The name of Richard Palmer was called and his character passed.

A three-minute recess was enjoyed by all at this time.

The Order of the Day having arrived, being the preaching of the Word of God. "Amen, Jesus" was sung by a trio composed of Florence Baxter and Edith and Lillian Stevenson.

Dr. J. S. Willett read the Scripture lesson from St. John 20: 19-21, and a number of selections from the book of Acts. The text used was from the first chapter of Ephesians, the last clause of the thirteenth verse: "Ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise." Brother Willett said that as Christians we must have the Holy Spirit of this age, and not the spirit of the age, for the Holy Spirit is interested in eternal things, while the spirit of the age is for the things of this world. This burning message was a great encouragement to all that heard it.

Prayer was offered by O. G. Wyman.

"Fill Me Now" was sung, while the fire of God's love burned in our hearts.

Saturday Afternoon Meeting.

The Secretary and Treasurer of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society made their annual reports. See Report of same in Conference Minutes.

The Camp Meeting Committee made its report and the same was adopted. See Report No. 8.

It was voted to express our appreciation of the good work being done by the W. H. and F. M. Society.

It was voted that the President be authorized to secure a man to do the preaching in the afternoons of the next Annual Conference session.

Moved that the President be authorized to appoint all the chairmen of the Committees.

Moved that Harley S. Hill rewrite Resolutions for special meetings in the four districts. See Resolution No. 4.

The President made his closing message and stirred the hearts of all that were present.

Prayer was offered by E. D. Carpenter.

Moved and carried to adjourn.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

---

"Blest Be the Tie that Binds" was sung and the benediction was pronounced by A. J. Allen.

Saturday Evening Meeting.

Song service was in charge of Rev. H. C. Shares, of the Rochester Conference. "Blessed Assurance" was sung, and Brother Shares offered prayer. Many of the promises of God were repeated. Solo by Dorothy Trowbridge.

Prayer was offered by Rev. L. C. Mattoon, of the Lockport Conference, and nine young men sang the Y. M. W. B. Song.

Sister Mary Lane Clarke, the Connectional Superintendent of the Y. M. W. B., gave a stirring address in behalf of the great work being done by the Band.

The new Superintendent of the Conference Y. M. W. B., Mrs. George Stevenson, made some very welcome remarks.

A duet was sung by Mildred Stevenson and Gwendolyn Hayes.

Rev. J. S. Willett gave the young people a very helpful talk. He spoke of the great necessity of being saved while they were young. When the altar call was given seventeen came seeking the Lord. Many others came to consecrate their lives to the service of the Master. A number came seeking the blessing of heart purity. This was a time of great rejoicing and many testimonies were given to the saving and sanctifying power of God.

Benediction by J. S. Willett.

Sunday Morning Meeting.

The love feast was led by Rev. E. D. Carpenter. About 170 took part in this great feast of rejoicing.

The "New Song" was sung and Rev. A. J. Allen led in prayer.

A Resolution of Appreciation was read, and a duet, "Bright Morning Star," was sung.

Dr. J. S. Willett was the preacher of the hour. His subject was the Supremacy of the Cross. He took for his text I. Cor. 15:3. To make possible the salvation of men, God made the greatest sacrifice ever made. An indispensable experience of the soul is the forgiveness of sins. How brought about? The vital point and answer is through the death of Christ. The distinctive and determining doctrine of the Christian religion is the atonement. Reject that and you have a religion, but not the Christian religion. One fact emphasized tremendously in Scripture is the death of Jesus, and that His death was necessary for the forgiveness of sins. The proof of the divinity of Jesus, and the value of his death, is found in living monuments of grace. Saved by the "blood of the Lamb." This is the burning message of the early apostles and the Christians, and is seen in their preaching and in the hymnology of the Church. No other doctrine is of such importance. It should have a primary place in our preaching. At the close of this message a number came to the altar seeking salvation.

Benediction by A. J. Allen.

Sunday Afternoon Meeting.

A. J. Allen was in charge of the song and praise service. The "Everlasting Arms" and "I Will Trust Jesus" were sung.

H. C. Shares and H. R. LaVere offered prayers. A male quartette sang "There is a Homeland."

Rev. F. H. Wright was the messenger of the hour and he used for his text St. John 3: 36: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Brother Wright said that God has created us to eternal life. It is the thought of eternal life that leads us on to happiness. Young men, incorporate the principles of Jesus Christ and you will succeed. Your efficiency depends upon it. There is one book that tells us the way to have fellowship with God. The blood of a lost world depends upon it. The key word of the Gospel of John and also of the whole Bible is "believe." In order for us to enjoy the blessings of God we must have altar services, and believe what God says, that we must be converted and wholly sanctified. This was a great heart-searching time, and the Lord wonderfully blessed the truth.

Benediction by Rev. F. H. Wright.

Sunday Evening Meeting.

This was a Communion service. Appropriate Scripture lesson was read from Luke 22: 19, 20. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung.

Brother J. S. Willett offered prayer.

The altar was filled a number of times while the people partook of these emblems.

Brother H. J. Bullock brought the closing message. The Scripture lesson was read from part of the twenty-ninth chapter of Second Chronicles, and the twenty-seventh verse was used for his text: "And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the Lord began also, with the trumpets and with the instruments ordained by David, king of Israel." He said, "There is a day of atonement. There were many offerings, the sin, the meat, and the burnt offerings. All are symbols of the one great offering that was made on the Cross. This sacrifice required the whole body, and we must offer our all to God. In doing His will and keeping His commandments there is great reward. So let us not fear to consecrate our all to Christ, for it is impossible to disobey the Lord and still keep our happiness."

God's presence was manifest in this service. Sisters Edith and Lillian Stevenson sang a duet, "Dig Deep."

Another session of the Champlain Conference has gone down on the pages of history, with a note of praise and victory.

Rev. C. E. Hill made the closing prayer.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Report No. 1.

THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT FOR YEAR 1921-1922.

To My Brethren in the Holy War, Greetings:—

We bow humbly and reverently before the Lord of hosts with gratitude and praise for his continued goodness and guidance through another year, the victories made possible by his help, and again permitting us to gather in our annual feast, without the loss of any by death, for so far as we know he has not permitted the enemy to enter the ranks of the ministry. All praise to His holy name.

Without doubt we all have had some battles to fight, and our faith has been tested, but so far as we have been able to hear and see none have failed, but have stood at their post, and have fought bravely and nobly for the cause of righteousness, and against the powers of darkness, yea, have earnestly contended for the faith once delivered to the fathers.

We are living in an age of awful apostasy, when men have turned away from the old paths, and the living God, and are in a wild rush after money, pleasure, anything but God and His holiness, for it must be apparent to all, the great need of the Church of God standing firm for the principles that underlie the very foundation and for which we believe God has called us into being as a Church.

What we need more than anything else, if we are going to stand and accomplish anything worth while, is the baptism of the Holy Ghost, for if the disciples needed to tarry till they received the Holy Ghost, how much more we need him now; but, blessed be the name of our God, we can have Him in all His fulness if we meet the conditions made plain in His holy Word. Then let us one and all go down in humility, putting away everything displeasing to Him, tarry in prayer till He comes, fills these hearts and lives with His glory and power that will make us an invincible army.

May it be even so, is the prayer of your humble servant in Jesus' precious name, that will enable us to say from our innermost soul,

"Give me Jesus, Jesus only,
He's the fairest to my soul;
He's the lily of the valley,
And His blood now makes me whole."

SECRETARY CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Some people are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them. You who were members of the last Conference remember how in my absence I was elected Secretary of the Conference Sunday School Board. There was a time when this office was my ambition, but with the necessary duties and added work of the past year, I have been unable to do much, except write letters (I enjoy it). I enjoy Sunday School work. It is so important that I believe we MUST bend greater energies to its propagation.

One Teacher Training Class (at West Plattsburg) has completed its course during the year, and of the five members the grand average of the entire class was over 95 per cent. A very commendable record.

One Class, "The Bereans" of Chazy, has been organized during the year. This was in the Adult Department.

These are prospects of at least two Teacher Training Classes being organized this coming year. I hope and pray there may be others.

Financial report: Cash received from Rev. H. S. Hill, $12.72. Received during the year, $62.25. Total received, $79.97.

Connectional Apportionment, $55.85. Conference expense, $17.43. Total paid out, $73.33. Cash on hand, $6.69.

Yours cheerfully in God's service,

Walter F. Lewis.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISTIC WORK.

Your Committee on Evangelistic Work reports as follows:

We have carefully considered the subject referred to us and submit the following:

1. That the president travel the Conference.
2. That he shall hold at least one quarterly meeting on each charge during the year, and the balance of his time shall be devoted to church extension work in the Conference either in opening new work or in evangelistic service on fields already established as the best interests of the work may demand.
3. The arrangement of the dates for quarterly meeting work to be made by the president and his Advisory Board.
4. The salary of the president to be one thousand dollars per year and traveling expenses. Said expense to be based on ministerial rates of travel to points that can be reasonably reached by railroad. Other points more remote from railroad a larger traveling expense shall be allowed.

5. The president to be granted a vacation of three weeks during the year if he so desires.

6. The Committee on Apportionment to make the apportionment for Conference work large enough to cover president's salary in addition to other needed funds for Conference work.

7. All money received by the president in his work to be credited to the charge from which received and to apply on Conference apportionment for said charge, the President to receipt to pastor and where there is no pastor to the charge, that they may get proper credit in settlement with Conference treasurer.

8. We recommend the adoption of the above plan unless the Conference can present a better one.

Your Committee feels that if we adopt this, or some other plan, that the highest measure of success will be attained by abstaining from criticism of the plan as yet untried, but instead, pray earnestly for the man and the work that the outpouring of the Holy Spirit may come upon the work of the Conference in greater measure than any year in the past, and with loyalty and devotion as our watchword and practice, backed by earnest prayer, look for greater results both in quality and quantity than ever before.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

---

Wednesday Afternoon.

After prayer by Miss Campbell, Mrs. Lee had charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Mary Lane Clarke was introduced.

Mrs. Lee presented practical plans for the Society. Stress should be put on organizing a Society on the nine charges which now have no such Society. In order to be efficient, programs should be used. A suggestion was made that each local Society make an offering to the Missionary Magazine to make up the deficit in publishing this magazine. Also secure new subscribers. A Home Missionary program should be given in order to better acquaint the people with Home Mission work, this including the work at Glenville and in Alabama. The Annual Thank Offering may be given any time through the year, this offering also to go for Home Mission work. The Harvest Day offering was splendid, there being over $2,000 contributed, the plan being that this day be observed again this coming year. The matter of helping to clothe some of the children of the Hephzibah Orphanage at Macon, Ga., was brought up.

Adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

Thursday Afternoon.

Meeting opened by Scripture reading by Miss Campbell and prayer by Mrs. Clarke.

Minutes of Wednesday meetings were read and adopted.

Reports from the following Bands and Societies were read and adopted: Brookdale, Hague, Horicon, and West Chazy.

The Treasurer's report was read and referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Committee on Credentials reported eleven delegates. This report was adopted.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

The Treasurer's report was adopted as submitted.

The report on Statistics was read and adopted.

Adjourned.

Public Meeting, Friday Evening.

Singing "'Twas Grace That Lifted Me," by the congregation.

Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. A. J. Allen.

Solo, "All the Way to Calvary," Miss Florence Baxter.

The first speaker introduced was Mrs. Edith Lee. The keynote of the address was personal evangelism. A few facts were given concerning the Home work. The need is great for more schools in order to better evangelize our own land. The best way to help others and give them a chance is to carry the great gospel of salvation to them.

Male Quartette, "He Was Not Willing," Messrs. Wright, Willett, Mattoon and Luckey.

Miss Clara Campbell was the next speaker. In a very interesting and capable manner she told of the horrors of cannibalism and polygamy and other customs of Africa. There are noticeable results of the effort put forth for them, for they are thinking for themselves that faith in their superstitions is useless. Not one of the young Mission boys has turned from the Christian faith to Mohammedanism.

Mrs. Mary Lane Clarke spoke on the Ministry of Christian Womanhood. The destiny of the nations lies in the heart and hand of the Mothers. Women of heathen lands are virtually slaves. All pagan religions give no place to woman. We were reminded of some of the beautiful pictures of womanhood as given in the Bible and as exemplified in the homes of some of our greatest missionaries. The boys and girls are the hope of the Church, and we should all get under the burden and lift them up to God in prayer, for God will answer prayer. We have a great responsibility to see that the Gospel story is brought to other mothers and sisters.

Prayer, by Mrs. Anna Elliott.

Duet, "Don't Lose the Vision," Mrs. Edith and Lillian Stevenson. Offering.

Benediction, Rev. E. D. Carpenter.

Saturday Afternoon.

Meeting opened by Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. LaVere. A partial report on subscriptions to the Wesleyan Missionary was submitted.
