JOURNAL OF DAILY PROCEEDINGS

The one-hundred-thirteenth session of the Iowa Annual Conference was called to order on the camp grounds at Charles City, Iowa, Monday, August 15, 1966 at 8:30 a.m. by the President, Rev. Donald D. Calhoun.

OPENING PRAYER was offered by the Conference President, Rev. Donald D. Calhoun.

PRAYER — Rev. Albert R. Fookes, Conference Vice President, was asked to lead in prayer, especially for God's blessing in our conference business, and upon the one who was to bring the Conference Sermon, and upon the communion service.

CONFERENCE SERMON — Rev. Donald D. Calhoun, Conference President, presented Rev. Kenneth G. Rumppe who delivered the Conference Sermon. To begin with Rev. Rumppe spoke to the point of some questions with which he had had to come to grips in his ministry. How should God's property be cared for? Can God be glorified, and the church deserve the respect of the community as ours is cared for? How long has it been since you have studied your Discipline? Here can be found guide-lines for personal standards, duties to new converts and new members. He drew attention to the fact that there is a difference between destructive and constructive criticism. He read from Galatians chapter 6, and pointed out that we should cultivate a proper attitude toward the erring, and exercise proper care lest we err. He asked, Will your life and ministry stand observation? He exhorted to real prayer. He asked how we testify. Do we testify generally, or to definite experience? He exhorted to an infilling with the Holy Spirit. He stated that we will either keep the blessing of God, or there is no use keeping on. He challenged us with the fact that opportunities are as great as ever, but to make the best of them we need God's best. He stated that every boy and girl in our church ought to have the privilege of seeing in his own church the Holy Spirit come when they can say "This is it."

CONFERENCE COMMUNION was in charge of Rev. Wm. S. Hotchkiss, assisted by Rev. Albert R. Fookes, Rev. Paul R. Davis, Rev. James W. Slye, Rev. A. L. Nabholz, Rev. H. F. Clark, Rev. G. M. Hubby, Rev. Merger with the Pilgrim Holiness Church was voted at the General Conference by a good majority, and is being handed down to the Conferences, and then to the churches. Doug Sharpe then led the congregation in singing "Such Love." Former students sang "Onward Miltonvale." Doug Sharpe led in singing "He Keeps Me Singing." Announcements were made by Rev. Stanley D. Gravett, who also introduced Harold Budensiek, Academic Dean of Miltonvale Wesleyan College, who spoke on "Forward Thrust." He mentioned the areas of dormitory, accreditation, library, campus center and faculty. Rev. Donald D. Calhoun made announcements concerning the youth after glow, and the Ordination Service. He also introduced Jack Carlson who will be taking up work at Miltonvale Wesleyan College as Dean of Students and Physical Education instructor. Jack stressed the importance of this work as well as missionary work. He spoke of his gratitude for God's blessing during camp, and the overwhelming feeling of gratitude to be on the same side as those on the platform Monday night at the great missionary service. He stated, "These things I know:" 1. That God has called me to be his man. He challenged all who wanted to find a thrill, a purpose, to sell out to God. 2. That God has called me to Miltonvale Wesleyan College. 3. That there is a job for me at Miltonvale Wesleyan College. My confidence is in God. 4. The responsibility of dealing with the most precious thing God has given you — your children. 5. That it does pay to sell out to God. 6. I anticipate three questions from the students — Who am I? What am I doing here? Where am I going? These questions should be answered at Miltonvale Wesleyan College. 7. That Miltonvale Wesleyan College has problems — housing, academic, financial. The Christian school is the life-blood of our church. 8. That we should not expect our youth to accept a second-rate education. The part of me that is the most to me was neglected at the state school. 9. That we are pulling in many directions — local, conference, missions, education, church extension, etc. As each becomes stronger, all become stronger. Two types of supporting — attitude, knowledge assisting this arm of the church. Action — heart first, money follows. 10. Matthew 7:20 "By their fruits ye shall know them." What had been added at Miltonvale Wesleyan College was what impressed me while at State College of Iowa. I count it a privilege and honor to go to Miltonvale Wesleyan College to represent God. Duane Akeright sang "His Will I Must Do." Dick Daake, a student at Miltonvale Wesleyan College this past year, spoke concerning Miltonvale Wesleyan College and himself, and what Miltonvale Wesleyan College can do for other youth. Donna Filmore, a student of Miltonvale Wesleyan College, spoke concerning what Miltonvale Wesleyan College has meant to her. The warmth of the faculty. No lines to be drawn as to the activities in which she could participate, for in our schools, all activities are wholesome. Ability to transfer to other schools. Rev. Donald D. Calhoun, Conference President, spoke relative to funds for Conference promotion of Miltonvale Wesleyan College Scholarship. In the offering that which is received in pledges and envelopes to go to the scholarship fund, and the loose offering to conference promotion. He offered the prayer for the offering. Harold Budensiek introduced his wife. He then mentioned some of the events of significance during the coming school year. He introduced Rev. Paul R. Huffman, Conference Wesleyan Youth President, who spoke of our support of Miltonvale Wesleyan College. He urged all our youth wherever they attend school to come back and work among us. He encouraged churches to start a scholarship fund to assist youth to attend Miltonvale Wesleyan College, then encourage them to come back to serve in the area of the local church. He read from Colossians 1:25 "Whereof I am made a minister" Whom we preach — pulpit ministry. Teaching, striving according to his working. Your mission is to glorify God. Preach the word. Your message — the word, the cross, your master — Jesus Christ. Paul refers to himself as a servant, a slave who belongs to another. He speaks of obedience and complete surrender. Your mind — an able mind is the gift of God. Keep your mind sharp, growing. You are allowed to relax at times, Your manners — be a Christian gentleman at all times. Be gracious at all times. Be honest. Serve and lead with understanding. Do your best to minister to the entire congregation. Your methods — no violent uprooting of old patterns. Gain the confidence of the people and you can do most anything. Have an honest regret for the wayward. Show the tenderness of Christ toward those who have disappointed you. Keep confidences. Your family — don't get too involved with others to the detriment of your own. Your fame — your future is before you. You are not concerned about fame, but about God. Your fortune — greater fortune than a man with a great bank account. Love, respect, support of your people. Any time a man becomes more concerned about his fortune than his calling he has become nothing more than a sounding gong. The Wesleyan Methodist Church doesn't guarantee you a church, an adequate salary, a place to preach, but the highest of callings, an Elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Report No. 1CONFERENCE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the 113th session of the Iowa Annual Conference:

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

I give witness today of His saving and sanctifying power.

Each conference year seems to have its peculiar problems and changes, but how grateful I am that we are serving one who is the same yesterday, today and forever.

In this report I would like to give a view of the conference work under several various headings.

SPIRITUAL TREND

The revival meeting emphasis and evangelistic outreach of our churches has been most encouraging. I am confident that without exception, as a conference, we are presenting the message of salvation through the blood of Christ and the message of heart purity by the infilling of the Holy Spirit from our pulpits.

There does appear, however, to be a gap between our message and the actual reaching of the souls who are living in sin. Let us hold fast our doctrine, but let us also pray that the Holy Spirit will give us direction as to how to implement our message.

PIONEER PROJECTS

Soon after conference last year, Rev. and Mrs. Albert Fookes moved to Burnsville, Minnesota and started services in the Vista View Elementary School. A number of new people have already been contacted through this new project. A lovely parsonage property has been purchased. We are continuing our investigation of various lands in an endeavor to find a piece of property suitable for a church building.

Mrs. Fookes has worked during the year to assist with the family support. We thank God for the sacrificial labors of our dedicated pastors.

Another step of progress was taken last year in our church extension program by the St. Paul Minnehaha Church assuming self-support. At the present time, Burnsville, Sioux City, and Waseca are the only new works receiving conference subsistance.

The Conference Church Extension Board has designated Marshalltown, Iowa as the project for the 1966-67 year. A parsonage and five extra lots have already been purchased in preparation for this project. It is our plan to send a pastor to this new field following this conference session. The continued and increasing support of all of our conference people has made the plans for this new project possible. The Marshalltown project so closely following the Burnsville project is a tremendous step of faith, but we are confident that we can accept the challenge.

BUILDING PROJECTS

The following building projects have been completed during the last year: Waite Park, a beautiful new three-story educational unit,

Independence, a four bedroom parsonage,

Cedar Rapids, a new stone church building with wall-to-wall carpeting and air conditioning,

Albaton, an $11,000.00 educational and fellowship building dedicated debt-free, and Anoka, a parsonage and educational unit.

CONFERENCE FUNDS

I would like to express sincere appreciation to the Churches for their financial support in raising the conference and general budget items. In some cases this has been accomplished by real sacrifice on the part of the local Church. The conference funds are in good financial condition.

The Conference Revolving Fund now stands at $45,717.40, an all time high. Of this amount, $10,690.30 is invested in Wesleyan Investment Foundation for reserve funds and $24,724.82 is loaned to church extension projects. The balance is on hand to be loaned for present church extension works. The additional loans this past year reflect the desire of our people to have their money used for church extension work.

MARENGO CHURCH

For several years our conference has endeavored to renew the Marengo church work without success. No services have been held at the church for the last two years, therefore, it is my recommendation that the Marengo Church be declared disbanded and the property disposed of by the conference trustees.

PASTORAL SHORTAGE

The shortage of pastors which has long affected other denominations is now affecting our Wesleyan Methodist Conferences as well. In our own conference some of the shortage has been precipitated by our energetic church extension program. We have used a large number of our own experienced pastors in the pioneer works of our conference. Of course, we would not want to curb our church extension work, therefore, it may be necessary for us to merge smaller churches in some cases and to provide circuits in other cases to make the best use of the valuable time of our men called of God to preach the gospel.

DIRECTOR OF C.Y.C. REPORT

We thank the Lord for the help and strength that He has abundantly given us in behalf of our responsibility with the C.Y.C. work of our Conference. We are happy to report an increased interest in the C.Y.C. program of our Denomination by our Local Churches as evidenced by a greater number participating in the program. We trust that in the future others will be adopting this youth program in their Local Church as we feel it will pay dividends for Christ.

The C.Y.C. Camp held July 4-8, 1966 was blessed of the Lord and many children and youth found spiritual help at an altar of Prayer. Ninety three campers and about forty workers registered and were blessed by the activities that took place. Rev. Lowell Stoez, our Evangelist, brought fitting sermons that reached the youth on their level and God blessed with many seeking God each evening. We are thankful for the contribution each worker made to the success of the Camp and the upbuilding of God's Kingdom through the salvation of precious souls. How happy we were for the many boys and girls that came forward at the invitation to dedicate their lives to God for service on the mission field. We look forward to the time in the future, should the Lord tarry, that these precious youth will take their place as pastors, missionaries and spirit filled laymen in the Church of Jesus Christ.

We have appreciated having the opportunity of service in this capacity for the past three years and now that the Lord has opened the door to missionary service in Colombia South America we pray the Lord's blessing on the one who will be elected to carry on this responsibility.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF EVANGELISM

Paul, the Evangelist, advised Timothy, the Pastor, "Do the work of an Evangelist." Even the word "Christian" connotes Evangelism. We preach not an ideology, vain philosophy or even a religion, we preach a person — the Lord Jesus Christ. The Evangelist Paul said with conviction, "I know nothing among you save Jesus Christ and him crucified." Again this great preacher uttered with a consuming passion, "Woe is me if I preach not the gospel." The first words preached by John the Baptist were, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." The first stirring words of the Evangelist Peter were, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." The first sermon Christ thundered forth, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." May this consuming fire burn in our breasts.

Your Secretary of Evangelism has provided articles for the "Evangel" and sermon material for those pastors wanting them.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Lowell D. Stoesz

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS REPORT

1. The following memorial to the Conference was referred to the Committee: "To the Iowa-Minnesota Conference to be held on August 15, 16, 17, 1966

WHEREAS: Many pastors and laymen of our conference feel that our summer camp schedule is too full.

WHEREAS: The leaders of our camps are finding it increasingly difficult to staff these camps.

I would like to submit the following memorial:

THAT the Iowa Conference conduct Camp WeJuHi and C.Y.C. camp at Charles City, Iowa, beginning in the year 1967, simultaneously.

THAT this camp be known as "Camp Budensiek" (in honor of the late Rev. Clarence Budensiek).

THAT the Camp known as "Camp Budensiek" be directed by a committee composed of the Sunday School Secretary, the C. Y. C. Director and the Conference President of Wesleyan Youth, all officers of the Iowa Conference.

THAT the camp convene on the first full week in July.

THAT all activities relative to the use of the grounds be under the control of the Camp Meeting Board.

Respectfully submitted,
Albert R. Fookes."

WE RECOMMEND THE FOLLOWING:

Because of the lack of proper facilities, and the different needs of the two age groups, that this memorial be rejected.

2. We recommend that Standing Rule XIII and XXX be combined into one, and be changed to read as follows, and to be Standing Rule XIII:

Resolved: That Sunday School shall be held each Sunday of Conference and Camp meeting under the direction of the Sunday School Board. That the Sunday School Secretary be responsible to report to the Annual Conference. That the C. Y. C. Director be a member of the Sunday School Board.

3. Resolved: that the Conference provide for a Pastoral Relations Committee one year in advance, with power to convene that committee for work on Friday and Saturday of Camp Meeting, prior to the opening of conference.

Report No. 3WMS PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the members of the sixty third annual session of the Iowa Conference Woman's Missionary Society gathered together at Charles City Campground on the 15th day of August, 1966; Greetings in the name of the Lord of Harvest before whom we will all stand one day to give an account not of a organization but of our own personal stewardship.

We do give hearty praise to God that the goal set last year has been met. The entire support of $3,600 for Miss Alice Davis has been paid, as was the field support of $1,200 for Miss Alma Aldinger. Truly this is an answer to prayer!

Mr. Paul Dekker and Miss Esther Smeenge toured our conference January 4-16, 1966. Their challenging message was well received in most of the churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver from the Hephzibah Children's Home held eleven services in the conference April 17-24. A total of $509.29 was raised and the Home was able to purchase the following with the money: a clothes dryer, three vacuum sweepers and bedspreads for two of the children's cottages.

The conference was well represented at the Area Missionary Convention held at Miltonvale, Kansas, September 14-16, 1965.

Several years ago the Lord gave me the assurance that we as a conference would "Send forth laborers" and today we have Miss Alice Davis representing us in Colombia. Very soon the Rev. and Mrs. Don Kinde and family will go to Africa and the Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell Cotrone and Gregory will go to Colombia. These are our people and they need our financial support, and most of all our prayer support. We dare not fail them!

The WMS theme is "Fruit Unto Life Eternal." May each of us be fruitful wherever we are. As each one does his part the Kingdom of God will be advanced.

May God continue to bless and direct the work of the WMS in the Iowa Conference.

Maxine Freiheit, president

Five Bands have been placed on the Honor Roll this year with Charles City selected as the Top Band of the Year.

$326.03 was received for the support of Matthew Woolsey.

It was my privilege to attend the General Conference session on the campus of Houghton College this year as YMWB Delegate and Missionary - Elect to Colombia, South America.

As we step from the Superintendency at this time our work broadens and our responsibilities become greater.

We have enjoyed the work of the YMWB and have appreciated the fine cooperation of the local superintendents. We trust the Iowa Conference will reach even greater heights in the quadrennium that lies ahead.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Mitchell Cotrone

Report No. 3
W. Y. CONFERENCE PRESIDENT'S REPORT
1965 — 1966

Greetings to the one hundred and thirteenth session of the Iowa Conference. It is a privilege to represent this auxiliary of the church and to bring this report.

Now at the close of the Conference year we thank each one; youth, layman, pastor for your continued support and cooperation in the Conference Wesleyan Youth program.

As a pastor we found it difficult to personally visit each local. However, we had the privilege of speaking in five of the seven districts during a rally. We also visited four local organizations.

Along with our visitation we spent one full day at C.Y.C. Camp. We had the privilege of extending a welcome to all the graduates of the C.Y.C. into the Wesleyan Youth. We also visited the WeJuHi Camp for the banquet and evening service.

Some of our further activities:

Took the Rudd Quiz Team to Louisville Convention.

Attended General Conference Session as Wesleyan Youth delegate.

Called two executive youth council meetings: Albert Lea — Fall, Waseca — Spring.

By virtue of office met twice with the Camp Board.

Attended Hospitality Days at Miltonvale College. Made contact with Iowa-Minnesota Students while on campus.

I am happy to report all projects and missionary endeavors completed.

May the Lord richly bless each one as we work together to build Wesleyan Youth.

Respectfully submitted,
 Rev. Paul R. Huffman,
 Wesleyan Youth President

SOUTH MINNESOTA DISTRICT LEADER'S REPORT

A Fall rally was held October 16 at Silver Lake Park in Rochester. Outdoor activities were planned for the afternoon. A picnic supper and devotional time closed the day's activities.

A February rally drew many favorable comments from the group of over 100 youth who participated. Facilities of the Southern School of Agriculture in Waseca were ideally suited to the occasion. The youth enjoyed two hours of activities in the gymnasium and indoor swimming pool after which a delicious ham dinner was served at the school cafeteria. The youth heartily participated in a singspiration and Rev. Fookes gave an excellent devotional talk.

We planned for a rally in May until illness of the speaker made it necessary to cancel this service. Because of many school year-end activities we were unable to schedule another rally.

Respectfully submitted,
V. C. Anderson,
District Leader

SOUTH IOWA DISTRICTIOWA CONFERENCE WESLEYAN YOUTH*1965 - 1966

The only district rally held this year was during January at the Des Moines Church. The total number present was 52 with the largest number from Des Moines. Special numbers in song and reports on the youth group activities was presented from each of the three youth groups. A special report was given by Carol Lepper of Des Moines concerning the Wesleyan Youth Convention at Louisville, Kentucky. Rev. Paul Huffman was our rally speaker. Rev. Huffman brought to us the goals of the Conference Wesleyan Youth and encouraged active participation in the total program. The text for the message was from Romans 12:1. We were given a very clear picture of the meaning of the words of Paul, "A living sacrifice." Following the rally a time of fellowship and refreshment was provided by the host church.

Respectfully submitted,
Jerome Vonderheide,
District Leader

Report No. 6

WATERLOO DISTRICT REPORT

The activities of the Waterloo District this year included a rally and singspiration at the Falls Avenue Church with the election of officers for the coming year. A singspiration was held at the LaPorte City Church also.

A Junior-Senior banquet was held at the Sveden House in Waterloo. David Mast acted as Master of Ceremonies with Rev. Walter Rice as the guest speaker.

Respectfully submitted,
Amy Jo Huffman

CAMP WeJuHi REPORT

Camp WeJuHi was held on the Campgrounds July 11-15, 1966, with 43 campers and 18 workers. The theme used this year was "Vessels of Value", a repeat theme from several years ago.

Rev. Larry Hughes of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was the evangelist. A number of the campers sought help at the altar.

A missions project was chosen by the camp council and over $50.00 was raised for "Operation Kinde". This was the largest for projects ever raised in WeJuHi.

Respectfully submitted,
Earl Miller, Director

Report No. 8

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

We recommend the following editorial changes in the Standing Rules.

III. 5. Inserting of the words "Quarterly Statement" instead of Treasurer's Guide.

IV. 1. Inserting of the words "Conference Youth President" between the words Conference President and Vice President.

V. 3. The change of the words "District Officers" to "District Leaders".

VI. 2. The adding of the Emily and Burnsville churches to the Twin City District and deleting the North Minnesota District.

We recommend that VI. 1. be changed to read that the District Leaders be nominated at a district rally held for that purpose during the last quarter of the conference year, said nominations to be sent to the Conference President.

Respectfully submitted,
Rosemary Berg
Don Hermann
Rev. Paul L. Davis
Rev. Earl Miller

MIDWEST YOUTH CAMP RETREAT

Midwest Youth Camp was held June 20th through 25th, 1966 at Lake Koronis Assembly Grounds, Payneville, Minnesota. The evangelist this year was Dale Campbell, current pastor of Miltonvale Wesleyan College Church.

Considering the fact that the Camp immediately followed General Conference, we felt the enrollment was quite encouraging. There were several seekers in both Midwest and Little Midwest Camp. Finally, the Camp more than paid its expenses. We are looking forward to a larger camp next year, June 19th through 24th, 1967. Our workers are yet unscheduled.

Respectfully submitted,
Yorton Clark, Midwest Board President
