Report - 2, Conference President:

Greetings to the 69th session of the Oregon Annual Conference. With thankful hearts we give praise unto God for His many mercies which have attended our ways during this Conference year. We magnify His Dear Name for this manifestation of His Power and Presence in services and souls won across the Conference. Excellent gains have been made in some churches, and it is with a great degree of expectancy for greater things from God that we face the future.

During this year we have labored to do our best and do acknowledge our efforts to be in vain, but God has worked and we glorify Him for His goodness.

We have held twenty-six quarterly meetings and set in an advisory capacity at seven others. Along with our good Sunday School Secretary we have labored in four revival meetings, three in the Conference and one with Brainerd Indian School, Hot Springs, South Dakota.

Many hours have been spent in maintaining the camp ground.

We have preached 142 sermons, conducted 4 funerals and 3 weddings, 10 pastoral fellowships and 84 personal pastor consultations. Many phone calls have been made in giving guidance to pastors and seeking advice from our General Officers.

During the year we have received Brother Lester Bennett from the Dakota Conference, Brother Gordon Bennett, Brother David Gowan, and Brother William Gale all from the Dakota Conference. Brother J. H. Tillotson has been transferred to South Carolina Conference and Brother Burton Adiska to Allegheny Conference.

We have traveled 31,460 miles and have received $1640.00 travel and office expense, $360.00 for utilities and $1500.00 salary. Total received - $3500.00.

PRESIDENT: ~~←000~~ NO. 1

Psalms 25:5, 27:11 and 31:3 express prayerful desires to be directed by God. "Lead me in thy truth", "Lead me in a plain path", "for thy name's sake lead me and guide me". How grateful we should be for divine guidance in the days and years past! As Christians we haven't been left to wander without help or direction amid the complex situations of life. In the routine tasks as well as in the sublime moments of inspiration, we can know the leading of our Lord. How careful we should be in the tomorrows that in all the work of the conference we each follow the Lord and look for further light as new days dawn and new problems confront us. It is safe to follow Him.

By official action of the W. M. S. Executive Committee, I was appointed president on October 10, 1961 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Naomi Adiska.

It was not easy to assume this office at the time of the Quadrennial Area Conventions and serve as area chairman and conference president and endeavor to do justice to both positions.

During the year I was invited to speak or participate in the following services: December Missionary Prayer Meeting, Salem Circle 1; January Missionary Meeting, Salem Circle 2, February Sunday Missionary Rally, St. John's; February Missionary Prayer Meeting, Aumsville; March Missionary Prayer Meeting, Chehalis; March Missionary Meeting, Seattle; May Missionary Meetings at Russellville and at St. John's and the July Missionary Meeting, Aumsville, I also attended Salem Circle 2 Missionary Meetings and Aumsville Missionary Prayer Meetings when there was no conflict.

I met once with the Camp Board and the Board of Church Extension and Evangelism. Three W.M.S. Executive Committee Meetings were held.

I arranged an approved missionary tour of the conference February 1-11, 1962 of eighteen services for Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Heavilin of Puerto Rico.

A service in each church of the conference was planned from May to July, 1962 with Rev. and Mrs. Franklin Heer, now on furlough in Portland from Colombia, South America. Salem Circle 1 requested me to arrange for Sally Heer to speak at a combined meeting in May of the Lebanon, Aumsville and Salem missionary societies.

Four general mailings to the societies, plus individual correspondence in the interest of the conference totaled 125 letters. 17 toll calls were made.

The cooperation of the local and conference W.M.S. officers and the pastors this year has been greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted, Marie Lind, Pres.

I had real good co-operation with the Local Solicitors. They did very well in rehas been an increase of the subscriptions, so we see the Local Solicitors are busy at work.

Report # 5 - I. M. W. B. Report NO. 5

Again we are happy to report that the Lord has been helping and blessing in the work of the I.M.W.B. Four of our bands were Honor Bands this year. These included Emmanuel with 100% rating, Vancouver, 95% rating, and Salem and St. Johns 90%.

It was another source of encouragement to have new Bands formed at Seattle and Holgate. We have hoped to have an active I.M.W.B. in each of our churches, but as yet have not attained this goal. Nevertheless we feel that God is using this means of helping our boys and girls to gain a missionary vision.

It was a real help and inspiration to have Mrs. Kindley with us at the Missionary Convention last fall. Her suggestions proved to be an inspiration and help to each of us who were privileged to participate in the workshops. For whatever has been accomplished we wish to give thanks and praise to the Lord.

Respectfully submitted, Marion Kelsven, sec.

Report # 7 - Work Director

NO. 7

Local Conference work directors met during the September workshop to formulate plans for the coming year. During this meeting it was decided that each society would support the African Women's Institute by packing and sending a box of sewing items to be used at the coming Institute. Each local society responded by sending boxes including cut out dress and panty sets, quilt blocks, thread, bias tape and other miscellaneous items.

In March all societies cooperated by packing boxes of used clothing books, electrical appliances, and other items for Brainerd Indian School. A truck load was taken to Brainerd at this time by Rev. D. H. Cline and Rev. T. G. Porter.

During the year 2 sets of patterns were forwarded to those desiring, 23 letters were written acquainting societies with projects and answering inquiries.

The project for the 1962 Conference and Camp Meeting was for each society to furnish letters and excerpts from their Missionary Prayer Partners and friends. A bulletin board display was used to encourage each W.M.S. member to support their missionary with letters from home.

Report # 9 - W.M.S. Prayer Secretary Report NO. 9

Again this last year, I have had the privilege of holding one day a week prayer meetings in my home, also we have had a prayer meeting at the church each Sunday morning before services, in addition to making individual calls in the homes.

We have written a few cards and letters, and have made a few phone calls in the interest of prayer.

Jesus said "Men ought always to pray and not to faint". Paul said, "Pray without ceasing". James said, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much".

For 18 years or more we have had this particular prayer work in our W.M.S. God has blessed and given marvelous answers to prayer for which we praise Him and give Him all the glory. For approximately 15 years, I have had the privilege of carrying on this work as Prayer Secretary for which I thank our Lord and you dear ladies. It is the nearest and dearest work of my heart. I only regret that I have not been able to work more efficiently.

Respectfully submitted, Jennie Cline, Sec.

We appreciate the good meals and those who so willingly helped in the kitchen. We want the Lord to have His way in everything that is said and done.

After some discussion it was decided that a meeting at 1:00 p.m. would not be feasible.

David Gale moved to rescind his previous motion concerning the 1:00 p.m. meeting. His motion was seconded and carried.

It was moved and seconded that pending any necessary business to come before the convention, elections be held immediately. Carried.

The chair was reminded that election of delegates to general conference was in order. Thomas Porter Sr. was elected Delegate to the conference with Doug Bacheller as his alternate. There is to be at least one more delegate and alternate elected.
