Report No. 4

RESOLUTIONS

Having the best interest of the Oklahoma Conference at heart, we, your Committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. Recognizing that a full budget is necessary to the best interest of our work as a Conference and also the work of the Connection, be it resolved that the pastors and people coöperate in an effort to bring their budget in full.

2. Since there is such a prevailing spirit of Sabbath desecration everywhere, we urge upon Wesleyan Methodists to refrain from all manner of secular work as well as all amusements on the Lord's Day that do not tend to spirituality. Be it further resolved that we protest against the use of the automobile on the Lord's Day for joy-riding or any other purpose that does not glorify God.

3. We deeply deplore the widespread propaganda of the liquor interests, abetted largely by the daily press, certain politicians, and a few millionaires assailing the present administration with the apparent hope of blocking the wheels of just government in its noble effort to suppress lawlessness and give the people a fair, just and businesslike administration; a propaganda of falsehood and misrepresentation, treasonable in character, that should be challenged by our God-fearing and law-abiding people. Therefore we call upon all Wesleyan Methodists within the boundary of our Conference to stand uncompromisingly for law and order, and especially for the effective enforcement of personal obedience to the Eighteenth Amendment, that the vast amount of moral and economic gains already secured to us in the first decade under the new regime may not now be lost in these days of organized crime, laxness among officials and widespread lawlessness. And be it further resolved that we enthusiastically support President Hoover in his support of moral leadership in the present crisis and pledge to him the coöperation of our pulpits, Sunday Schools and organized groups in a program of education of obedience to the law.

4. We also protest against the odious and repugnant method of tobacco companies in portraying girls on bill-boards as common users of cigarettes, and urge our people in every way possible to endeavor to save the boys and girls from the hurtful habit of tobacco using in any of its forms. Let us as a Church use our influence against, and forcefully oppose, the deplorable and exceedingly destructive advertising so prevalent all over our country on bill-boards and in magazines and newspapers.

5. Be it resolved in conclusion, that we as a people lift up a high standard of spirituality by our daily walk and conversation. God grant us grace to so live before the world that they shall be made hungry for salvation.

C. HANSON,
J. F. INSLEY,

About the first of June we engaged Mrs. Golden Young to lead the singing.

P. H. Hodge had the oversight of pitching the tent, and making other necessary preparations for the Camp.

Mrs. Golden Young was with us from the 21st of August until the close of the Camp. Brother Wise arrived Sunday morning. The preaching was done by our Conference Elders until Brother Wise arrived.

The blessing of the Lord attended the Camp in a special manner. The saints were edified, believers were sanctified, and sinners were saved. Visiting brethren brought messages from time to time, that were appreciated by all.

Finances were raised chiefly by public offerings.

Y. M. W. B. SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Christian Workers:—As space is limited, I do not feel that I can say all that is on my heart to you. And after all, our words are so dull, and fall so short of really expressing to you the appreciation for your coöperation the past year in this great missionary work. My heart is burdened and the tears fall fast as we hear these words found in Romans 10:14, 15, "How shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they go except they be sent?" O, that each one would feel the responsibility that these words bring! We do not believe the time so far away when we as a Conference shall have a missionary in the field, and how we are made to praise God for the good young people that are feeling the call and burden for a lost world. God bless them all.

I was not able because of physical conditions to visit the Bands as I had looked forward to, but through prayer was with you often.

As I could not give you the time I desired in this great work, I felt that I could not continue as your Superintendent another year. May God bless our new Superintendent, and my wish is that each of you will give her your heartiest coöperation.

Your humble servant,

OLIVE HODGE.
