The President made his closing address, laying special stress on the Conference camp meeting. Minutes of the afternoon session were read and the same approved. Fervent prayer was offered by A. J. Allen.

Moved and carried that we adjourn to the call of the chair. Together Let us Sweetly Live was heartily sung. Benediction by E. D. Carpenter.

Saturday Evening Meeting.

Rev. E. D. Carpenter, leader. His Power Can Make You What You Ought to Be was sung. Sister Edith Lee and Sister Roy offered prayer. This was a testimony meeting in which a number took part.

The Scripture lesson was read from 2 Peter, third chapter. Rev. A. J. Allen offered prayer and brought the message of the evening from a text recorded in Hebrews 2:1. This is a message St. Paul gave to the Hebrews. God is the same as He was in the beginning, and His Word declares the wages of sin is death. God's special blessing was upon this service.

Benediction by A. J. Allen.

Sunday Morning Meeting.

The Sunday morning meeting was in charge of Rev. E. L. Elliott. He Sets the Prisoner Free was sung. Brothers McKnight, Craig and Wood offered prayer. The Scripture lesson was read from 1 Peter, third chapter. About one hundred testimonies were given in this love feast, also the breaking of bread.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

Prayer was offered by E. D. Carpenter. Resolution of Appreciation was read. There Is No Disappointment in Heaven was sung.

Rev. T. P. Baker read for the lesson the 12th chapter of Hebrews, using for a text the 24th verse. He said that all the glory belonged to the Father and the Son; that the law has no claim on the victory, that Jesus accomplished this by His suffering and death on the cross. There has been two religions, one of Cain, the other of the blood. Be sure your sin will find you out. God's all-seeing eye is upon us. God meets and has fellowship with His people. Christ was made conqueror through His death on the cross.

Benediction by E. D. Carpenter.

Sunday Evening Meeting.

Communion service at 6:30 P. M., was conducted by Rev. E. D. Carpenter, assisted by the ministers of the Conference. Eighty-five partook of the emblems.

The congregation then marched to the Presbyterian church, where, after special singing, and prayer by Rev. T. P. Baker, a very eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Willett from 1 Tim. 2:5: "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." First, only one God. But one class denies this: "The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God." The word mediator is used six times in the Bible. A mediator is sometimes called an ambassador, sometimes a manager. In Job 9:33 the word "daysman," or umpire has the same meaning. Men recorded in the Bible who acted as mediators: Abraham, Moses, John the Baptist and others. All men recognize the need of a mediator as is evidenced by the claims of the sorcerer, witch doctor and medicine man. There has been a disagreement between God and man caused by sin. The blood of Jesus is the only cure.

A large congregation was present. Benediction by Rev. Barr, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

MEMORIAL No. 1.

Jersey City, N. J., April 16, 1921.

To the Members of the Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, in session at Lisbon, N. Y.:—Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ:—

In the providence of God the work in and about Jersey City, N. J., has been organized into a missionary conference under the name of The Middle Atlantic Mission Conference. God has given us a gracious session, and His Spirit has been poured out upon us in abundant measure.

God has opened to us a door of opportunity which no man can shut, if we are true to Him. There has developed an opportunity to open work in Brooklyn, which we feel to be of the Lord and which should be acted upon very soon. Inasmuch as this is within the easy reach of our present work in Jersey City, we respectfully ask of the Champlain Conference the privilege of including Brooklyn in the territory of the Middle Atlantic Conference.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Conference assembled in Jersey City, April 16, 1921.

Signed by the COMMITTEE.

REPORT No. 1.

President's Annual Report for Year, 1920-1921.

My Dear Brethren and Fellow Laborers in the Master's Vineyard, Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior, whom we serve: Another year has passed and gone. Its history is written, the failures and mistakes; yea, the victories have not been forgotten by Him whose watchful eye has been on us.

It has been a year of unrest in the world, a year of strife, hatred, malice and crime. Strike has followed strike, unsettled conditions on every hand. It has been a year of awful indifference to the calls of God and His people or Church. A year of real testing of faith in a living God, who still lives and does things in answer to prayer.

But, through it all our God has brought us, with our faith made stronger by these testings, and we are privileged to gather in this annual feast again. All glory to our Christ and God for His goodness to us. We have not heard of any one of the brethren who have quit the fight or left his post of duty, but with the faith and courage of a Daniel or Paul, they have stood loyal and true, and pushed the battle on for righteousness.

But while all this is true and we are glad to rejoice, our hearts have been saddened by the news of two of our faithful pastors whom the Master has called to their eternal reward. On Dec. 6, 1920, Rev. A. F. Lent, of Peekskill, N. Y., and on Feb. 13, 1921, Rev. C. C. Hill, of Burke, N. Y., were promoted from their earthly home to their heavenly home.

But while our hearts are sad and we shall miss them, we are so glad of the assurance they have left us. They had fought a good fight, had kept the faith, hencefore, they have gone to get the crown. Therefore, let us be faithful and push the fight harder and a while longer that it may be said of us that we were faithful. Amen.

We have tried by correspondence to keep in touch with the brethren on the field and to help and encourage all we could in that way. We have had some real encouraging reports of gracious revivals and the ingathering of souls, for which we thank our God and take courage.

REPORT No. 4.

Committee on Conference Union.

The Committee on Conference Union, representing the Lockport, Rochester and Champlain Conferences, met in the Wesleyan Methodist Publishing House, Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1921. On motion, Rev. E. D. Carpenter was elected chairman.

Prof. J. S. Luckey was asked to state the business of the hour, which he did, giving the history of the resolution to unite the three above-named conferences into one New York Conference. The whole matter was thoroughly discussed and carefully considered. As a result the following facts appear:

First. That a serious situation confronts us in the steady decline in membership in these conferences during several years past, due in part, at least, to the fact that most of these churches are located in rural communities with a declining population, and to the fact that we have failed to locate churches in the growing centers of population.

Second. That some difficulties appear in the matter of union:

1. The geographical area covered by the three conferences is large.
2. The expense of many would be largely increased in attending the annual conference.
3. There would be the spiritual and inspirational loss resulting from not holding the three annual sessions as at present.

Third. That some definite advantages would result from union:

(a) The possibility of more efficient and economical leadership. Two kinds of leadership are recognized, administrative and evangelistic. The qualifications for leadership in both lines is seldom found in the same man. Therefore, small conferences often employ two men. If the three conferences were united, it is believed that one President could perform the administrative duties of the new conference, then two or three evangelists could be employed for the evangelistic leadership.

(b) The possibility of concentration of evangelistic effort. The union of forces should make it possible to concentrate money and men in some center of population long enough to establish there a substantial Wesleyan church.

THE CHAMPLAIN CONFERENCE

(c) The possibility of an interchange of pastors throughout the conference, New minds, new relations, new visions, bring freshness and vitality essential to efficiency.

(d) The possibility of a greater inspiration, a greater spiritual uplift and a broader vision at the annual session of a large conference.

Fourth. The benefits are so important that the committee believes that steps should be taken to demonstrate whether there are any positive methods by which they may be obtained so that the conferences may learn from experience whether conference union is desirable.

Therefore we recommend:

That, if possible, sometime during the Conference year 1921-1922 a union ministerial institute for the three Conferences be held at a time and place determined by the three Conference Presidents, who shall meet within two weeks of the rise of the Champlain Conference, and that at this institute a time shall be set apart for a full discussion of Conference union.

Further, that all pastors be urged to attend the institute when held and that mileage be pooled.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Full Committee on Conference Union representing Lockport, Rochester and Champlain Conferences.

Camp Meeting Report.

Dear Brethren of the Champlain Conference:—I recall with pleasure the splendid camp meeting of 1920 at West Chazy. The excellent services of Brother DeWeerd, the beautiful spirit manifested by our people, the co-operation of the churches of the Conference, the loyal support of the meeting by our Conference pastors, the valuable work in song by Sister Florence Baxter and the support of the other singers, combined to make the meeting a success. Many were spiritually helped into larger experiences. I am still hearing expressions of appreciation of the good received by seeking hearts.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONNECTION

Financially, the meeting was well cared for. All bills are paid, with a splendid surplus.

The building of an addition to the Dining Hall was authorized and it is expected it will be ready for the coming meeting. One new cottage was provided for at the last meeting of the committee. A meeting of the committee will be called immediately following Conference at which the matter of a cottage will be definitely decided.

The coming camp meeting will soon be here, and every minister should plan to be present; also as many laymen as possible. Rev. Fred DeWeerd and W. O. Jones, Mrs. Stevenson and Miss Florence Baxter are already engaged for the coming meeting. Let us pray much for the coming camp meeting and let us not only resolve to be present in spirit but, if possible, see to it that we are there in body also.

Sunday School Work.

This has been a year of success in our Sunday School work. My health has hindered me from visiting as much as I had planned. I have offered financial assistance to charges, but none have seemed to be in want along that line. In fact, it does not seem to be money that hinders our Sunday Schools, but it seems to be the lack of workers. We need most of all trained, consecrated workers to teach the young people and the children. Every church with a Sunday School and a pastor has done its part toward raising the apportionment; and one charge has a fine class in the Teacher's Training Course and this class is using the new book selected by our Connectional Secretary. The financial report is as follows:

On hand at the first of the year for Conference work, $9.72; Received for Conference work, $20.25; Total on hand and received, $29.97; Expenditures, $17.12; Balance in Treasury, $12.85.

On hand for McLeister first of year, Nothing; Received from Conference work, $57.75; *Paid McLeister, $57.75.

Yours and His,

REV. H. S. HILL,

Conference Sunday School Secretary.

Chorus, "Awakening Chorus."

Address by Dr. Ruby Paine. During the address we learned what they do in a Mission Compound and how they go about it. Prayer is needed more than all else. Dr. Paine told of the work among the patients who come in daily, and those who are kept for a few days or weeks on the Compound. Also about the work she did among the English Government officials, the soldiers and others during the influenza epidemic.

Male Quartette, "He Was Not Willing," Messrs. Chambers, Willett, Mattoon and Luckey.

Address by Rev. T. P. Baker. The Missionary Work is the most important work, for around this hinge all the other important branches of the work. The Home work is the base for all the other interests—educational, publishing, etc. At the close of his address Brother Baker made an appeal for offerings and pledges, and an offering to the amount of $696 was given.

Trio, "The Old Rugged Cross," Mrs. Edith Stevenson, Mrs. Lillian Stevenson and Miss Pearl Hill.

Benediction by Rev. J. S. Willett.

Saturday, April 23.

Meeting called to order and prayer by Doctor Paine.

Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

Report of the Mooers W. H. and F. M. Society was read and accepted.

Motion was made and carried that the Society pay for one year's subscription to the Wesleyan Missionary for the Hepburn Library at Lisbon.

Motion made and carried that the Society pay $25 on Education, $40 to the General Fund, this amount to be equally divided between Home and Foreign work, and $10 for Doctor Paine's expenses.

The Committee on securing subscriptions for the Wesleyan Missionary reported eleven subscriptions secured.

Adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

Respectfully submitted,

MABEL A. HILL, Secretary.
