No. 4. Report of Camp-Meeting Committee.

The ninth annual camp-meeting of the Champlain Conference, August 19-30, 1914, was a real feast of good things. The preaching as done by Brother Warren and Brother Bain was especially strong and helpful. The music was most acceptable and inspiring. The burden for the work that was on nearly all the campers was a very encouraging feature of the work. In the amount of real work done, this meeting surpassed any in recent years.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

This sentence from the 1914 advertising is worthy of repetition: "God is blessing the annual meetings of the Champlain Conference Camp-meeting; if then he is seeing fit to use it, and the Champlain Conference is responsible for it, then the people of the Conference ought to maintain and support it so royally that he can use it just as largely as he wishes." It is only as we make this a real Conference Camp-meeting that it will mean what it ought to the Church. The Conference pays one-half the carfare of the pastors who come to the meeting. Last year this bill amounted to $6.13.

During the year the Committee has purchased the Lienard Cottage. Brother Bain has been engaged for the 1915 meeting. The same leaders in song have been asked to return.

The Committee deeply regrets the loss of one of its members, Brother A. N. Bedell, whose prayers, plans, counsel, and consecrated business ability were a valuable asset to the Conference Camp-meeting Committee.

Resolution No. 1.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Champlain Conference, convened at Glens Falls, N. Y., April 20, A. D. 1915, wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the Rev. E. D. Carpenter and wife, and the members and friends of the Glens Falls Wesleyan Methodist Church, for the whole-hearted way in which they have cared for all our needs, and have so bountifully entertained us in their pleasant homes. May the Spirit of the Master rest upon and remain with them ever.

Respectfully submitted,

O. G. Wyman,
E. L. Elliott.

Resolution No. 2.

Inasmuch as Brother Arthur Baker has stated to the Committee on Pastoral Relations that if he takes the Hadley charge he does not intend to move into the Hadley parsonage, and inasmuch as two of Brother Russell's children are in the Luzerne school, and in order not to break up these students in their school work by moving at this time, it is the sense of this Conference that Brother Russell be permitted to occupy said parsonage if he so desires till the close of the school in June.

Evangelistic Services.

Evening Services—Tuesday night, Opening sermon, F. C. Adams; Wednesday night, S. W. Wright; Thursday night, Professor McDowell; Friday night, E. L. Elliott; Saturday night, C. E. Hill; Sunday night, A. C. Dow.

These services increased in interest and power till the close when there were several seekers at the altar for pardon and one for cleansing. Truly, victory did turn on Israel's side.

Afternoon services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Willett, who had been secured for this purpose by our President. Brother Willett certainly did justice to the occasion. He did preach with certainty, power and clearness not often witnessed. May it be our privilege to have him for another occasion.

Thus closed a very gracious session, in which perfect harmony and brotherly love prevailed throughout the entire session. God's favor is certainly upon us. Let us keep humble and hold steady, that God may still continue to give us showers of blessing. Amen.

Rev. E. D. Carpenter, President.

Rev. L. C. Mattoon, Secretary,
