PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Another year has rolled around and we have met in this auditorium for the Fifty-second Annual Conference. The Lord has already met with us, as He has promised. Praise His name! We feel very thankful to God for His protecting care over us. One of our number has been called from our midst by death. Some of our pastors have felt called to labor in other fields, and have been transferred. Some have been called from other fields to labor with us. We trust the Lord will make them a great blessing to us.

In our work this year, we have been thrown in some very hard fields, but in no place have we been, but what the presence of the Lord has been with us, and given help in preaching His truth. While a great many have rejected His Word, quite a number have the Saviour in pardon or purity.

God has helped us every day this year to carry each pastor and the interests of the schools and missions and the Connection and the laity in general, to the throne of grace. I feel that the Prayer League has been a great blessing along this line. This has been a very strenuous year on us, with, I believe, as heavy burdens as I have ever borne, but the Lord has brought us through on victory's side. Praise the Lord!

We assisted in the dedication of the church at Kansas City. We also dedicated the mission at Concordia, and have looked after the Mission as much as possible since, in helping to keep the finances up.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Since the Sunday School sustains such a vital relationship to the Church, it is important that we put forth our best effort to make it a success by instilling into the minds and hearts of the children the blessed truths of the Bible and the true principles of Christianity. It sustains about the same relation to the church that the nursery does to the orchard; the choicest fruit possible should be the main object and ultimate aim of the Sabbath School. Right planting and careful training should not be overlooked. The blessed admonition should be heeded, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

A well organized Sunday School should be an important factor in the church. A very careful selection should be made in the choosing of the officers and teachers. They should be men and women of deep piety, sound in doctrine, having studied thoroughly the teachers' training course, and most important of all, they should possess a good thorough personal Christian experience. Through the Cradle Roll and Home Department a wide open door stands ajar which enables us to reach those who may not be reached in any other way.

HOLINESS CONVENTIONS DISTRICT NO. 3.

We, your Chairman of Holiness Conventions, desire to make the following report:

Our desire and aim after being elected chairman of Holiness Conventions, District No. 3, at the last Annual Conference was to hold as many conventions on the district as possible, but only two were held. Plans were made and a program arranged for a convention at Gaylord. This was postponed for some time and later on developing at a time that it was impossible for us to be present. Quite a number of the ministerial brethren besides laymen were present and a good convention was reported.

One convention was held at Concordia Mission. God's presence was there, and He placed His seal upon the gathering from the very first service. A program was arranged and a hearty response was made by almost every one. The Free Methodist brethren were in the midst of a camp meeting at the time of the convention, but nevertheless God met with us and every service was crowned with victory. A glorious time was enjoyed by all present. We thank God for the privilege of being at the Concordia Mission. We thank God for the Concordia Mission. God is honoring and His presence and blessing is manifest at that place.

In Him and for Him,

Rev. T. E. Shivers,

Chairman.

COMMITTEE TO MEMORIALIZE THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

I.

Whereas, the forces of evil are making a systematic attempt to break down the old moral standards which have been our national guide for so many years, and,

Whereas, the majority of religious organizations have permanent bodies authorized to speak upon all moral questions, and to co-operate with similiar bodies in other denominations,

Therefore, be it resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to be assembled at Fairmount, Ind., in June, 1923, to establish a permanent Commission on Temperance and Public morals, which shall be empowered to speak for the Wesleyan Methodist Connection on all questions of public morals, and whose duty it shall be to keep the Church informed of the progress being made in all lines of moral reform.

II.

Inasmuch as the Tobacco Trust is putting forth every effort to corrupt our nation, politically, morally and socially, and,

Inasmuch as the use of tobacco is a very great evil, harmful to the user, detrimental to the one forced to be associated with such a user, and an evil factor in the determining forces for future moral integrity,

Therefore, be it resolved, That we do memorialize the General Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection of America, that they do insert in the Wesleyan Methodist Discipline a clause making the use of tobacco a test of membership in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

III.

Whereas, Miley's Theology is not orthodox on the doctrine of Holiness, and inasmuch as we consider this one of the fundamental doctrines of the Bible,

Therefore, be it resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to remove Miley's Theology from the theological course of study, and that some other text book which is in harmony with Wesleyan Methodism be substituted.

COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

While the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, there are at least three ways by which the Gospel of Christ is brought to a lost world.

In the first place, it is proclaimed with a tongue of fire. Conviction comes by hearing the gospel preached in the Spirit. "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God."

But Peter mentions another way that men are to be won without hearing the word. In case a woman has a husband who does not attend church, and hear the gospel, he is to be won without the word, through the gospel being lived and manifested in the life of his wife. Paul says, "By manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God." That is, our lives can be such a manifestation of the gospel, such a manifestation of love, and peace and joy and holiness, that it will appeal to every man's conscience. Men who do not go to church and hear the gospel of holiness and love, may see a manifestation of it in the lives of God's people, and this is powerfully convicting.

The third way by which the gospel is to become a power of God unto salvation is through the written page. Thousands have been won by messages written by godly men and women. How deeply we are indebted to Paul for his inspired messages. What eternal good has come from Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

This is an age of multiplied publications, both secular and religious. Nations are cursed with impure, unreliable and trashy literature. Children will read, and when a child becomes accustomed to reading literature in the form of a novel, his mind becomes poisoned, and the desire for the best reading is gone.

So it greatly behooves us as parents, pastors, and the church to keep before our children and young people such literature as will be uplifting to soul and mind.

We recommend the foremost place be given to a prayerful and habitual reading of the Bible. We most highly commend the habitual reading of our own publications, The Wesleyan Methodist, and Wesleyan Missionary.

It is our conviction that a Wesleyan Sunday School should use Wesleyan literature regardless of a possible variation in the cost, from that which is primarily "made to sell."

Mrs. Iva Bartley,
E. A. Coates,

Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOUNDARIES.

We recommend that the Holiness Convention Districts be divided as follows:

District No. 1—Topeka, Willis, Williams Chapel, Leroy, Easton and Kansas City.

District No. 2—Miltonvale, Chapman Creek, Antioch, Hall, New Hope and Ames.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

District No. 3—Gaylord, Wesley Center, Hollis, Bethel Chapel and Union Valley.

District No. 4—Langley, Jerome, Excelsior.

In view of the fact that the church known as the Keen church is deeded Williams Chapel, we recommend that the name be changed from Keene to Williams Chapel.

STATE OF THE WORK.

After thoughtful and prayerful consideration we wish to submit the following:

First,—We are sure that we cannot be too optimistic as to the power and possibilities of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, if properly applied and administered. The promises are "exceeding great and precious," and they are yea and amen to them that believe. We are thankful to God for every omen of good, realizing that "every good and perfect gift is from above."

In reviewing the conditions on the different circuits, we find that many of them are being encouraged to look up and press forward. Some have either been reclaimed or saved and some professed the blessing of Holiness.

We believe there is an undertide of spiritual power in some places, and a desire for old time victory and power. Yet we deplore the fact that our borders are not being extended and our numbers are not being increased as we believe it would please God to see. We are sure that if every Pastor, Evangelist and Lay Member would pay the price that it would take to bring a revival by fasting and secret prayer and obedience, we shall see our desire realized in souls being saved and sanctified and the work of the Lord go forward.

J. A. Stansbury,

P. A. Miller,

THE KANSAS CONFERENCE

VOTE OF THANKS.

We, your Committee on Vote of Thanks, beg to submit the following report:

We offer unto our Heavenly Father our sincere thanks for the privilege of assembling ourselves together on this, our fifty-second annual conference. We thank our Heavenly Father for the manifestation of the blessed Holy Spirit and the unity and fellowship that we have felt since coming together.

We wish to especially thank Brother Elmer Anderson, Sister Hogg, and Sister Thurston, Sister Teeney and all others who have helped to make this Conference and Camp Meeting a success, and we again wish to express the gratitude of the Conference to the people of Miltonvale who have opened their homes for the entertainment of the people. And again we wish to thank God for the blessings that He has bestowed upon us.

C. A. Kaufman,

MORAL REFORM.

Moral reform is born in the heart of the Almighty. On the moral development of the individual rests the perpetuity of the race. The Church is the moral force which must leaven the whole of society, if the world is to be saved from degeneracy and decay. Therefore, the Church must sound a positive note on the questions of public morals. The greatest problem is the disposition of certain individuals to debauch their fellow men for financial gain. This is most clearly seen in the work of the organized liquor traffic, as it has sought to dominate the life of America for the last hundred years; the commercialization of the Sabbath for sport and business; the formation of the American Tobacco Trust, and its organized attempt to fasten the cigarette habit on the youth of the nation, and the disposition of the moving picture industry to burlesque and cheapen the sacred things of life and to defy every law passed for the regulation of their production.

We recommend that the Kansas Conference affirm its unaltered opposition to the attempt now being made for the election of a "beer and wine" congress, and urge the support of only Congressional candidates as pledge their support of the Volstead law; that we believe the development of stalwart moral and Christian character cannot be furthered by attendance at the dance, the "sex appeal movie," or any other form of entertainment whose influence on public morals can in any way be questioned.

We regret the seeming nation-wide tendency toward jazz music, that has crept even into the holiness movement, and we recommend that our people discontinue the use of all religious music which calls to memory the jazz band, and the medicine show.

We know of no standard of morals equal to that delivered from Mt. Sinai, and it is our belief that the adoption of a world code of morals, based upon the teachings of Jesus Christ, will solve every world problem which confronts the race today.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Dear Sisters and Co-Laborers of the Kansas W. H. & F. M. Society—Greetings in His Name!

To say that this has been the best year of my life might to a casual observer seem erroneous; but this year has afforded some of the most precious opportunities of my life for lessons in faith, "for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for." While my returning health has not been instantaneous, it has been cause for one continuous act of trust. I do more fully appreciate the words of the prophet Isaiah when he said, "I will trust and not be afraid." I have been able to render but little service to the W. H. & F. M. Society, of which my life is a part; but if while in the school of faith I have learned some of the lessons that God has intended in His great plan for me I will, with Paul, "glory in my infirmities," that the glory of God may be revealed.

Before we enter into the accomplishments of the past year, or future hopes, allow me to speak briefly of my visit with our dear Sister Ida Huston, former President of the Kansas W. H. & F. M. Society, who, with her husband, Rev. S. G. Huston, did much to make "the Golden West" a Bethany to this tired body. The Lord bless their memory to our good and their labors in the "far west" to His glory.

At times the necessary correspondence could not have been carried on but for the faithful efforts of your Vice-President, Mrs. Prudie Haun, and needless to say, the forbearance of our W. H. & F. M. Society ladies has been taxed greatly, and yet you have borne with my weakness so graciously that but for my sense of fallibility I would have never guessed but that my services were entirely acceptable. Thank God for love that covers a multitude of faults, and more especially when one is conscious of their shortcomings.

THE KANSAS CONFERENCE

Many of our devoted workers have done nobly, among whom are our Secretary and Treasurer.

Our Organizer, while not traveling the Conference, secured the services of Sister Vera Macy, our returned missionary, whose report is most encouraging, and as Sister Macy returns to her field of labor let us follow her with our prayers, and may the Lord reward her.

I must not fail to mention the hearty response and co-operation found in our Convention leaders, but for which we would have been unable to hold our Missionary Conventions this year; and last, but not least, to be mentioned is the good work of our loyal presidents and their respective societies. So far as I have knowledge they have responded with a willing mind to every demand made on them throughout the year. "And they shall in no wise lose their reward." Much remains to be done, and lest I become tedious I will leave these details to your Committee on Plan of the Work, mentioning only the main features as they appear to me.

First. We should stress a further reading and understanding of the Word of God, coupled with prayer.

Second. As an incentive to channels of usefulness, let us keep in touch with the needs of the hour through mission study, and more especially our Missionary Magazine.

For your encouragement I would say that as God's Word is true—if we make first things first—all needful things will be added.

N. May Clarke.

A BRIEF OUTLINE OF SISTER VERA MACY'S ADDRESS IN THE PUBLIC MEETING.

I. Encouraging features:

Eight mission stations now on the field.

Native church has 35 members and still growing.

Two boarding schools with almost 50 pupils.

Railroads and Government roads a wonderful improvement.

II. Extremes, or the other side, the shadow:

Native offers best he has, if nothing but rice or chicken.

If a chief offers a human sacrifice, it's his best loved wife.

Climate.

Disease.

Pests of the country.

III. The spirit of sacrifice. Have we lost it?

Home fields are languishing.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

Foreign fields must take a backward step if funds do not come in soon.

To give what we do not miss is not sacrifice.

To give our tithe is not sacrificing.

It is not means we lack, but interest.

In conclusion: Many will come up from the east, and the west, the north, and the south, from all the corners of the earth, because some were able to go, to give, to send or to pray.
