As we come together in this one hundred and eighth session of the Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, it requires but little thinking to cause God's children to humbly bow and gratefully acknowledge the tremendous debt of gratitude which we owe to our Heavenly Father that we are spared; and this gracious opportunity is in reality ours. The mercies of God through this year have been manifold. Prayer has often been answered, and the hand of the omnipotent God has marvelously intervened in many instances, oftentimes in ways which, while not exactly as asked, yet in ways which were far more profitable and effective in the work of the Kingdom.

There is almost no church in the Conference which has not prayed and labored for a revival. Almost without an exception, every church has had at least one to three special series of revival meetings. The reports from some of these services were most inspiring and encouraging. Definite results were seen with the salvation of souls and the sanctification of the saints, with a deepening among the members. Several have reported awakenings which were apparently deeper than for years past. It is our prayer that the effect of these meetings will be apparent and manifest in the lives and conduct of the delegates to this Conference, both Elders and lay-delegates.

We can truly say that God has helped in the pioneer projects of the Conference. Malone has enjoyed a gracious revival. Canaan Hill has grown, expanded, and developed in an encouraging way. The work at Cobleskill has been enjoying a very unique growth with a number of new souls saved and increased attendance. Northside-Cohoes has had a good year with a full-time pastor. Rev. Stanley Klob has done a fine work by God's Grace at East Poestenskill. Rev. Reginald Hewitt has maintained a prayer meeting weekly at Cambridge, N. Y. most of the year. We have responded to the request of the Sandgate, Vt. Chapel to provide them a preacher.

Because Springfield, Mass., was elected to be the Pioneer Church of the year, we will definitely report on this work separately. The debt of ten thousand dollars, which confronted the little band, July 1, 1949, last year, will be paid in full by July 1, 1950. Praise God! Also, perhaps two thousand dollars of building has been done during the year to nearly complete the construction of the parsonage. The membership has not grown in net numbers, but we feel that the outlook and prospect of a Wesleyan Methodist Church in Springfield, Mass., is better than it was one year ago. Much thanks is due to the churches, pastors, and laymen who have contributed time, prayers, mileage, cash, and interest, to, as a Conference, achieve this tremendous task of raising the money to pay our creditors.

We have several churches which have contributed very liberally to our own Conference Missions, and in addition have attempted to give money enough to Foreign Missions to care for the full salary of a missionary on the field. May God bless these efforts.

God has used our Woman's Missionary Society under the able leadership of Mrs. Marjorie Stevenson.

The youth program of the Conference has prospered and been of profit under the guidance of Rev. Elton Seaman.

This will be a banner year with our young people standing firmly with us in church extension.

Some other achievements along the line are noteworthy such as the Brant Lake Church, which has finished paying for their Sunday School rooms this year. A fine new garage at the President's Home at West Chazy, built by Rev. James Keysor. A new 153 foot water well, eleven new flush toilets, new equipment and repairs on buildings, are improvements on our West Chazy Camp Ground. The Corinth Church is to be commended on their building program, having started and completed a beautiful addition to their church this year.

The times in which we live demand much of our pastors. They have a tremendous task and must draw constantly upon the storehouse of Heaven for ability. May we not expect the laity to also present their bodies a "living sacrifice" that our church may, in this hour, make our contribution to God, which we should in view of Christ's imminent coming.

REPORT OF THE TITHING SECRETARY

To the members of the Champlain Conference:

Greetings in the name of Jesus.

At the last session of conference you elected me to the position of tithing secretary. I believe in and whole heartedly practice store-house tithing. My church has been greatly blessed by God as they have faithfully and consistently honored Him with their tithes and offerings. Many other churches could testify to the same thing.

While I love to preach tithing, I have done very little of it outside of my own church. Since I was elected to the position of Area W. Y. P. S. president 3 years ago, this has allowed little time to be away from my church for anything but young people's work. Another year still remains of my work among the area young people, and for this reason it would seem best to elect someone else as tithing secretary. I would very much enjoy the work, but do not feel that is fair to the Conference not to be able to give more time to it. Perhaps after next year, if the Conference should ever want me to, I could give a greater amount of time and effort to this real worthy cause.

My work this year consisted of preaching in one church outside of my own and sending literature to those requesting it.

Respectfully submitted,

Edwin Seaman

SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY'S REPORT

Aldis M. Lamos, Conf. Sec.

Sunday School work is great work.

The following achievements represent the result of cooperative effort in the work of the Lord in our Sunday Schools. Our 34 schools have an enrollment of 2774 compared to 2796 reported last year, making a loss in enrollment of 22; the average attendance for the year is 1654 compared with 1598 reported last year making a gain in average attendance of 56. 18 schools gained, 14 schools lost, 2 reported no change. Some reported large gains, others heavy losses.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

The Conference 4 Star Program has been promoted, and the following classification of Sunday Schools is according to this:

Sunday Schools making all of the following 4 Star features—

- (1) A Vacation Bible School.
- (2) Monthly Worker's Meetings.
- (3) A Christian Worker's Course.
- (4) 10% increase in Average Attendance.

are in Class E (excellent), Sunday Schools making 3 of the above are in Class A, Sunday Schools making 2 are in Class B, Sunday Schools making 1 are in Class C, and Sunday Schools making none of these are in Class O (zero).

CLASS E SCHOOLS—None.

CLASS A SCHOOLS—Corinth, Heuvelton, Lisbon and Schenectady

CLASS B SCHOOLS—Cobleskill and Colton

CLASS C SCHOOLS—Bakers Mills, Cadyville, Foretsdale, Hague, Macomb, Morley, Norfolk, Northside, Springfield, Stony Creek, West Plattsburg, West Chazy, and Brant Lake.

CLASS O SCHOOLS—Brookdale, Canaan Hill, Carlisle, Chichester, Chittenden, Cooks Corners, Fort Miller, Glens Falls Hadley, Long Lake, Malone, Mooers, Ticonderoga, Watervliet, and Willow.

ACTIVITIES

Traveled to Winona Lake, Indiana, and attended the National Sunday School Conference.

Traveled to Houghton, N. Y., and conferred with Dr. Rufus Reisdorph, General Sunday School Secretary, on Sunday School work.

Traveled the Conference in the interest of Sunday School work, holding a service for the same on each charge.

Prepared articles on Sunday School work for the WESLEYAN and the CHALLENGER, and sent out a periodical folder to the Pastors, and Superintendents.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Continuance of the Four Star Program.
2. Continuance of the Budget assessment of $.15 per member in the Main School, and each Sunday School, as far as possible, pay their Budget within the 1st quarter of this Conference year.
3. A Sunday School Convention in each of the four districts of the Conference this year.
4. The Sunday Schools be allowed to compute their yearly average attendance from the attendance of 48 Sundays, dropping off any 4 that they may wish. The reason for this is: 2 Sundays are taken up for the Conference and Camp Meeting; and 2 Sundays might be low, or nil in the event of severe weather, or epidemic, thus knocking down an otherwise good record.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Inasmuch as prophecy is being rapidly fulfilled and the return of Christ is drawing near, the hearts of men are perplexed, and nations are being destroyed, therefore be it resolved:

1. That we maintain our faith in God as a preserver of souls and nations.
2. That we, as members of the Champlain Conference, humble ourselves and wait before God in prayer, lamenting our slow increase of numbers and new churches.

3. That, as members of the Champlain Conference—by the preaching of God's Word and by holy living and intercession—we double our efforts to win and hold for God men who are now held by the power of evil.

4. That, by prayer and fasting, and the use of every ability that God gives—we fight every evil of this day.

5. And that we continue to spread Scriptural Holiness wherever we may be until Jesus comes.

Respectfully submitted,
S. Harry Miller,
Clifton Chapman.

RESOLUTIONS

Report No. 4

Whereas—Our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ, His Son, commissioned the Church to carry the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the world; and

Whereas—That commission has never been revoked, its responsibility still rests upon His Church; and

Whereas—We believe that we the Wesleyan Methodist Church are a part of that visible and invisible body;

Be it therefore resolved—That we, the Champlain Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, pledge our lives and allegiance anew to the fulfilling of that great commission. That we recognize the challenges which confront us:

1. That the hour is late, for we are persuaded that the time of His return draws nigh and what we do we must do quickly.

2. The glory of the opportunity, because it seems that never before has there been so many people in so many lands with open hearts and outstretched hands calling for the message of eternal life.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

3. The promise of blessing—"Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." "I am with you even unto the end."

We further resolve that we, as a group of God's servants, shall push the battle as never before, not in theory, not with wishful thinking; but with warm hearts, alert minds, open pocket books, and sacrificial service that in these end times Christ may be brought to the nations. We would place the sum total of our resources in the hands of the One whose investments pay the highest of dividends in Eternal values.

5. The election of officers who are subscribers to and readers of the WESLEYAN METHODIST and the WESLEYAN MISSIONARY and that effort be made to place the WESLEYAN MISSIONARY in every home.

JULY 1, 1950

The Annual Session of the Champlain Conference W. Y. P. S. convened July 1, 1950, at 1:30 P. M., and was opened with the singing of "For God So Loved The World," and "Everyday With Jesus." A short Scripture lesson was taken from the 4th chapter of St. John, followed by prayer, after which the President, Rev. Elton Seaman, welcomed the young people to the Conference Session.

It was voted to have the first five rows of seats as the Bar of Conference.

Roll call was taken of Presidents and Delegates.

The President's report was read and accepted. See report No. 1.

The Treasurer's report was read and accepted. See report No. 2.

The District Chairmen, Rev. Kenneth Ross, Rev. Clifton Chapman, Rev. Ray Morgan, and Mr. Ray Smith, gave interesting oral reports of the activities in their Districts during the year. We are thankful for the Lord's blessing on the Youth Work in all of the districts.

The Y. M. W. B. superintendent, Mrs. Vina Hewitt, presented the need of this arm of the work, and enlisted the support of the W. Y. P. S. in helping raise more money in the Y. M. W. B. bands.

REPORTS

W. Y. P. S. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the W. Y. P. S. Annual Conference, convened at West Chazy Camp Ground, July 1, 1950—Greetings in Jesus' Name.

It is with pleasure that we come to this Annual Session. God, in His great mercy, has led the Conference W. Y. P. S. groups through the devious ways of the year past, and has, I am sure, secured glory to His name through the activities of these Youth who are on the march for Christ.

Fellow Young People, we are serving under a great banner! Let's hold it high! Let the world see our colors, and let us take a definite stand for God and righteousness, and the God who has never lost a battle will amply reward us when the battles are finally over, and the victory won!

In regard to the progress of the W. Y. P. S. through the year great praise is due the faithful Pastors and Y. P. Presidents who have so loyally encouraged and pushed the aims and work of the Societies in the home churches. Good reports have come in through the year. It has been your President's pleasure to receive notice of the organization of three new Societies since our last gathering here. May God bless these new members of our Conference Society.

It has also been your President's pleasure to represent you at a Conference of the Presidents of this Area, held in Jersey City, N. J., and called particularly for the purpose of formulating plans for another Area Convention which will be held this Fall, D. V.

Let us increase our activity and zeal in the year ahead, but keep this zeal steadied by an increasing deepness in our Spiritual life. We do not know how soon we may be engaged in another global conflict, or how soon we may be meeting our coming, conquering Christ, so may we find God's grace sufficient for every exigency of the future, for He has said, "I will never leave thee, or forsake thee."

Respectfully Submitted,

Elton Seaman, President
