MORAL REFORM

"Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls." Jeremiah 6:16.

In these days of compromise and neglect this scripture sounds out a warning to each of us. It is the old paths that lead home. We must walk carefully lest we miss the way.

It is at the Family Altar that little feet are placed on the safe way. It is the Secret Closet that throws a wall of protection about them. It is the victorious services and the consistent living of the members of the church that holds firm their confidence in a God that can save and sanctify.

Let us as members of the Kansas Conference be fearful lest we become careless and indifferent to the evils of the day. Let us remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy, refraining from all unnecessary work which will displease God. Let us with much prayer and tenderness of heart with the spirit of meekness, help to restore the fallen, "considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted."

Let us take our stand against the use of tobacco by women as well as men, and shall we pray that womanhood might return to the heights she once attained. Let us also stand against all alcoholic beverages.

Let us make special effort to provide clean, wholesome entertainment for the young people of our church.

We would encourage the use of our own publications, giving them first place in our homes. We consider the Sunday comics, detective and True Story magazines, and other undesirable literature as detrimental to the morale of our young people, and we would discourage their being in our Wesleyan homes.

In calling attention to all these reform we would designate the second Sunday of each month as Temperance Sunday for our Sunday Schools. We regret that the temperance lessons have been discontinued, so let the Temperance Superintendent of each school provide some interesting and instructive material to supply this need.

STATISTICAL GLEANINGS

Another milestone is past and we are happy to note God's blessing and guidance with some marked advancements this year. Your statistical committee has prepared a full report for your future reference. The following report is only notes of interest.

We have the same number of Wesleyans taken, a loss of thirty-six Missionary Magazines and a gain of seven Wesleyan Youth.

There are forty-seven churches reporting with a total of 1,581 members, a loss of twenty-four members and two churches discontinued. A total of 1,111 tithers (gain of 46) and 456 family alters (gain of 15) were reported.

We are happy to note our conference, with a marked increase in average attendance, has a part in making our church one of the three denominations showing a gain in Sunday School attendance. We have a loss of 4 W. Y. P. S. societies and 34 members but an increase in average attendance in Daily Vacation Bible School.

There are 43 church buildings and 36 parsonages with a total valuation of $221,550.00 with $27,251.14 indebtedness, having $21,066.34 cash or other values on hand. It is interesting to note each charge having indebtedness has made substantial payments.

The total pastors' salary was $48,775.50, an increase of $6,962.59 with an average of $19.95 weekly (increase of $3.87 per week).

For all purposes our churches raised $150,779.36 an increase of $15,-813.40.

All Connectional budget items were over paid but Connectional Sunday School; all Conference budget items were under paid.

We thank God for the progress that we are making and trust that every item will show a gain in the future.

ORVILLE R. HALL, Chairman

Reports

MORAL REFORM

"In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you." Titus 2:7, 8.

We are well aware of the fact that we are living in a day when the mass of the people are looking for a definite pattern to follow. This has been the purpose of our great Peace Conference of San Francisco. This seeking of a definite pattern to follow is also carried into the spiritual realm as seen in our scripture. Our lives as Christian Young People will be this pattern.

If our life is a pattern of good works it will have two results:

1. Spiritual and moral betterment of ourselves, and
2. Power of conviction we will bring on the people of the world.

With these thoughts in mind let us purpose in our hearts to be this pattern of good works in the home, in the church and before the world. This can be done by sound doctrine, sound speech and wholesome conduct.

"Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven." Matt. 5:16.

Ruth Johnson
Raymond Golden

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE W. Y. P. S.

We, the Committee on Suggestions, submit the following report. We suggest:

1. That we strive for a deeper spiritual society with spirit filled workers as leaders.
2. That each District plan a Convention at least once this year with the W. Y. P. S. President in charge assisted by the Vice President. The delegates are expected to return with a report of the same to the local society.
3. That the names of weekly leaders be posted not later than two weeks before each quarter to give ample time for careful preparation of the lesson.
4. That each society be considered a Personal Worker's Club and elect a committee to report the visits at the quarterly business meeting.
5. That the President of each society lead at least one service a quarter.
- *6. That the suggestions be read at least twice a year.
7. That the pastor deliver an Evangelistic message once a quarter especially for youth.

The Kansas Conference

*8. That the President and Secretary of each society prepare and send the Statistical report to the Conference Secretary so that the Treasurer's books may be closed two weeks before Young People's Conference.

9. That each society sponsor a youth revival, the President and Executive Council cooperating with the pastor, being responsible for securing the evangelist, advertising and financing the meeting.

10. That the Conference Executive Council, cooperating with the Camp Meeting Committee, be responsible for securing a separate Young People's Evangelist.

11. That the District Leaders be chosen by caucus composed of two representatives from each society.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Then the Lord". The book of Job is unique in its subject and circumstances. The author is not known. The time of it is involved in equal darkness. How it was originally written and in what language, have also been questions on which great and learned men have been divided. But this we do know—God says that Job was a perfect man, a pious man and a praying man; yet he was a prey for the enemy. He was put on exhibition as it were, while God stood back amid the shadows, keeping watch over his own; but the trial was none the less severe.

Notice this man and his surroundings—children gone, property gone, wife back-slidden, afflicted in body, assulted by hell, and a few pillars in the church coming to search out the old patriarch and tell him he had sinned or he never, never would have been afflicted in this way. But Job stood the test, declaring his faith that the Redeemer would appear; but if he did not, said, "though he slay me yet I trust him." Just about that time, when there was not a ray of hope in sight "then the Lord" One has glibly said, when you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot in the end of and hang on. You have read the old proverb, "When the tale of bricks is doubled, Moses comes." But this was better, the Lord himself appeared. There are times when Moses will not do, when an angel will not do, and our souls cry out, "If thy presence go not with me"—and we can hear him say, "My presence shall go with thee."

The moral of the story of course, is that God always comes on time "Then the Lord". Darkness for a while, the hour of Satan' power for a while, the body sore wrecked for a while, and then the Master speaks. Can you not see the old patriarch look up into His face, through tears of gratitude, and hear him say, "I Knew you would come." "Then the Lord came, right, when the discipline of suffering had done its work, when a history could be written that would glorify God and comfort the saints clear down to the time when faith would be lost in sight.

Wesleyan Methodist Church

Still today there are times when it seems the enemy is holding full sway, when right and truth seem to be on the scaffold, when saints are pressed beyond measure, and God seems to be in the shadows. Oh, that we could trust and hold steady with a purpose firm, knowing that God will come in due time. David said, "What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee."

We humbly offer praise to our God for definitely undertaking in our missionary interests. He has miraculously opened up passage way for fresh recruits to get to our mission fields. Let us continue to supplicate the throne for greater achievements and victories this coming year.

(President's report)

Y. M. W. B. SUPERINTENDENT

Praise be unto our God for His wonderful mercies to us. We thank Him for the open doors and the way where there seemed to be no way for new recruits to be sent to our field.

Surely God has a plan for the furtherance of missions. Shall we group the opportunity of preparing our boys and girls and young people to work in the interest of our King through the Y. M. W. B.

God has blessed the Y. M. W. B. There are some new bands and a good increase in membership and funds.

I have written two times to the bands and have taken care of the Treasure work.

MORAL REFORM

"Stand in the ways, and see and ask for the old paths where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls." Jer. 6:16.

As long as we make God's word our standard we are as safe as Israel was in days of old. We understand America is no longer classed as a Christian nation. It requires 40% of the population attending church and we only have 8% attending on Sunday morning and 2% on Sunday night. May we all work harder than ever before that our own land may be brought out of paganism. No doubt there are many contributing causes to this total result.

Our hearts are stirred by the low and inconsistent standards to which many are conforming. To compromise with this present age will bring disgrace to the cause of true holiness we love so much.

We are alarmed at the record of juvenile delinquency in these days, and desire more effort made to get our children really converted early in life. We should begin early to teach them modesty. We recommend that our Christian mothers set a good example by not conforming to the present style of short skirts and that they dress their little girls with skirts of modest length. We believe the devil gets up the styles for our little girls. If girls go wrong boys have to go wrong with them. We need to protect the purity of our little boys as well as our girls. The innocence of childhood is not enough to see them through the early years, parents need to be on their guard and watch where and how they play. Some are started wrong very young. May we guard their purity as the most priceless thing on earth. We recommend that if sun suits are required for health they be not worn in public places.

In II Cor. 6:14 we read, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers," May we teach our young people that it is a sin for a Christian to marry a sinner. Failure to heed God's command on this point has helped the divorce mills to turn out one divorce for every six marriages. We are opposed to the modern divorce situation.

We feel as never before the importance of maintaining our standards and ideals as we must have something real to offer our returning service men and women. May they not be disappointed as they return to our homes and churches.
