President's report

On September thirteenth I organized the Russellville Church.

I held the first and second rounds of quarterly meetings. There was always a question whether I would be able to hold the fourth due to gas rationing. I had considered attempting to get supplemental gas rations but when time came to start I was suffering from a protracted case of flu which was followed by a long seige of arthritis. I could not start on time and to have held all quarterly meetings on the fourth round would have necessitated holding some on week days which I finally gave up.

Frank. Betzer.

On July seventeenth I received the transfer of Rev. Kathloen Kelsven from the Dakota Conference. She is an elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Frank Betzer.

We further recommend that we strive for a greater degree of reverence in our places of worship, and that parents give more attention to proper control of the conduct of their children and young people while in the house of God.

Resolutions concerning Church extension

Whereas, the Oregon Conference has been increasingly conscious of the great need and the larger opportunity for Missionary labors within the home boundaries, and the financial limitations arising therefrom, and,

Whereas, our neighbors on the coast, the California Conference doubtless feels the same sense of limitations,

Be it RESOLVED, that the Oregon Conference, through the Missionary Board invite the California Conference to participate in a mutual plan whereby Extension operations may be carried on within the Conference through the employment of a full time Missionary Evangelist, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the selection of worker, the matter of salary, time spent in each conference and other details be worked out by the respective Missionary Boards.

Note: Resolution adopted by the Oregon Conference and Rev. H.K. Sheets requested to preset same to the California Conference.

As a matter of information Rev. D.H. Scott has offered his service to the conference in these Missionary labors and would be free to serve at the rise of the 1944 Conference.

Frank Betzer, Chairman.

7. That each society select a solicitor for the Wesleyan Missionary.
