Missionary to Africa, was our deputationai missionary for the fall. Spring conventions were held at Baldwinsville, Sandy Creek, Rochester, Canisteo and Corning-Riverside churches. The speakers were Miss Esther Smeenge, missionary to Afric , and Rev. George Merz, missionary to the Indians at Onondaga reservation. We felt God's special blessing as these servants poured forth the messages God had laid on their hearts. Mrs. Esther Swimley, YMWB Supt. attended the conventions with me and cared for the sale of books, literature, etc. Total attendance was over 890, offerings and pledges about $875, and sales of books over $200. Invitations were received from Lyncourt, Camden, Spencerport, Haskinsville and Elmira for the 1967 Conventions.

We are indeed happy to have Paul and Donna Dekker with us for our conference sesssions. They are doubly ours. Paul having grown up in our midst, and our having a share in their missionary support.

October 2-30, Rev. Ronald Heavilin will tour our Conference. He will be representing Puerto Rico.

I attended General Conference only one day. Mrs. Elsie Turverey, Vice President attended in my place. The delegates were Mrs. Florence Bence and Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick, along with our YMWB Supt., Mrs. Esther Swimley. They were in full attendance and will be reporting news and blessings.

This has been a good year financially, with a gain of 82, however, our membership dropped from 893 to 873. Total receipts are $29,572.99. This includes White Gift of $321 for Yeotmal; $1,478 for Onondaga Reservation; $223 Albuquerque, N.M.; $2,021 Conference Missions and $575 for the American Indian and Brainard. Beside this we have paid the pledged support of $1000 each for the Dekkers, the Swaugers, and the Johnsons.

I am happy for the interest that is growing among the whole Church. Let us keep the vision ever bright until the Master returns.

Respectfully submitted,
(Mrs.) Gladys Newbury
President Rochester Conference WMS

REPORT OF THE MISSION READING SECRETARY

To the Rochester Conference WMS assembled on Chambers Camp Ground June 28, 1966.

Greetings in the name of Christ.

To carry out the duties assigned me, I have written eighty letters. I feel I have had excellent cooperation from the societies.

Rome had the largest number of gold seal certificates which was fourteen. This speaks well for the zeal and diligence of my predecessor, Mrs. Macumber and for that of the local secretary, Mrs. Myra Lee. Gold certificates were earned by one hundred thirteen readers while thirty-six earned blue seal certificates.

The report for the Conference year 1965-1966 follows:

Number reading six books -- one hundred sixty-seven; number reading four books -- sixty-three; number reading one to three books -- one hundred ninety. Total number of readers -- four hundred nineteen.

I suggest that each local president sees that a mission reading secretary is appointed and that her name and address be reported to me.

We have had a good year. Let us make the next one better!

Respectfully submitted,
Myrtle B. Lawrence (signed)
Rochester Conference Mission
Reading Secretary
