Work of Conference President

1. We recommend that the President travel the Conference, with duties as follows:

2. To hold one quarterly meeting on each charge during the year, unless the work on some of the weaker fields or new fields should so fully take his time and attention that this could not well be done. In such case the holding of such meeting on the strongest fields may be omitted, but this would not release any charge from paying their proportion of the Conference Budget.

3. To spend the time of our annual Camp Meeting at the Meeting, and if necessary in order to perfect arrangements for the Camp Meeting more time is needful to be given to that work, it shall be so devoted.

4. To open in some place or places new work, if possible and feasible.

5. To spend as much time as he may find available in helping to build up the work on some of our weaker fields, such as Stony Creek, Acorn Hill and Burke.

6. The amount of salary to be twenty dollars ($20) per week, and traveling expenses for the year, and have three weeks' vacation.

We, as a Conference, will pray that the gracious blessing of the Lord may rest on our President, giving him health, strength and wisdom, and we will co-operate with him in a united effort to make 1929-1930 the best year in upbuilding results in our history, and to God we will give the glory.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday evening, July 2nd, the Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection met at West Chazy, N. Y., Camp Ground for the first service of its eighty-eighth session. Rev. A. J. Allen, President, was in charge.

"Lead Me Higher"—the opening song—is a prayer and expresses the keynote of the Christian's aspiration. It is also particularly fitting as the prevailing spirit of a Holiness Conference.

President Allen read part of the tenth chapter of the Acts and Rev. E. D. Carpenter, President of the Connectional General Conference, led in a period of prayer. This was an hour of inspiration in fellowship with God. We feel constrained to take as our motto "Emmanuel—God With Us." Following this, sixteen gave testimony to the experimental blessing of the God of grace. Verses of songs added inspiration to the occasion.

Rev. Walter McPherson offered a closing prayer.

The report from the Stony Creek charge was read by Rev. L. M. Hayes.

The names of Rev. J. J. Davison and Miss Diana Ferns were called and their characters passed.

The Conference was adjourned by vote.

Benediction by Rev. Dennis Osgood.

Saturday Afternoon

Devotional Service.—The song opening the meeting was led by Sister Lillian Stevenson. The greater part of the hour was spent in prayer, with Rev. William N. Osgood and Brother Chapman leading. Rev. H. N. Robinson, leader of this service, read a scripture lesson from St. John 15, making appropriate remarks.

Order of the Day.—Memorial service conducted by the Rev. E. D. Carpenter. The service was begun by singing "I Will Sing of My Redeemer." Prayer was offered by Rev. H. R. LaVere. The purpose of this service was to commemorate the precious memory of our Brother Trowbridge, who during this Conference year has passed to his reward.

After a few fitting remarks by Brother Carpenter, Rev. L. M. Hayes spoke to his memory, taking the viewpoint of a pastor of Brother Trowbridge. He spoke of his loyalty, 1st, to his Lord; 2nd, to his church; 3rd, to his pastor. He spoke also of his deep spirituality—a life which spoke a more fitting eulogy than human lips might ever speak.

The second speaker was Mrs. Edith Stevenson, who spoke to his memory for the church. She spoke of him as Paul spoke of Timothy, "Be thou an example." Mention was made of his great sacrifice for God and the church.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

The third speaker was Rev. A. J. Allen, who spoke of him from the standpoint of the Conference. Brother Allen was so touched and affected by the memories which came to him that for a time he refrained from speaking at all. Brother Carpenter spoke very touchingly of his own association with Brother Trowbridge in both the Conference and Camp Meeting work.

Brother Allen then was able to make a few remarks concerning his associations with Brother Trowbridge in the work of the Conference.

The lives of these precious saints of God will still live on although their bodies have gone back to mother earth. God bless the memory of this man.

The closing hymn was chosen and the congregation sang together "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Rev. E. D. Carpenter made the closing prayer.

After service the business of the Conference was completed as follows:

The Committee on Pastoral Relations gave its report, which was adopted as read. See Report No. 7.

Report of the Committee on Apportionment was read and adopted. See Report No. 8.

The Camp Meeting Committee gave its report, which was adopted as read. See Report No. 9.

The Committee on Statistics read its report, which was adopted as read. See Report No. 11.

Item 1, read and adopted.

Item 2, read and motion was made to change the words "male" and "female" to "men" and "women." The motion was lost for want of support.

Item 3, adopted as read.

Item 4, adopted as read.

Item 5, adopted as read.

Item 6, adopted as read.

Item 7, adopted as read. See Report No. 10.

The statistical report from the Mooers church was read to the Conference.

The motion was made that the time for the annual Conference and

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

Camp Meeting be left with the President and his Advisory Board. The motion was carried.

The motion was made and carried that Rev. A. J. Allen preach the opening sermon of Conference Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. L. C. Mattoon, alternate.

The motion was made and carried that the President appoint the Chairmen of the Standing Committees.

Motion was made and supported that the Conference adjourn until the call of the chair.

The benediction was given by Rev. A. J. Allen.

Saturday Evening Service

The song service was led by Mrs. Lillian Stevenson. The preaching service was in charge of the Camp Meeting Evangelist, Rev. Jesse Whitecotton. He used as a foundation for his sermon Amos 6:1. He proceeded to show us some classes of people who are at ease in Zion.

Sunday Morning Meeting

The love feast, the first service of the day, was conducted by Rev. A. J. Allen. It was truly a feast of love. Many of the saints gave testimony to the mighty saving grace. It was a great time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

Preceding the sermon, a duet was given by Miss Mildred and Mr. Hollis Stevenson.

The sermon of the morning was preached by Rev. T. P. Baker, who took for his text Mark 12:30.

Sunday Afternoon

A devotional service at 1:30 was in form of a ring meeting, held in the open space before the tabernacle. It was adjourned to the tabernacle because of the rain. Rev. L. M. Hayes had charge of the service and the service was characterized by much of the presence of the Lord's blessing upon both song and testimony.

Preaching Service.—This service was opened with the usual song service. After a very gracious time of making offerings to the Lord for camp meeting purposes, Rev. Stopp sang a solo. This was followed by a solo by Miss Marion Whitney.

Rev. Jesse Whitecotton was the messenger of God for this occasion. His text was found in Hebrews 2:1. The theme of his sermon was stated as "Soul Drifting."

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Sunday Evening

Young People's Service.—The song service for this meeting was led by Miss Mildred Stevenson, and was followed by a brief season of prayer. Brother Howard Rollman read a short scripture lesson. Miss Vera Mattoon sang a solo. Brother Rollman gave a short but helpful talk, centering his thoughts around the life and activities of young people, showing that there are treasures which young people may have and enjoy that are more lasting and enjoyable than all the treasures of earth. This service was concluded with a quartet composed of Messrs. Hollis and Marshall Stevenson, Rev. Stopp, Rev. Hill and Rev. Rollman. The song given was, "I Want My Life to Tell For Jesus."

Preaching Service.—This service brought to a close a most gracious session of Conference, harmonious and blessed in the Spirit of the Master.

The closing sermon of the Conference was preached by Rev. T. P. Baker, our Connectional Home Missionary Secretary. The special number of song for this service was rendered by the trio composed of Mrs. Edith Stevenson, Miss Florence Baxter and Mrs. Lillian Stevenson. They sang "Jesus Asleep in My Barque."

Rev. Baker chose for his text Hebrews 12:24.

REPORTS

Report No. 1

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

To the members of the Champlain Conference assembled at West Chazy, N. Y., July 2nd, 1929:

Greetings in the name of our adorable Lord and Master. Another year has passed, another milestone in life's work has been passed, and again through the kind providence of the Lord, we meet in our annual feast to talk over the past and to plan for another year's work for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We shall not attempt to give a lengthy address at this time, but will bring to you a report of the work done by your servant. In the accomplishment of the work we have traveled over nine thousand miles by auto and some hundred miles by train, without harm or accident, all praise to our Lord for His care. REPORT OF THE CAMP MEETING COMMITTEE

The Camp Meeting of 1928 went on record as one of the best we have ever had. Rev. Jesse Whitecotton was with us again and was at his very best.

Brother Conley, who was in charge of the singing, proved a great inspiration not only as a singer but by his work at the altar services and by his presence among us. These men worked together so harmoniously and with the co-operation of the pianist and other singers and ministers of the Conference and the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit made success possible.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

The new dining room and kitchen proved a most valuable addition. Brothers Whitecotton and Conley were invited to return another year, but as Brother Conley was unable to give us the date, Brother Erwin Enty, of Templeton, Pa., was secured for song leader during the week of camp meeting.

Report No. 10

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. We heartily endorse our President, Herbert Hoover, in his effort to enforce the law, placing the Eighteenth Amendment on par with all laws.
2. We consider the ever increasing use of tobacco the greatest danger, particularly to the youths of both sexes. Time was when a small majority used the weed. Today, it is considered "keeping up with the times," for females to pattern after males even to the defiling practice of using tobacco. We condemn this along with the boyish bobbed hair, sleeveless and form-exposing, high cut dress.
3. Our attitude toward the use of intoxicating drinks remains the same—war to the death of this body-destroying, soul-cursing traffic.
4. The motion referred to your Committee regarding our attitude towards the New York State Holiness Association: First, we offer to them the righthand of fellowship, as we do to all of God-loving, God-serving bodies. Our relation to them is exactly the same as to any organized Holiness church as body of believers, mainly secondary to the interests of our own Church.
5. We recognize the earnest effort of our retiring President, and shall not soon forget his services among us and pray that the Great Head of the Church may use him in a greater service in the coming days.
6. Accepting the verdict of votes, we welcome our new President and pledge ourselves to co-operate with him to the best of our ability.
7. We recommend that at least once each day we pray for each other as pastors and workers together with Him whom we love.

Signed, H. C. SHARES.

Report No. 2

PLAN OF WORK FOR LOCAL SOCIETIES

We recommend that the following Plan of Work be followed:

1. That each Local Society have some Missionary study or program at each meeting, not only to enlighten our minds, but to inspire our hearts to pray definitely for the missionary work, for without knowledge we cannot have the vision.
2. That each Society make full proof of their missionary zeal by being 100% subscribers to the Wesleyan Missionary, and that a Committee be elected whose duty it shall be to earnestly endeavor to get new subscribers and keep account of renewals.
3. That we shall not forget to send annually $6.00 to the Conference Treasurer for the Southern Mountain Work, same to be forwarded to the General Conference Treasurer, this work being supported by the Woman's Society. Also that ten cents per member be sent to the Conference Treasurer for the running expense of the same.
4. To remember that the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society is not an Aid Society, and money should be used for Missionary work, and no money is to be paid out without a vote of the Society.
5. It is most important that careful attention be given the filling out of two Statistical Reports which will be sent to each Society annually. One is to be filled out and given to the Statistical Committee at the beginning of the Conference, the other to be retained by the Delegate and later read to the Local Society. Receipts and disbursements must be made to balance before sending to the Conference.
6. That in order to get credit in our Treasurer's Report for money received during the year, all money or receipts must be sent to the Treasurer and must be in her hands not later than one week before Conference convenes.
7. Also that all Missionary Boxes or furnishings for Camp Ground or Houghton Dormitory be given proper credit; but not in the column with cash receipts and disbursements.
8. That Thank Offering Boxes having been so great a help and blessing to some Societies, we recommend that they be used in each Local Society. Same may be obtained from Mrs. Mabel Perrine, 301 Lathrop St., Lansing, Mich., for 2 cents each.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

9. That as the Conventions have been a source of inspiration and help to others, we recommend that we have at least one as a Conference or in Districts as seems most feasible, and that a leader or leaders be elected to take charge of the same.

10. Also that we keep in mind the furnishing of the bed in the Houghton Dormitory by each Local Society. Also the sending of supplies to the Missionary fields, such as bandages, religious books, pictures or calendars.

11. That the Plan of Work which has been adopted by the Conference Society shall be read and kept in mind as a sort of guide during the year.

12. That as Local Societies or individuals we can some fruit or vegetables to help out at the Boarding House in feeding the people at Conference and Camp Meeting.

Signed by the Committee,

MRS. EVA ALLEN,
MRS. ROSE MILLER,
MRS. LETTIE BARBER.
