PRAYER LEAGUE

Jesus said, "If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." This with the scripture we are claiming for a Connectional-wide revival, Matthew 18:19 are God's promises to us. Let us be faithful in the ministry of prayer.

I have called the Prayer League to prayer for 33 revivals and mailed 504 cards at an expense of $5.04.

CONFERENCE EVANGELIST'S REPORT

Once again we have come to the annual Conference and are assembled to reflect prayerfully and humbly upon the labors of the year as well as to seek a clear vision and a renewal of strength for the future labors. We have sought to the best of our ability to carry forward the work assigned us as Conference Evangelist a year ago. Our activities have been centered upon five fields, including a tent revival at Phillipsburg, which just closed Sunday night.

We began the year's work at Greenleaf where we conducted a five weeks' meeting in a rented hall. As a result of the interest and response in this meeting and the pastoral leadership on the field following the meeting, a Wesleyan class of fourteen members was organized and Brother Wendell Campbell was stationed as temporary pastor. Eight subscriptions for the Wesleyan Methodist were received.

Upon leaving Greenleaf we turned our attention to the Manhattan field. Our revival there was preceded by a period of house to house visiting along with regular Sunday services and prayer meetings in a rented hall. The College Male Quartet joined us in the revival. We sensed some distinct gains in the meeting against the tide of opposition which seems peculiar to that field. Some were saved and many were helped. The quartet made friends throughout the city, singing to shut-ins, in street services, in the Junior and Senior high school assemblies, as well as the regular evangelistic services each evening. At the close of this revival we set about to organize a Wesleyan class. However, the response was not what we expected it would be. After prayerful consideration we concluded it would be unwise to attempt an organization at the time. Following the revival we continued pastoral work in Manhattan through a period in which the interest did not seem sufficient to justify our giving full time, and upon advising with the Board we left the group to the challenge of local initiative, assisting them in securing student preachers from Miltonvale for their regular services. Since that time a Wesleyan Sunday school has been organized with an attendance average of 30 or 35. Regular services are being continued in the same location, the local group carrying responsibility for same. By common consent, Brother Ray Horner has assumed the pastoral leadership of the work during the vacation period. Nine Wesleyan Methodist subscriptions were received in Manhattan.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

We turned our attention to the Quinton Heights field in Topeka and were graciously welcomed into the home of the acting pastor and wife, Brother and Sister L. W. Melton. Brother V. C. Martin conducted a fruitful revival on this field and organized the class. He, together with Brother and Sister Melton, deserves much credit for the early developments on this field. We continued here a month, nearly all of which time was spent in special services. During our ministry we saw some saved and sanctified, and the saints greatly encouraged. Three substantial members were received into the fellowship of the church. We negotiated for the purchase of the church property and assisted in raising $125 cash to apply on the purchase price, also recommending that the church consider securing the services of a full time pastor. After consulting with Brother and Sister Melton and receiving their endorsement, Brother and Sister Leo Cox were given a unanimous call to pastor the work. With the approval of the Conference President, Brother Hill, he moved to the field at once. Brother and Sister Melton are continuing their interest in the work.

Our next labors were in the town of Belle Plaine, located south of Wichita. Belle Plaine has a population of perhaps 900. Brother S. M. Yonally, our pastor in Wichita, who has been conducting prayer meetings on this field for nearly two years, had preparations made for a tent meeting. By proper consent we pitched the tent on ground belonging to the Baptist people and adjoining their church. Being visited with wet weather and a scourge of mosquitoes, we were glad to accept an invitation to move into the Baptist Church as the only possible way of continuing the services. Quite a little interest developed in this meeting, and more than a dozen sought the Lord. We made every reasonable attempt to conserve the work. However, some among the Baptist remnant drew back the closing week of the meeting and we were unable to see the forces represented in the revival move forward under holiness leadership at its close. The field is needy and open, and with some regular follow-up work, as may be possible, will ripen in time, I believe, for a class there.

THE KANSAS CONFERENCE

Upon our return to Miltonvale, we assisted Brother Campbell at Greenleaf in services over two Sundays and the intervening evenings, were with the Manhattan group one Sunday and with Brother Conrad at Mankato over one Sunday just prior to the Phillipsburg revival.

We have sought throughout the year to have the supervision of the Missionary Board together with their approval upon each new undertaking. We deeply appreciate the prayers and backing of the Conference through the year, especially so in view of the newness, at least, if not the experimental aspect of the venture. Though there is no royal road to the entrance upon new fields, the need and challenge is tremendous. We cannot appeal too strongly for a continued sense of burden and vision to rest upon the Conference in behalf of pushing into needy fields. May God direct definitely in the manner by which the Conference shall give expression to this burden and need in the coming year.

The hand of God has been upon Mrs. Sheets and I and our family in love, mercy, and a kind providential care throughout the year. My own heart is filled with praise and gratitude in reviewing His gracious blessings and I purpose to continue as His unworthy servant in the abundant graces of full salvation, in perfect love toward all of my brethren, and under the solemn obligations of a God-called ministry.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

For the moral and religious instruction of our people, and for the promotion of Bible Holiness, and the propagation of other doctrines essential to the development of Christian character, we consider the Sunday school a necessary and indispensable institution of the Church."

The Sunday school is important because it is an evangelizing agency. The Word of God is responsible for faith. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." The Word of God is the means the Holy Spirit is pleased to use to awaken the young, tender life and lead it to repentance and faith. Seventy per cent of all who are saved have been converted under the age of twenty. The great Bible characters, Joseph, Moses, Samuel, David, Timothy, and others, were converted in the young and tender years of life. Woodrow Wilson says: "It is very difficult indeed for a man or boy who knows the Scriptures to ever get away from it. It haunts him like an old song. It follows him like the memory of mother. It forms a part of the warp and woof of his life."

The Sunday school is important because it nourishes and feeds the divine life. We grow in grace by a knowledge of the truth. "The Holy Spirit is our instructor, and the Word is the medium through which He instructs us. The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the time we devote to the study of the Word." "While Shakespeare is the greatest of all writers outside of the Bible, the Bible is so superior to Shakespeare from merely a literary point of view; so superior to Shakespeare in beauty and splendor of poetry, richness of prose, in knowledge of human nature, that there is no comparison at all. This is generally believed today by all shades of people, whether they are hostile to religion or not."

Our Sunday schools should be kept spiritual. We should keep out formality and worldliness. Our Sunday schools should be well organized in every department. Again, we should avoid falling into a rut. Plan for special numbers and vary opening and closing services. Forward with the Sunday school work.

E. H. COOK,
LOWELL GILGER, Committee.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY

Owing to the resignation of Brother Tigar I was appointed by the President on November 9, 1937 to act as Conference Sunday School Secretary.

We found all of the Sunday school records in an excellent, well-kept condition.

We continued the Conference Sunday-school Contest inaugurated by Brother Tigar and have appreciated the interest and coöperation upon the part of the pastors, Sunday-school Superintendents, and Secretaries in mailing their reports. We believe the Sunday school of the Conference as a whole is spiritual, well organized, and in good working condition. There has been a very marked increase in enrollment and attendance upon the part of many of the Sunday schools of the Conference. Three new Sunday schools have been organized this year: Greenleaf, Topeka, and Manhattan.

It was our pleasure and privilege to have with us this year our Sunday School Editor and Connectional Sunday School Secretary, Rev. Roy S. Nicholson.

We had Brother Nicholson with us for five Sunday-school Conventions: Salina; Phillipsburg; Mankato; Miltonvale, and Topeka. Our first convention at Salina was well attended and the blessing of God in an unusual way rested on both the afternoon and evening services. The following day as we drove to Phillipsburg we ran into a very severe snow storm and the badly drifted roads interfered very much with the attendance at other points. It was necessary to cancel our Convention at Concordia on account of the storm.

MORAL REFORM

"Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls." Jer. 6: 16.

Inasmuch as we are confronted with constantly shifting and slipping standards in moral and spiritual realms, it is of tremendous importance that we inquire for the old paths and "Earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints," remembering the Lord hath said, "I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people," and His plumbline changeth not.

While the popular church of today has lost its head and turned its back on God and things spiritual, let us, as Kipling suggested, not "Lose our head while all about us are losing theirs," but rather, looking unto Jesus, our Mighty Captain, go forth warring against sin till He come again.

Inasmuch as worldliness of all kinds is settling down upon the Church like a pall, we again uncompromisingly reaffirm our stand against it. God's people are a separate people. We cannot afford to allow the dividing line that separates between the Church and the world ever to grow dim. God has blessed our Conference in recent years as she has held high the standard. We must not lower it. If we should, we will lose our power and go down in disgrace and defeat.

The present trend of women wearing men's clothes, (such as slacks, etc.), semi-nudity of both sexes of all ages, such as shirtless men and boys, dresses without backs, short sleeves, shortened or split skirts, or otherwise of such material as does not properly cover the body, is diametrically opposed to vital godliness, and cannot be indulged in without injury to the soul.

We wish to stress anew our disciplinary stand of dressing as becometh holiness wherever we are, including when in our own homes, knowing that if we let down the standards here it dulls the keen edge of our convictions. Much of the modern hair dress, including permanent waves, are not conducive to spirituality, nor in harmony with the Christian principle of self-denial. Faddy colored or sheer, flesh colored hose bespeak of worldliness rather than modest apparel as becometh holiness.

The tobacco and liquor interests, together with other devilish influences, are greedily and lustfully after our children and youth. Let us build high about them a wall of prayer and faith, refraining from dressing them in such attire as anklets, sun suits, or other abbreviated fashions. Lustful eyes are upon, and greedy hands are grasping after them.

The ancient Jew, along with godly parents of all ages, have taken time to instruct their children in the ways of God. To neglect this scriptural plan will be at the peril of our own as well as their souls. Perhaps we would have more men of the John and Charles Wesley type if we had more mothers of the Susannah Wesley type.

Since many periodicals have sold out to the tobacco and liquor interests by way of advertising, we urge that with caution we permit newspapers and magazines to come into our homes. If articles of value are contained in such periodicals, the pages containing debasing and false advertising should be torn out. Certain radio programs should never be allowed to be heard in the home. Since we desire better programs we should freely express our appreciation of such programs as are spiritually uplifting.

The present trend of the New Deal in spending such vast amounts of money purportedly to help us out of the recession may have a tendency to cause us to place too much dependence on the arm of flesh rather than on the arm of God. Certain forms of lending to the farmers is causing many to become involved in debt from which they cannot free themselves. It is unwise and unChristian to mortgage the future for present privilege.

Sabbath desecration is an ever increasing sin of this age. No Christian can participate in or countenance anything that mars the sacredness of the holy Sabbath.

Reformation without vital godliness can never safeguard society in this present life or prepare one to meet God in peace. Therefore a genuine revival of New Testament Salvation must be our goal and the subject of our united prayers.

WILLIAM A. SMITH, Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS

1. Evangelistic Help. Resolved, That the Camp Meeting and Camp-ground Committee be authorized, if they see fit to do so, to engage Evangelistic help for the Camp Meeting two years in advance.

H. & F. M. Society, and that all subscription lists be kept by these Treasurers, and that notice of indebtedness be given all subscribers by means of a list sent to their pastors early in the year.

4. Sanctity of God's House. Resolved, That such work as making quilts and disposing of the same be performed in the homes of the people and not in the houses erected for public worship.

5. Pastor's Moving Expenses. Resolved, That the class hiring a minister shall within ten days after his arrival pay to him his moving expenses, this not to be applied on his salary.

REPORT ON MORAL REFORM

Realizing the solution of the world's problems must come from God, we the members of the W. Y. P. S., pledge ourselves to a deeper devotional life in Him, by spending more time in a diligent searching of His Word and prevailing prayer, thus doing our best to promote a world-wide revival.

We urge that our young people develop a greater degree of reverence for the House of God and for His Day, endeavoring always to keep it holy. We steadfastly put our disapproval upon all worldly amusements such as the dance, picture show, unwholesome literature, jazz music, public swimming pool, and any degrading social gatherings, the drinking of alcoholic liquors, the use of drugs or tobacco in any form, and all like things which tend to lower the morale of our youth. We deplore the rank immodesty of dress and ask that our young people strictly refrain from the wearing of short sleeves, short skirts, low necks, bobbed hair, anklets, jewelry, and any other thing that cannot be becoming unto holiness.

We pray that our young people will strive to be "examples of the believers in word, conversation, charity, spirit, faith, and in purity" trusting in the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, our present Redeemer and soon coming King.

MARY GILGER,
OPAL BASS,
EVELYN SPARK.

REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dear Sisters of the Kansas W. H. & F. M. S.:

Greetings! I wish to bring you a brief message from a few words found in the story of Esther, namely, "For such a time as this."

The destiny of God's people, you remember, depended not only on the humors of this Persian king, but also upon the manner in which this stately queen met the crisis of her life. We have the view of Esther standing before the king, not as a wife, but as a petitioner before a sovereign. There was an opportuneness in duty and Mordecai said to her that she "had come to the kingdom for such a time as this." She had risen to such a height to be the deliverer of her own race. She nobly met the challenge, was equal to the time and its demand.

Any one with intelligence enlightened by experience recognizes that we are living in days of distress and confusion. True, there is much that God's people cannot change but must endure. But let us not be among the number that say "nothing can be done about it." Dark days have always preceded revivals. There is a striking similarity between our days and the days in which the Wesleys were born. One biographer writes, "The whole country as a whole was in sad need of reform, both in morals and religion." According to the historian Green there were not a thousand righteous people in England. But God was preparing his men and out of this chaotic condition came the Wesleys, with their hearts burdened, with their eyes opened to the terrible needs of their nation and with a real passion for the salvation of souls.

"For such a time as this." Women have always exerted a decisive influence upon the destinies of nations. J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation said recently, as he addressed a Women's Convention, "The women hold the key to the solution of America's crime problem, because the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." The worth while things of life require strength and courage on the part of those who do them. We have the things that are worth having because some one has had these characteristics, discovered, developed and used them for the glory of God and the good of men. It is love for the cause of God, humanity, country and home that makes any one capable of rising to the performance of great duties. Esther used the means at hand. She said, "How can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

Christian sisters, we are needed for such a time as this. We are needed to throw our influence against the Satanic powers of the day and to intercede for a revival—the kind of a revival needed for such a time as this."

MORAL REFORM

Let the great falling away of the last days stir our hearts to live more godly lives and be better examples of the Bible Standard.

We cannot even take our pattern from the modern holiness women.

The low ideals of home life, worldliness of dress, wearing of jewelry, including engagement and wedding rings, permanents, short sleeves, short skirts, manish dress and use of cosmetics are all being practiced by professed holiness women. God forbid that we as Wesleyan Methodist women should ever become tolerant of such standards. May we as mothers not only adorn ourselves as becometh godliness but also train our children from infancy by dressing them as becometh godliness. Let us remember that the use of sun suits, anklets and abbreviated dresses only feed pride in baby hearts and destroy modesty before the child is accountable.

Tap dancing, bathing pools, movies, card parties, popular music, popular magazines and fiction, intoxicating beverages or habit forming drinks including Coca Cola and tobacco in any form are sinful and cannot be indulged in by Christians.

We implore our women to turn away from everything that in any sense cripples our faith or hinders our prayer life. We urge strict observance of Sabbath and attendance of children at preaching services as well as Sunday school.

Let us walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit.

IDA BRITTON, Chairman;
EDNA TUCKER.

Adopted by the Kansas W. H. & F. M. S. and voted to be sent to the Wesleyan Methodist by the Kansas Conference body.

What a privilege to be serving our Christ in these days. What a challenge to us to be fervent in prayer, strong in faith and diligent in service. Surely this is a wonderful opportunity in Y. M. W. B. work among the young people to inspire them with the joy of service for the King.

We arranged for a state Y. M. W. B. Convention at Miltonvale during Commencement week, with Rev. Robb French as speaker.
