The seventy-eighth annual session of the Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection of America convened at Hague, N. Y., April 22, 1919, at 7:30 P. M.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Rev. E. D. Carpenter. Songs, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart" and "Saved by the Blood," were sung. Prayer was offered by Rev. C. E. Hill.

Hearty welcome was extended to the members and friends of the Conference by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Allen.

Brief remarks were made by the President. A Scripture lesson was read from St. John's Gospel, first chapter. A duet, "I Am a Pilgrim," was sung by Mrs. Lillian and Mrs. George Stevenson.

The message was given by Rev. F. H. Wright, from the words found in John 5:36. First, he spoke of the building of the Church and the things that had gone down in history, and our business was to bear testimony to Jesus Christ, and that our lives should not be a dry desert, but that we should receive showers of blessings; and that we, like John of old, preach the Word of God; that Jesus spoke openly, and that a true Christian's life was always open to inspection; that God's Word would stand all the doubts brought against it. The message was the key-note of victory.

Benediction by Rev. J. S. Willett.

The President at this time gave a heart-stirring talk.

Motion was made and carried to adjourn.

Benediction by C. L. Hill.

Wednesday Afternoon Meeting.

The roll was called, to which fourteen elders, five licentiates and fifteen delegates answered to their names.

The minutes of the earlier session were read and approved.

The Committee to consider changing the time of holding Conference reported. The same was ordered back to the Conference.

Prof. J. S. Luckey was introduced at this time and made a few brief remarks. He said he had come to us full of inspiration; that the Forward Movement was advancing as never before.

A Resolution was read by Rev. W. N. Osgood, from Brookdale and Norfolk, which was referred to the Committee on Pastoral Relations.

The order of the day having arrived, the election of delegates to the General Conference was taken up. I. L. Prouty and E. L. Elliott were appointed tellers to prepare ballots, and F. H. Wright and H. S. Hill were appointed tellers to distribute the ballots.

Ministerial delegates were elected as follows: Rev. E. D. Carpenter and Rev. E. L. Elliott. Rev. A. J. Allen was elected as reserve delegate. Lay delegates were elected as follows: I. L. Prouty and Robert Keys. Mrs. Lillian Stevenson was elected as reserve delegate.

It being time, Conference gave way to the order of the day.

The trio sang "Is Your All Upon the Altar?" Acts 7:22-35 was read as a Scripture lesson. Rev. J. S. Willett offered prayer, after which he brought the message from the 7th chapter of Acts, 22nd verse. Subject, The Character of Moses. When God blesses us He does it that we may bless others. Moses' dealings was with two classes of people. The fiery darts of the devil are often helpful to our development. Character was formed when the child was quite young. No gift will do if God wants you. God did not create us for sunshine alone, but for storm. We will not have to change pilots when we near the eternal shore. God always deals with the individual. Fathers and mothers should teach the children to love the Bible characters. The progress of the race depends upon our grip upon the truth.

The order of service being changed, Rev. C. E. Hill was called to the chair.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

The name of E. D. Carpenter was called and character passed.

Rev. W. N. Osgood was the preacher of the evening, bringing a good message from the 8th chapter of John, 36th verse. While Christ wanted to set us free from the power of the Devil, who is the greatest slave-holder ever known; while Satan was always putting out poison, Christ had a remedy that would cure the sin-sick soul. At the close of this message Brother J. S. Willett exhorted the people to forsake their evil ways and to seek God while the door of mercy was open.

This proved to be a gracious service. The saints of God were refreshed, and the hearts of the unsaved touched.

Benediction by E. D. Carpenter.

Thursday Morning Meeting.

Rev. F. E. Wood was the leader of the devotional service. Songs were sung and a number of prayers were offered. This was a very profitable service.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

---

Vice-President of Conference, Rev. C. E. Hill.

Secretary of Conference, Rev. O. G. Wyman.

Treasurer of Conference, Rev. A. J. Allen.

Conference Trustee, Norman W. Baxter (to succeed himself).

Conference Sunday School Secretary, Rev. H. S. Hill.

Member of Committee on Itineracy and Orders, Rev. E. D. Carpenter (to succeed himself).

Committee on Presidency—Rev. D. W. Summers, Rev. E. L. Elliott, Rev. F. H. Wright, Ministers; T. L. Prouty, Leroy Stafford, Laymen.

Tithing Secretary, Rev. W. F. Lewis.

It was voted that the President should nominate the Advisory Board.

The Committee on Missionary Board was left for the President to nominate. The following were elected: E. L. Elliott, Rev. F. H. Wright, and the President of the W. H. & F. M. Society.

Order of the day having arrived, Prof. J. S. Luckey invited those who had attended Houghton Seminary to please come forward, and sixteen took their seats on the platform. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung, while the Spirit was upon our hearts. Sister Alice Hampe gave a very encouraging talk on the great work that is being done, not only on education, but the spiritual help the student receives in the students' prayer meeting. She said that prayer circles and watch meetings are held, and all are helpful to the student's spiritual life.

Professor Luckey said the school the past year had been run on a cash basis, and that it seemed the spirit of all to keep on, and that we should increase our borders as Wesleyan Methodists, and that we must hold up the name of Jesus whereby men must be saved. If we are to bear fruit, there must be a tree in which we all can be a part.

J. S. Willett then spoke in behalf of the school. At the close of his remarks $35.00 in money was raised to pay for five student chairs to be used in the theological room.

The Houghton Song was sung by the Houghton Alumni and students.

---

Thursday Afternoon Meeting.

Richard Palmer led the devotional service. The Holy Spirit was upon the people while they sang and prayed.

The roll was called, 22 elders, 3 licentiates and 16 delegates responding.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Sunday School Secretary made his report. The same was accepted. See report No. 4.

Professor J. S. Luckey presented certificates to a class that belong to the Sunday School at Forestdale, Vt.

Rev. E. L. Elliott made some very interesting remarks in behalf of the Sunday School work and the Conventions that have been held in the Northern District.

F. H. Wright then spoke of the Sunday School; that the center of the task is the conversion of souls; that it calls for the best there is in us; there is no one method that will prove the best success in every case.

Motion was made and carried that the Conference be held about the same time as usual.

The order of the day now arrived. Song, "God Will Take Care of You," was sung. Rev. L. M. Hayes offered prayer. Song, "Out of Egypt into Canaan," was sung by the trio. Rev. J. S. Willett preached from Acts 7:22, continuing his remarks from the one given Wednesday afternoon. There is nothing greater in history than the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage, the crossing of the Red Sea and the River Jordan. The life of the Israelite depended upon the blood over the door. No man or woman will ever get to Heaven without the shedding of blood. We must have the blood of Jesus applied to our hearts. We are slaves and in bondage until the work is done. God has various means to bring men into the truth and lead them to Himself. When a man is converted he crosses the boundary line from Hell to Heaven.

Conference resumed business at this time.

Richard Palmer asked to be excused from the rest of the Conference session. The request was granted.

Rev. W. F. Lewis, in behalf of the Horicon Wesleyan Church, gave the Champlain Conference an invitation to hold its next annual session in the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Horicon, N. Y. The invitation was unanimously accepted. We ask that the Connectional Board give us the fourth Tuesday in April, 1920, at 7:30 P. M.

The names of K. F. Schaubhuth, A. E. Moses, T. A. Moses, and S. C. Fox were called and their characters passed.

Moved and supported to adjourn.

Benediction by E. L. Elliott.

Thursday Evening Meeting.

Songs were sung, and Mrs. Anna Elliott and Rev. E. Trowbridge offered prayer. The power of God was present in this meeting. A Scripture lesson was read from 1 Kings, 19th chapter. The message of the evening was brought by Rev. L. M. Hayes, from these words, "What doest thou here, Elijah?" This great question was asked by the Almighty. God has a right to question His own. The people in Elijah's time worshiped many gods, but none of them could hear or speak. God wanted to make known His power unto the people. Elijah could call upon his God and the fire would fall. God has a purpose in every life, and always reveals His plan unto them concerning what He wants them to do. People get out of God's plan unless they live close to Him. When one is at their best is when they are right with God. People that are not right with God are like a bird with a broken wing. Carnality is the greatest hindrance to efficiency.

The altar call was given, and three seekers came forward and gave testimony that they found what they sought. The Spirit of God moved mightily upon the hearts of the people. This proved to be a gracious service, where many received help.

Benediction by Brother Willett.

Friday Morning Meeting.

Rev. E. Trowbridge had charge of the praise and prayer service. A Scripture lesson was read from the 6th chapter of Ephesians. A number of heartfelt prayers were offered. This was a precious season. The Lord came down our hearts to greet and glory crowned the mercy seat.

The time having arrived, the Connectional Agent spoke in behalf of the Connectional interests. He said he was glad to meet with the Conference again; that the Connection had advanced in many ways in the year 1918, and for greater success there must come a deepening in all our lives. The Lord would then make an advancement. He believed we are living in the last days; that Jesus may come at any time; we should be watching and ready.

The President made some remarks, saying he had seen many things to encourage him since he came into this Conference, and many changes had taken place.

Order of the day having arrived, J. S. Willett offered prayer and continued the subject of the life of Moses, speaking from the words of Scripture found in Exodus 33:11, how the Lord spoke unto Moses face to face. In this he reached one of the greatest events of his life. It was a great honor to Moses to be permitted to give the laws of God. He climbed some very high and rugged mountains and received great blessings because He was willing to climb. God's people always received unexpected help when they were obedient. There is no objective but what we are able to reach through God. If we do our part God will always do His. He is just as able to part the Red Sea as ever. We can have an experience that is worth more than gold. Every one must settle his own destiny, whether they will be saved or lost.

At the close of this helpful talk Mrs. George and Lillian Stevenson sang a duet.

The names of H. S. Hill, C. C. Hill and G. D. Jock were called and characters passed.

It was voted that the Conference pay the Wesleyan Church at Corinth, N. Y., the sum of $200.00 to help in building a parsonage, this amount to be paid as the last $200.00 to complete the building.

It was voted that the Conference pay $200.00 toward a new church at Norfolk, the conditions to be the same as those applying to Corinth parsonage.

The name of F. H. Wright was called and character passed.

It was moved and supported to adjourn.

Benediction by W. F. Lewis.

Friday Evening Meeting.

This was a missionary meeting. See the Secretary's and Treasurer's report (Report No. 12.)

Saturday Morning Meeting.

The roll was called, to which 15 elders, 3 licentiates and 16 delegates responded to the call of their names.

The minutes of the last session were read and the same were approved.

A partial report by the Committee on Resolutions was read. The same was approved. See Resolution No. 2.

Conference gave way to the order of the day, it being the Memorial Service. Rev. C. E. Hill was in charge. This service was held in honor of the late Rev. F. L. Wright and Rev. J. L. Benton. Brother Carpenter offered a fervent and heart-touching prayer in behalf of the bereaved families of these godly men that had been taken from us and gone to their reward. The Scripture lesson read was from 2 Corinthians 5th chapter. Song, "Abide With Me," was sung.

Rev. C. E. Hill spoke of Brother Wright, their acquaintance and work and fellowship together, and of the way Brother Wright always stood by the Discipline and the Word of God.

Rev. F. E. Wood spoke of the life and good work of Brother Wright, their labors together in a seven weeks' meeting, and of staying in his home and how their hearts were knit together in holy fellowship.

O. G. Wyman spoke of the good work that Brother Wright did while he was in Plattsburg, and the help he rendered in the church at Cadyville; that a good man had gone home to be with God.

C. E. Hill spoke in behalf of J. L. Benton, of his strong character, a man of strong convictions. In their labors together their fellowship was pleasant.

E. D. Carpenter was the next to speak of Brother Benton; how his hand was among the others that was laid upon his head when he was ordained, and that he was a kind, congenial man in the home.

O. G. Wyman spoke of Brother Benton, saying he was the first Wesleyan preacher he ever met with, and it was through this godly man that he was a Wesleyan; that he wanted to fill the place Brother Benton left vacant as far as he was able to.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung by some with moist eyes and sad hearts. But thank God we are not as those who have no hope. We expect to meet again in the great resurrection morn.

Conference again resumed work.

The other part of the report of the Committee on Resolutions was taken up and accepted, and ordered to be read by the Committee Sunday morning. See Resolution No. 3.

---

The names of W. F. Lewis, E. Trowbridge, J. F. Wright were called and their characters passed. Some remarks were made concerning the faithful work Brother Wright had done the past Conference year.

Closed by limitation. Benediction by C. E. Hill.

Saturday Afternoon Meeting.

C. A. Heath had charge of the devotional service. Song, "Jesus is All the World to Me," was sung. Prayer by C. A. Heath.

Roll was called and 15 elders, 3 licentiates and 14 delegates answered to the call of their names.

Minutes of the forenoon session were read and accepted, after a slight correction.

The names of W. N. Osgood, G. N. Wyher, O. G. Wyman, L. M. Hayes, C. L. Hill, and D. W. Summers were called and their characters passed.

The Conference Treasurer made his annual report. The same was adopted. See report No. 9.

The Conference Tithing Secretary made his annual report, and the same was approved. See Report No. 10.

The Committee on Statistics made their report, and the same was adopted. See Report No. 11.

The order of the day having arrived, song, "He Rolled the Sea Away," was sung. Prayer by J. S. Willett. The trio sang "Amen to Jesus." Mrs. Lillian Stevenson gave a burning exhortation from a full heart. The subject, "Moses Talking Face to Face With God," was continued by J. S. Willett. No man will lose out if he continues to pray. Moses was willing to work out God's plan. It don't take the devil long to finish his work when fear possesses the soul. We should always be ready to stay or go. There are times when we cannot be still; we must let the truth be known. We ought to seek the truth of God, as bread on which our hearts should be fed. Prayer brings down blessings. There is nothing that will sweeten the life like God's presence. At the close of this message seventeen young people came forward to make their consecration to go or stay wherever the Lord wants them. Prayers were offered. Song, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," was sung. This proved a very gracious service.

The order of service being changed, Professor J. S. Luckey made some interesting remarks, speaking of the advancement being made in the Champlain Conference and others.

---

Moved and supported that it be left with the President to engage a speaker for the afternoons of next year's session.

It was voted that the President appoint the Chairman of the different Committees.

The Secretary of the W. H. & F. M. Society made their annual report. See Report No. 12.

The Treasurer of the W. H. & F. M. Society made her report. See Report No. 13.

A letter was read from Sister C. C. Hill. At the close of reading, Brother A. J. Allen offered prayer in behalf of Brother and Sister Hill.

Minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

Moved and supported to adjourn.

Benediction by G. N. Wyher.

Saturday Night Meeting.

The devotional service was in charge of O. G. Wyman. Songs were sung and prayers offered. God was present. Scripture lesson, Isaiah 53rd chapter. Special song by the trio. Rev. G. D. Jock brought the message found in Romans 7:16. He was ready to go to Rome; he was not ashamed of the Gospel of the Son of God. The brother said that it was the Gospel that brought him to God. The Gospel was and is the glad news to this world. The Saviour brought it for the purpose of destroying the works of the Devil. God plans to bring every man to salvation. Salvation meets the need of every soul. God has made every plan to meet every need of man. Salvation involves safety; a man is unsafe without it. Everything that comes from God is included in salvation.

Brother Willett gave a burning exhortation for men to seek God. A number were at the altar seeking pardon.

Sunday Morning Service.

The love feast was led by Rev. C. E. Hill. "A Charge to Keep I Have" was sung. The Scripture lesson was found in 1 John 3rd chapter. J. S. Willett and E. D. Carpenter offered prayer. "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung. Ninety-seven testified in the love feast. Singing, "The Same Old Way."

Rev. J. S. Willett brought the message, from Hebrews 11:5. He spoke of the pleasant week he had spent in Hague, N. Y. He said Enoch is one of the few in the Bible of whom nothing bad is recorded. From the time he was a blaze for God. History is very brief about him, yet the truth is, he walked with God, and was not, for God took him. Enoch's walk with God was a safe walk. And the Bible proves that he walked with him in holiness.

L. M. Hayes and C. A. Heath were ordained at the close of the sermon.

Sunday Afternoon Meeting.

Singing, "In the Service of the King." H. S. Hill in charge. Scripture reading, Ephesians 6:10-20. Duet, "No Disappointment." Rev. C. E. Hill offered prayer. Text, Psalm 91:1. Topic, Prayer. This refers to those who are Christians. At first it was a pleasure when God came down to talk with Adam and Eve. The greatest privilege we have is through prayer. Prayer always comes first. There are three ways to give: 1st, Our money. 2nd, Our prayers. 3rd, Ourselves wholly to the service of the Lord. God's pathway to hearts is through men. There are three concerned in prayer: God, the man that prays, and the evil one whom we pray against. The presence of Jesus in our lives overcomes every obstacle. We can say with Paul, "I do always those things that are pleasing to Him." God always gives us all the power He can trust us with. No religious movement goes faster than it goes on its knees.

Rev. J. S. Willett gave the altar call. A number of prayers were offered in behalf of the great work we are engaged in. Singing, "He Fills Me Now." Benediction by Rev. E. D. Carpenter.

Sunday Evening Service.

This was a communion service. Rev. E. D. Carpenter was in charge. After singing, prayers were offered by G. N. Wyher and F. E. Wood. About one hundred partook of the Sacrament. At the preaching service O. G. Wyman offered prayer. Song, "On Calvary's Hill," was sung by Lawrence, Ruth and Pearl Hill.

Rev. J. S. Willett brought the message from John 9:25. When Christ was on earth many thought He would establish an earthly kingdom, but the Word declares the kingdom of God is within us. Christ is to rule over our minds and hearts. People should read their own Bibles. Unless we search the Scriptures we shall miss the mark. This lesson tells us of the blind man who found Christ. His eyes were opened. Jesus was always relieving those that were lame, or in trouble in any way. This was a wonderful miracle of grace, and left the man with a Christian experience. God has a way to work in our hearts. The certainty this blind man had was, "Whereas I was blind, now I see."

At the close of the sermon a number of persons were at the altar to be saved. The parting song, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," was sung. Benediction by Rev. E. D. Carpenter.

This proved to be a very profitable Conference session. From the first to the last a spirit of unity was upon the hearts of the people.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE NEW FORWARD MOVEMENT.

The Church is facing forward. This is our time to take definite advance steps. Ours is not a defensive warfare; it must be an aggressive conquest to conquer new territory for our King. The Church must go forward; anything else means failure. She must be courageous, aggressive and determined in her advance, as the enemy said of our American troops, "Easy to kill, but hard to stop."

We will, therefore, enter with enthusiasm and vigor into the support of our Connectional leaders in their plans for a general advance. As a Conference we are ready to give them our loyal support in raising the new budget and will do our best to make it full.

Also the time is ripe for aggressive work as a Conference. We have the men and money to prosecute the work. The call is "Ahead and all together."

The Forward Movement involves also a new spirit in the attitude of our local churches toward the support of pastors and retired ministers. The by-word is ahead in spiritual life and experience and service.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY.

This office was very unexpected by me, and I felt at the time of my election that a severe mistake had been made in your choice. It has been a very busy time for me this past year, but with the help of God and the co-operation of my two worthy assistants, Rev. W. F. Lewis for the Southern District, and Rev. E. L. Elliott for the Northern District, I have been able to do some things worth while, in my judgment, and to our Christ, the greatest Teacher the world has ever known, be the eternal praise.

Our Sunday School Convention in the Southern District was held with Brother Lewis and his people at Horicon, N. Y. There were not many present, but the season was one of benefit and pleasure to those attending. Brother Elliott has done better than we, and I shall ask him to speak briefly about the same.

I had planned to attend the State Convention in Vermont, but because of the "Flu" it was not held. Most of my work has been done with my typewriter and pen.

I am pleased to say that we have a fine class to graduate this year from the Teacher's Training Department. Brother Hayes has done fine work with his class and their grades are excellent. The graduates are Rev. L. M. Hayes, Mrs. Allie Lovett, Mrs. Lucy Naylor, Mrs. Nettie Rowe Corey, Lillian Frazier and Myrtle Rowe.

I am more than pleased to give you my report of finances for this year. My total receipts for the year were $50.50. My total disbursements were $44.02. Leaving in my hand at this time $6.48. Twenty dollars of this has been sent to our Connectional Sunday School Secretary and the rest spent in the interest of our Conference work. The balance would have been somewhat larger and the work some less if the pastors had answered my first letters.

The only charges that have teachers that are graduates from our Teacher's Training Department are Forestdale, Vermont, and Chittenden, Vermont. Every charge responded in full or in part to the appeal for the offering except Chichester, Hadley, Long Lake, and Macomb; and this was due to their lack of a regular pastor, except Macomb, which has no Sunday School. The following charges did not send me a report: Acorn Hill, Cadyville, Chazy, Chichester, Cook's Corners, Lisbon, Lisbon Center, Macomb, Mooers, and West Plattsburg. The following charges reported converts from the Sunday School: Brookdale, Chester and Horicon, Chittenden, Forestdale and Goshen, and Hague and Valley View.

The contest for the Banner offered according to the given standard has been won by Chester and Horicon with an average per cent of 85. I feel as if we had done some things this year worth while, and yet there is much land to possess.

Yours and His,

H. S. Hill,
Conference Sunday School Secretary.

CAMP MEETING REPORT.

The Champlain Conference Camp Meeting is, as the name indicates, a creature of Conference creation. It is therefore of Conference-wide interest. We shall share alike the inspiration if the report that the meeting held in August, 1918, was a source of spiritual growth, of power and equipment on the one hand and a means of salvation complete on the other hand. While the saints were feeding on the Word presented, sinners were being convicted and brought to repentance. Brother J. J. Coleman was blessed of God in bringing to the camp meeting messages that were exceedingly freighted with rich truth. Unusual avenues of development were revealed to both ministry and laity, which when walked in brought progress to the life and service. Brother Mow was, as a nearby pastor expressed it, a whole host for God. His messages struck home with no uncertain sound. Many men were brought under conviction. Not all yielded. Some of those Christ-rejectors are now in eternity and God showed Brother Mow their destiny. The local brethren stood by nobly with their presence, prayers, messages and means. The singing was good and effective. We greatly missed the "Beulah Trio," but did our best without them.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Brethren Coleman and Mow are to be with us again this year. More than that, God will meet us on the camp ground, and with Him we shall conquer.

Financially the meeting was well cared for. Total receipts, $770.75. Expenses, $637.70. Balance on hand, $133.05.

Now what are our objectives for the coming meeting? We shall need to be there. We shall need to come Spirit-filled and ready to pull. We shall need to carry the inspiration back to our charges, or better yet, bring the charges to West Chazy.

Thanking God for past blessings and looking forward with faith to the future, we await the annual feast of tabernacles.

F. H. Wright,
Secretary of the Camp Meeting Committee.

The first address of the evening was made by Rev. M. A. Gibbs, Missionary-elect to Japan. Brother Gibbs spoke of the moral and social conditions in Japan. Since the civil war Japan has advanced more than any other nation in the same length of time, yet she is not Christianized. The people of Japan are asking the Missionary Boards of Europe and America to help and to send workers.

Singing by a male quartette.

Sister Alice Hampe, another worker who hopes soon to go to Japan, was the next speaker. Japan is the key to the Orient and Japan wants our help. When she is Christianized she can reach the others. Throughout this address could be felt a wonderful exhortation to faith in our God.

Following the address the Beulah Trio sang.

Rev. J. S. Willett made a plea for funds to start the work in Japan and pledges and offerings to the amount of $600.00 were given.

Our Conference assumed the support of Sister Hampe.

"Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" was sung, and Rev. G. N. Wyher pronounced the benediction.

Respectfully submitted,

Mable A. Hills, Secretary.
